Portland Journal: Walter H. Drennan, formerly a railroad engineer, later a clerk in one of the state offices at Salem and a brother, of Kirby Drennan, the well known Portland ball player, was taken to the county jail last night on a charge of insanity. He made an attack on his wife and she feared that he would kill her. Drennan was severely injured in the wreck of a train on the Southern Pacific, near Roseburg, while he was at work as an engineer eight or 10 years ago. Several persons were killed and Drennan's life was for some time despaired of, his skull being crushed and one arm so badly mutilated that it was amputated. His mental trouble is attributed to the effect of the injuries he received in the wreck.

GERMAN ARMY MANEUVERS.

BERLIN, Aug. 22.—Nearly a million men will engage in the maneuvers of the German army this fall and the tests of military efficiency will be more thorough than ever attempted. Emperor William will personally review his great army and will witness nearly all of the more important maneuvers.

The strength of the army is to be increased for the time being by no fewer than 269,742 men from the reserves, who, with the standing peace army of 626,846 men, will bring the total under arms at the end of August up to 896,588, who will fight tactically against each other, corps by corps.

The exercises which attract most attention are naturally the imperial maneuvers in Alsace-Lorraine, as this will be the first time since the war of 1870 that maneuvers on such an extensive scale will have taken place so near the frontier.

The Fifteenth and Sixteenth Army Corps will there oppose each other in mimic war, and undergo severe actual and strategic instruction under the immediate eye of the Emperor.

TOLSTOI JUBILEE.

Great Demonstration to be Made on His 80th Birthday.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 22.—Throughout Russia preparations are going forward for great demonstrations on the occasion of the 80th birthday of Count Leo Tolstoi, the great "torch bearer," which falls on next Friday. The Union of True Russian people, composed principally of priests and reactionaries who are anxious to preserve the despotic regime in the land of the czar, are threatening a counter demonstration. The authorities fear trouble may result from clashes between the admirers and enemies of Tolstoi.

Tolstoi recently issued a condemnatory creed, directed at the Russian government and church, in which he depicted in words that burned the terrible conditions now existing in this unhappy country, and which have transformed the empire into one vast slaughter pen. This article, entitled, "I Cannot be Silent," demonstrated the truth of the assertion that Tolstoi is the only Russian who dares to tell the truth. More powerful even than the czar, and with the public opinion of all civilized nations behind him, the venerable "torch bearer" speaks his mind and the government he attacks is forced to listen in impotent silence.

The Orthodox church dignitaries have issued a warning against the participation of church members in the Tolstoi celebrations of the coming week. In all of the orthodox churches of Russia tomorrow the priests will read prayers beseeching the deity to turn Tolstoi "from his evil ways" and to bring about his return to the church. This action of the church is the subject of much scoffing in all of the more independent journals of the empire, most of which are agnostic in tendency, since the church has always taken sides with despotism.

The ROSE

FIRST CHURCH ORGAN.

GLASGOW, Aug. 23.—Tomorrow will be a notable anniversary among Presbyterians, since it was on August 23, 1801, which also fell on a Sunday, that for the first time in the history of any Presbyterian church an organ was used in public worship. Episcopal churches had introduced instrumental music long before, but the Scotch Presbyterians had held out against what they considered an invention of the evil one.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes: "Our general superintendent Mr Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea.
