Misses Maude and Vera Davis, of Provo, Utah, arrived here last night and will visit for about two days with Mrs. Elmer E. Wimberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irwin were in from Ten Mile today. After a continuous service of over 40 years Mr. Irwin has retired as postmaster at Ten Mile and the postoffice has been changed to the home of Mrs. Lucy Cullip, who is now the postmistress there.

N. Sellers was down from the Myrtle Creek mines at Nugget today. He tells us that John Hamilton, of Ft. Jones, Calif., has secured a "lay" on Jeff Wiley's mining claim and is pumping out the shaft preparatory to doing some active work.

Mr. Hamilton was formerly interested at Nugget, with his brother, J. D. Hamilton.

County Judge G. W. Wonnacott left this afternoon for Portland to attend the state road convention, which opens in that city tomorrow.

J. D. Zurecher and F. E. Alley follow tonight. W. H. Fisher, another delegate, went yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fisher, and after the convention finishes its work they will journey to Seattle and other points on the coast.

"Kid" Mangles, the high diver of the American Amusement Co., did not go home to San Francisco after his accident at Medford, as stated last Saturday. Instead, he came to Roseburg, and will make his regular dive every evening of this week.

This company bears letters from Medford, Ashland and other towns in which they have appeared, recommending the shows as clean and the management as prompt bill payers.

Under direction of County Court, H. J. Donn and a party of men left this morning for the Mountain House on the Coos Bay road, taking with them the county road grader and other road building equipment.

They will work for an indefinite time putting the road in good condition between there and the Coos county line. As the people of Coos have been doing some substantial work on their part of this road it will probably be put into such condition that it will be passable all winter.

C. Gazley, the Canyonville fruit grower and shipper, has sold ten acres of his 50-acre apple orchard there to a gentleman from Portland for $2,000. This tract is planted in young apple trees now four years old and is on what is termed bench orchard land. The purchaser has arranged with Mr. Gazley to continue to care for the orchard until it comes into full bearing. It is more than probable that in three years from now the purchaser will begin to harvest annual crops from this orchard that will approximate the purchase price in value each year.

Ladies' astride saddles, men's saddles, harness, etc., at F. Long's, opposite the Empire Livery Stables, at corner Oak and Rose streets. It will be to your interest financially to call there.

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite, and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunbury, Ohio.

The J. G. Flook Company have decided to deal in fruit boxes. Early in the season they said they would not handle fruit boxes this year, but on account of so many requests for boxes they are now prepared to supply peach, apple and other boxes in small or large quantities. For prompt delivery and low prices give them your orders. DSW

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE.

In the hour of irreparable bereavement, when we were required to part with husband and father after a lifetime of loving companionship, numerous friends came to us with words of sympathy, deeds of kindness and tokens of floral beauty. For all who thus shared in our sorrow, and helped to bear the burden of our irreparable loss, our heartfelt gratitude is extended. We thank you each and every one, with the full appreciation which your many kindnesses so well merit.

MRS. E. WIMBERLY and family.

Engineer and Mrs. Garrison returned today from a trip to Portland.

Miss Ruby Thomas returned this morning from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Engineer J. L. Woodson and family returned today from a brief visit with relatives near Oakland.

Mrs. Edith McCormack, of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Mrs. Nellie Nash, of Tacoma, Wash., are visiting here with their aunt, Mrs. J. C. Aiken.

Mrs. Georgia Stewart, who has been visiting here at the home of her uncle, Fred Wright, left this morning for her home in San Francisco.

I. Wollenberg and son, Ralph, left Saturday for Newport for an outing. The remainder of the family has been at Newport for several days.

STEWART-COX WEDDING.

Frederick G. Stewart and Miss Ella Cox, two of Roseburg's best known and most popular people, were united in marriage in this city last Saturday, Aug. 8, 1908. The wedding was solemnized between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cox, on Mill street. Rev. E. H. Hicks, of the Baptist church, performing the ring ceremony beneath a large white bell, trimmed in green.

The wedding was attended by the immediate family of the bride and a few invited friends. The bride, gowned in white volard silk and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, was attended by Miss Robin Conn, Mr. A. J. Cox, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. Miss Mamie French played the wedding march on an organ. The Cox home looked beautiful in its decorations of roses, sweet peas, asparagus ferns and carnations. Supper was served after the ceremony.

Mr. Stewart is a former deputy sheriff of this county and is engaged in the insurance business in this city. He is a lieutenant of the Roseburg company of the Oregon National Guard and a member of the team that will represent the state militia at the annual rifle tournament to be held this month at Camp Perry, Ohio. His bride was until recently employed as a deputy in the Roseburg postoffice, a position which she filled with credit.

On the night of their marriage, Mr. Stewart and his bride left for Camp Perry on their honeymoon trip. At the conclusion of the national shoot, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will journey to his old home in East Jordan, Mich. After a short visit there with relatives, they will leave on their return to Roseburg to reside.

MARRIED.

WILGROW.

The new fertilizer. Nothing but fish. Guaranteed analysis: Seven per cent nitrogen, six per cent potash, 18 per cent phosphoric acid.

One 25-pound sack of Wilgrow, used in the place of 12 1/2 tons of best stable manure, will give better results and no weeds. Try it for your lawn.

J. F. BARKER & CO.

TRAVELING "BLIND PIG."

ALBANY, Or., Aug. 9.—Bert Moore was arrested this afternoon, charged with running a traveling blind pig. It is said that he makes a practice of operating in the dry counties, having of late confined his operations to Corvallis and Albany. He was arraigned before the city recorder and his bail placed at $200. Being unable to furnish this, he was committed to jail and his hearing will take place Monday. In a room where he was operating was found a barrel of beer and about a dozen bottles in a tub on ice, and a set of glasses.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nushbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used it with the same success." Red Cross Pharmacy.
