Alcazar Theatre, Formerly The Vitagraph, Opens to Public.

Roseburg theatre goers will tonight have their first opportunity to attend The Alcazar, formerly The Vitagraph, which will be opened to the public by W. M. Rasmus and David Weiser, of Portland. The hour of commencement of the first of the two shows to be given each evening will be the same as heretofore—7:30 o'clock, and the style and arrangement of the program will also be the same—moving pictures alternating with illustrated songs. The price of admission continues at 10 cents, but on the nights of the dramas, which will be given two nights a week, beginning the latter part of September this will be increased to 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Realizing the necessity of making a good impression at the start, in order to retain popularity with the public, Messrs. Rasmus and Weiser have prepared an extra fine bill for their opening night. The moving picture films which will be shown embrace the following subjects: "Life of a Sailor," "Madam Fancies," "Swedish Sports," and "A Pressing Letter." The two latter are of the class known as scenic views, beautifully embellished and sure to please all lovers of artistic work. Mr. Chas. Lewis, recently of the Baker Theatre, Portland, has been secured to furnish the songs. He has a splendid voice, and starts off tonight with a rendition of "Good Bye, Sweetheart, Good Bye."

The program will be changed three times a week, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, with a matinee every afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A Practical Self-Filling Fountain Pen----

A dip in any ink, a pressure of the thumb and a self-filling pen is filled, ready to write—all done in an instant, quicker than we can tell about it. The principle is simplicity itself.

Inside the barrel of the pen, which is of the same appearance and material as any other high-grade fountain pen, is a collapsible ink reservoir of soft rubber. To fill this reservoir simply press your finger on a small button on the outside of the pen, immerse the pen-point in ink, and allow reservoir to expand in a natural way—and that is all there is to it. We sell both the Waterman and Conklin. Good ones at $2.50, gold mounted ones up to $10. Come in and let us show you—it will make us happy—and will not put you under obligation to buy.
