Fred J. Blakeley left this morning for the Sterling mine, near Jacksonville. J. D. Heard, manager of the mine, is reported worse from inflammatory rheumatism and will probably seek relief at some mineral spring.

Writing to Oakland, Or., from Paris, H. E. Deardorf, the well-known horseman, says that A. C. Ruby, the Portland importer, whom he accompanied to Europe recently, has finished buying a shipment of thoroughbred stallions in England, France, Belgium and Germany. The horses were to have been shipped from London last Saturday. They are expected to arrive in Portland sometime next month. Mr. Deardorf pronounces the stallions the finest ever shipped to the Pacific coast.

C. H. Oden was not so badly injured as first reported by the collapse of a building Monday at his farm on Deer Creek. An old woodshed, made of piling, fell in while Mr. Oden was inside of it, knocking him senseless and inflicting a number of bruises on his body. Had he been standing a little further to the right at the time he would have been struck by a massive sill and perhaps fatally injured or killed outright.

Dr. Hoover, who attended Mr. Oden, reports that in addition to bruises on his body, he has some large welts on his head, but he is in no danger.

Engene Guard: J. M. Stark, of the Hotel Smeede, has leased the vacant room, formerly occupied by the hotel bar, to Mrs. Marks, of Portland, who will open a complete and up-to-date drug store there in the near future. Mrs. Marks is a pharmacist of experience, having owned and conducted drug stores in Ashland, Portland and Lewiston, Idaho, for a number of years past. She is the wife of W. O. Marks, the well-known newspaper cartoonist whose work appears in The Guard from time to time, and a sister of the Stanley Brothers, the well-known merchants of this city. Mrs. Marks will fit up her pharmacy in fine shape and in this splendid location will no doubt do a very successful business. (Mr. Marks is a native Roseburger. He is a son of the late Adolph Marks, of this city.)

The Remedy That Does.

This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MAY RECALL HANNA.

Prohibitionists Said to be Dissatisfied with the Judge.

MEDFORD, Or., July 20.—Reports are current to the effect that Judge H. K. Hanna, of the First Judicial District of Oregon, is to be the subject of a recall petition, to be circulated by prohibitionists on account of his decision sustaining the Medford city charter, which came up for action a short time ago.

Leaders of the prohibition movement here say that they know nothing about this move, and it is credited now to that party in Josephine county.

Some time ago it was reported that Judge Hanna was about to resign, that he might assist his son H. K. Jr., in his law practice, but his friends are now urging him to retain the office, for the present at least.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store. 50c.
