AGEE ON WITNESS STAND. Gives no Evidence of Coaching by Prosecution.

Portland Oregonian, July 23: 1. Thomas Agee, principal witness for the government in the Booth-Singleton conspiracy case, yesterday testified that in 1900 he made an agreement to sell his lieu land selection to the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company for $300. The witness said the agreement was made with Thomas E. Singleton and that the first payment of $50 on the consideration was paid by James Henry Booth, at the Roseburg Land office, when Booth was the receiver. Agee had told only in part his version of the alleged conspiracy when court adjourned. His examination will be resumed by United States Attorney McCourt this morning.

FIGHT JUST BEGUN. Government Atty. to Prosecute Standard to Limit.

the Agee application did not leave Roseburg before December 12, or five days subsequent to the date of the letter. In the meantime, contended the government, one of the letters, dated December 10, from James Henry Booth, as receiver, to an applicant for the same land, advised the applicant that the land already had been filed on. The real purpose of offering these letters in evidence, it was admitted by the government's prosecutors, was to support the contention of the prosecution that Booth had a criminal intent and was proceeding in a manner that would insure Agee's getting the land so that he could convey the land subsequently to the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, in compliance with the alleged conspiracy.

The first, a military parade, will take place on the afternoon of Tuesday, August 4. About 15,000 of the uniform rank will be in line under command of Major Gen. Arthur L. Stobbert, of St. Paul. On the following day about 20,000 men of the subordinate lodges will march under the command of Chief Marshal Geo. E. Wrang.

This Brute Confesses. August Eberhardt today confessed to the police that he murdered his aunt, Mrs. Ophelia Eberhardt, near this city, last Sunday night, and at the same time tried to murder her daughter, Ophelia.

After inducing the two women to come to this country from Austria, Eberhardt enticed them to a lonely spot on the railroad track, near Patterson, where he shot and killed his aunt, and then turned the weapon on her daughter, who struggled with him desperately. Eberhardt shot at the girl, but the bullet missed, and entered one of his arms, enabling her to free herself and escape from him. Robbery was the motive of Eberhardt's crime, he having admitted that he secured $2,600 from his aunt.

JOHN BULL IS JEALOUS. New Zealand Too Cordial in Welcome to American Warships.

LONDON, July 23.—While the American battleship fleet, which sailed today from Honolulu bound for the British colonies in the Antipodes, will be given a warm reception by the officials and people of New Zealand and Australia the feeling in the mother country is far from cordial. As a matter of fact, John Bull is a little jealous of Uncle Sam and some of the London newspapers even charge the latter with an attempt to alienate the affections of King Edward's dominions beyond the seas. The Australians have appropriated about a half million dollars for the entertainment of the fleet and this is branded as "extravagant" by the British press.

New Zealand Prepares. AUCKLAND, N. Z., July 23.—Although New Zealand owns allegiance to the British crown, the ignorant visitor would be inclined to believe it an American colony, owing to the wild enthusiasm that has been aroused by the prospective visit of the Yankee fleet. Thousands of American flags have made their appearance in the city. The fleet will not arrive until August 9, but the preparations for its reception, in progress for many weeks, are about all completed.

The governor of the colony, all the federal officials, and municipal authorities will participate in the welcome. Guns will boom and American flags float from masts all over the city when the battleships steam into the harbor. There will be receptions, excursions and parades ashore, sporting events for the sailors and dinners for the officers. The legislature will adjourn during the stay of the fleet and will give an elaborate function in honor of the American admirals.

Protest Admission of Letters. Over the objections of counsel for the defense, Judge Wolverton yesterday admitted as evidence for the prosecution several letters from the official letter press copy book of the Roseburg land office. The purpose of the letters was to show that ex-Register Bridges was in Roseburg on December 7, 1900, when Agee's lieu land application was made out by James Henry Booth, although the paper contained a notation that Bridges was absent from the city at the time, and furthermore that Bridges did not apply for leave of absence until December.

