HONORED PIONEER OF DOUGLAS COUNTY PASSESS BEYOND.

The Eugene Guard, of Aug. 7, gave the following splendid tribute to the memory of the late Mr. E. Wimberly, of Roseburg, with whom Editor Chas. H. Fisher, of the Guard has for many years been personally acquainted.

"News was received by the Guard this morning of the death at Roseburg, of Enoch Wimberly, one of the oldest and most respected pioneers of Douglas county, after a lingering illness covering many months. The deceased leaves a widow and the following sons and daughters: Ira Wimberly, a merchant of Drain; L. Wimberly, publisher and proprietor of the Roseburg Review; Mrs. Chas. Clevenger, of Grants Pass, and Elmer and Elva Wimberly, Roseburg, all highly respected in the communities in which they reside.

YONCALLA NEWS.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starve liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starve liver because he lagged in his work. It is treating the lagging, torpid liver as a great mistake to look it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but a indication of an ill-constituted body whose organs are weary with overwork.

Notice is hereby given all parties holding county warrants issued by Douglas County, Oregon, and endorsed prior to and including the 19th day of July, 1907, to present the same to the County Treasurer of Douglas County, Oregon, at his office, for payment as interest thereon will cease after the date of this notice.

ANLAUF WANTS S. P. DEPOT.

Fifty of its Residents Petition R. H. Commission. SALEM, Or., Aug. 9.—B. L. McKee and 49 other residents of Anlauf, a small station on the line of the Southern Pacific, near Cottage Grove, have petitioned the railroad commission to use its influence toward securing for them depot and freight storage facilities at their station, which is now without these accommodations.

CANYONVILLE NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Roy Pardee left Saturday for Drain, where they will visit with relatives of Mrs. Pardee for a few days. From there they will go to Gardiner to spend a longer time. Most of the fruit growers of this section have contracted their prune crop, receiving 5 cents for 30 to 35 Italian and 5 1/2 cents for the best Petites, with a decrease of one-fourth cent for every five points. The buyers in the field are Clarence Gatzler, Judge Riddle representing Tillson, of Salem; and J. L. Boyle, representing E. L. French, of Myrtle Creek.

BIG CIRCUS AT EUGENE.

Harnum and Bailey Show to Exhibit There August 29.

It is a pleasure to announce the fact that on August 29, the Harnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will give two performances in Eugene, thus affording an opportunity to the people of this city an opportunity to visit the greatest amusement enterprise the world has ever known.

For fifty-four years the Harnum and Bailey show has led the world in all matters pertaining to big amusements. There is not a country on earth where it is not as well known as in America, nor a city of any size in the world where its mammoth tents have not been pitched. Royalty has applauded it and the peasantry has marveled at it, and all the world, civilized and savage, has contributed to its multiplicity of attractions.

The program in the great exhibition tent opens with a new spectacle. The acts that follow are all European and of great novelty and variety. Of the 275 performers, nearly 300 have never toured America before. The climax of the bill is the most daring and awful exhibition of nerve and death-daring ever attempted. The act is called "Autos That Pass in the Air."

The circus this season numbers 3,500 people, 700 horses, 105 cages of animals, 5 railroad trains, 20 camels and nearly all the elephants in America.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend O. Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every burn, burn or wound to which it is applied. See at A. C. Marsters & Co's drug store."

HELD CRACKER TOO LONG. Medford Widow Loses Hand When the Explosion Occurs.

MEDFORD, Or., Aug. 8.—A deplorable accident happened last night, whereby Mrs. Emma Hughes right hand was blown off by the explosion of a giant firecracker. Mrs. Hughes took the firecracker out in the yard in front of the house and in the presence of her children and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coop, lighted a match and touched it to the fuse.

For a second or two she held the firecracker in her right hand and was warned by Mrs. Coop not to do so. "Oh," she replied, "I know how to set them off."

No sooner were the words spoken than it exploded with a deafening sound. Hastily wrapping her torn and bleeding hand in her apron, the poor woman, crazed with pain, ran around the yard, and it was five minutes or more before Mr. Coop could reach her and get her into the house.

Mrs. Hughes is a widow and has two young children and herself to support. She is 27 years old.
