"Raffles, the Cracksman," now on at the Vitagraph theatre, is one of the most interesting series of moving pictures ever shown here. See it tonight. The "River Picnic," humorous, always evokes much merriment. Good illustrated songs by Misses Black and Benedick every evening.
J. W. Morgan came in from Looking Glass this morning. Harvesting is in full blast there but crops are not very heavy. Work is progressing upon the erection of a new school house. F. E. Patterson being the contractor. It will be a commodious two-room structure, adequate for the needs of the district.
Itching Piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store.
Elder John Standley, of Camas Valley, returned this morning from a visit with relatives in Jacksonville, Ill. He was absent three months, this being his only visit to his brother and his old home in 54 years. He reports everything very dry in Kansas and Colorado and thinks Oregon the best state he has visited. He was accompanied home by his nephews, Edwin and J. B. Standley, who will remain for a short time.

Jack Smith has his house in the city of Ruckles almost completed.
Jas. McGee has purchased a new engine with which to operate his threshing machine.
Abe Stephens has returned here to take charge of the Hamilton farm in Missouri Bottom.
Mrs. Gravestock and daughter departed Monday night for their home in Canyon City, Colo.
J. M. Andrews has begun work on his house in Johnson addition.
Mr. F. A. Aderton is building a new house at the top of Myrtle Heights.
Jennie Roberts has returned home from a visit with relatives at Springfield, Oregon.
Barney Nans was called to Portland last Friday on account of the illness of a sister.
The little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Evans fell off a fence at their home here in town Monday and broke his arm.
Chas. Fry and sister, who have been staying with their uncle, C. I. Leavenworth for the past six weeks, departed last Friday for Grand Junction, Colo.
Richard Wakeman returned to Satsop, Wash., Friday to resume his work in the logging camps. Mrs. Wakeman and baby will remain here or a while longer.
Landlord Smick and wife and E. R. Wilson and wife went out in the mountains on a camping trip on Saturday.
George Baldwin says that the demand for his rapid-growth early corn is greater than he can meet.
Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander and daughter, Wilena, have gone to West Fork to take charge of the bookhouse of one of the sawmills of that vicinity.
Hiram Gallup and wife will start east soon to visit for several months with relatives and friends.
Miss Francis Bushey, of Junction City, is visiting relatives at Myrtle Creek this week. She is a niece of Mrs. Whitcomb and T. A. Smith.
While burning grass off the S. P. right of way on the Ruckles section Thursday, the fire got beyond control of Foreman Kuhn and his one assistant, and burned over about sixty acres of Dunnavin Bron' sheep range and destroyed some forty or more cords of oak wood.
R. E. Miller was at Glendale on Wednesday in the interests of the Myrtle Creek creamery. The demand for the Myrtle butter has increased far beyond the supply of the plant. The dry weather has cut down the supply of green feed and consequently reduced the supply of cream. The present output of butter is only 400 pounds per week, while the demand keeps increasing, orders coming in from points as far south as Medford. —Mail.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it. Sold under a guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s drug store, 59c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