The prosecution declared further that it would be shown by the letters that if the Agee lieu land application papers had been forwarded to Washington on December 7 they would have reached the general land office not later than December 12, whereas they were not received there until December 17. Allowing the customary time of five and one half days for transmitting mail from Roseburg to Washington, the government inferred that the papers in

THE General Demand of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could recommend for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet powerful, in action. It is supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elix. of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. produces a strong, reliable laxative and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success. That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elix. of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

Mr. Malarkey and Judge Webster, for the defense, contended that the letters had reference to the selected lieu land while the indictment charged that fraud had been committed in the entry, settlement and improvement of the reservation land. For that reason they challenged the relevancy of the evidence. In overruling the objection, Judge Wolverton held that the scope of the indictment included all transactions affecting the transfer of Agee's homestead for a lieu land selection. Since the letters were included in the official records of the land office and related to the alleged fraudulent transactions on which the indictment was based, the court ruled that they were relevant and admissible.

J. F. Woods, of Forest Grove, was called during the afternoon and testified as to publishing in the Springfield News notice of final proof by Agee of his claim. Mr. Woods said he received the money for the advertisement in a check from James Henry Booth, receiver of the Roseburg land office. On cross-examination, however, he explained that this was customary and not to be construed as suspicious circumstance. Mr. Woods said that it invariably was the practice of the entrymen to leave with the receiver of the land office the fee for publishing their final proof notice and that the money was always remitted by that official to the publisher upon the receipt of the proof of publication.

CARDINAL GIBBONS IS 74. BALTIMORE, July 23.—Cardinal Gibbons, the "grand old man" of the Roman Catholic church in America, is 74 years of age today. Friends, colleagues and admirers of the primate of the American hierarchy all over the world sent messages of congratulation.

The cardinal was born in Louisiana July 23, 1834. In his infancy he was taken to Ireland, where he received his early education. Returning to America, he graduated from St. Charles' College, and on June 30, 1861, was ordained a priest. He made rapid advancement and in 1868 was consecrated bishop and vicar apostolic of North Carolina. In 1877 he succeeded to the see of Baltimore. In 1886 he received the crowning honor of his life, and tribute was paid to the American church, by his elevation to the college of cardinals.

BUSH & LANE AND VICTOR Pianos Make a Big Hit in the City of Roseburg.

Roseburg musicians are infatuated with the deep and mellow tone, as well as the easy elastic action, and the artistic cases also come in for a great deal of praise and comment from those music lovers and all agree that nothing so beautiful in the piano line were ever shown in Roseburg and the fact that four of these beautiful instruments are sold in less than a week after their arrival bears out the above popular sentiment, and all agree that the price is away below all former prices, when quality is considered. If you are going to be interested in the purchase of a piano you should inspect these lovely instruments while the stock is complete. Burr's Music House, Roseburg, Oregon. dwd

280 BUSHELS TO AN ACRE. DAYTON, Wash., July 22.—Discovery of a new variety of wheat on the Hogeys ranch, of W. W. Ward, seven miles south of here, which it is claimed if cultivated will yield 280 bushels per acre, has aroused intense interest among farmers of this section, and local plantologists are working on its classification. An interesting feature of the species is the head, which really consists of seven distinct heads united on one stem. Local growers believe that if the cereal is found adaptable to cultivation wheat can be made to yield seven times as much as ordinary wheat. If you have at last discovered what a fine country Douglas county is, do not delay in letting the facts about this country be known to your east-enders.

Agee on Stand Again. PORTLAND, Or., July 23.—I. Thomas Agee, the government's star witness in the Booth-Singleton case, resumed his testimony this morning. He told a story of receiving $300 in gold from the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., for his timber claim, which he secured in lieu of his homestead which is located about 60 miles east of Roseburg, which he is alleged to have obtained fraudulently. This testimony was introduced to support the government's contention that Agee had a previous agreement with the lumber company to take over his claim as soon as he could secure a patent.
