

Another Good Man Gone Wrong

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass, of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Red Cross Pharmacy.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or grip and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Red Cross Pharmacy.

FOES OF THE LEVEES.

Sources of Danger to the Artificial Banks Along the Mississippi.

"People who know little about our system of levees, the artificial banks built to confine the flood waters that pour into the Mississippi, no doubt imagine that the heavy rains are the only enemy with which the levees have to contend," said a Baton Rouge man. "On the contrary, the levees, both during times of flood and low water, are subject to the incessant attacks of living foes, the destructive work of which costs millions of dollars. These foes are alligators, turtles, muskrats, field rats, from all these burrowers that prey on the levees, excavating within them goodly chambers or tunnels, the crawfish do the most damage, with the turtles and terrapins a good second. The harm done by the alligators is comparatively small. "In repairing the banks crawfish holes are often found of immense size. It is these hollow spaces that in time of freshets cause a caving in and break of the levees, which of course bring on an inundation of all the adjacent country. The worst part of the business is that no way of exterminating these pests has yet been found, and the only thing to be done is to try to keep them away from the banks as much as possible."—Baltimore American.

The French Are Good Travelers.

The French on their travels are the very reverse of the English. Imper turbably amiable, they never grumble and without the slightest effort, as a mere matter of course, make the best of everything. I have made journeys with many French friends of both sexes, young, middle aged and elderly, often in out of the way places meeting with discomforts enough. Nothing ruffles their temper. Pleased to enjoy fresh scenes with a genial companion, they extract the utmost possible pleasure from every incident, even little annoyances being turned to good account.—Miss Betham-Edwards in London Chronicle.

What He Would Keep.

When the late Francois Coppée was elected to the academy, he told his friend, Theodore de Banville, that he wished he were in too. Banville declined to canvass. "Suppose your nomination were brought to you one fine morning on a silver salver," "I don't know what I should do with the nomination," said Banville, "but I should certainly keep the salver."

Financial Advice.

"Here's a man," said the old citizen, "who lost $5,000 in a bank when he put it for safe keeping". Bill, don't you ever take no risk like that. If ever you gets hold of any money, do like your father before you done—bury it an' speen' the rest of your life sittin' over it with a shotgun."—Atlanta Constitution.

THE WORLD WE LIVE IN.

The Maid: "Do you believe it's unlucky to get married on a Friday?" The Abominable Bachelor: "Certainly. Why should Friday be an exception?"

THE FIRST BREAK.

Mrs. Newlywed: "Oh, Clarence, I can see a perfect reflection of my face way down there in the water." Mr. Newlywed: "Are you sure it ain't a lobster pot you see? There's lots of 'em about here, you know."

Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain, Connecticut, writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. Red Cross Pharmacy.

A Verbal Bracer.

"My wife," said the first clubman, "always mixes me a cocktail when I go home feeling frazzled." "You're in luck," declared the second clubman, "the best I get is a chin fizz."—St. Louis Republic.

All the world may not exactly love a lover, but it always takes quite an interest in his letters when they are read to the jury.—Puck.

Chronic Diarrhoea Relieved.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes: "Our general superintendent, Mr. Quiley, wanted me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our train who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea which this remedy stops at once." For sale by Hamilton Drug Co.
