AUGUST 28, 1908.

Why don't they come to Oregon? This is the question asked of the people suffering from floods and cloudbursts in New Mexico, Georgia and the Carolinas.

Many newspapers throughout the country are advising their readers that this year is the time to build, as materials and labor are cheaper than they are likely to be next year.

Last year when Roseburg was actively endeavoring to get a railroad line started between here and the coast, many Coos Bay citizens were very indifferent, intimating that they did not need to do anything as Mr. Harriman was building a line to the bay.

One particular bale of Georgia cotton in demand to become famous, A Savannah, Ga. dispatch carried by the Associated Press, says: "The first bale of 'factor's cotton' or that received in the ordinary course of business for this season, was bought today at the Savannah exchange by Murray M. Stewart, of the Bryan democratic club. It was immediately compressed, placarded and shipped to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, New York.

Three sub-stations will be established in the city, one near the West school, one near the North school and one in the eastern part of the city, near the Bear-Creek bridge.

NICHOLS AND BOLTER AT REST.

Railway Commission Exonerates S. P. of Any Blame for Wreck.

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 27.—With many members of railway officers present and attended by friends of long years in Portland, the body of the late victim of the train wreck at Eugene was this afternoon deposited in the receiving vault at the Crematorium. The funeral of Frank H. Bolter took place from the residence of his father-in-law, H. J. Wilkins, at 2 o'clock.

Evidence of the high regard in which these men were held in Portland was mutely represented in the large number of floral pieces which blanketed the caskets.

Report on the Wreck. SALEM, Or., Aug. 27.—About half the people killed in train wrecks in Oregon, in the estimation of the Oregon Railroad Commission, are victims of the state laws, forbidding trespassers upon trains and railroad property, due to the lack of co-operation on the part of town and city authorities with the trainmen to enforce the state laws in this respect.

Conclusions are reached in the report of the railroad commission after an investigation of the wreck of the recent wreck of the

COMMON SENSE

Lead most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily giving in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to every body, and without the least having the least light in investigation turned fully upon his formulae, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized.

Royal Welcome Awaits Americans on Arrival in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—One of the greatest demonstrations that New York has known in years will be accorded tomorrow to the American athletes who participated in the London Olympic games.

There will be a parade, speeches and presentation of medals at the City Hall and a theatre party at the New York theatre at night. The parade will move down Broadway to the City Hall, in the line will be military, athletic and civic bodies.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case.

ATLANTIC CITY SHAKEN.

Govt. Fort Threatens to Call Militia to Enforce Excise Law.

SEAGIRT, N. J., Aug. 27.—In a startling public proclamation today at the summer capital, Governor Fort declared that unless the excise law is observed in Atlantic City, which he calls a saturnalia of vice, next Sunday, and all saloons and cafes are closed tightly, he will call an extra session of the legislature, and may send the New Jersey state troops to the famous resort, declaring the city to be under martial law.

Governor Fort in his proclamation ridicules the fiasco of 19 days ago, when a grand jury at Mays Landing, the county seat refused to find indictments and says that action was a burlesque, that three members of the grand jury were owners of saloons in Atlantic City and that the others were in sympathy with the violators of the law.

It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store. 25c.

HONOR TO TOLSTOI.

Curses of His Enemies Have no Effect on His Admirers.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 28.—Despite the impotent fury of the government, the curses of the holy synod and the rage of the "black hundred"—those dark reactionaries who seek to prolong the night of despotism in the land of the czar—all Russia joined today in celebrating the eightieth birthday of the great living Russian, Count Leo Tolstoi.

The fact that no prayer can be recited in Russian church without the sanction of the holy synod is significant of the hatred in which the reactionary party in Russia hold their greatest literary man.

Many independent newspapers honored Tolstoi today by republishing his recent appeal, "I Cannot be Silent," in which he passionately denounced the wholesale executions that are taking place throughout all Russia. It is expected that many journalists will be imprisoned in consequence of their daring in criticising the actions of the government.

In his hopes of a happy future for Russia, Count Tolstoi looks not to the Socialists or the republicans, but to the teachings of an American, Henry George, the father of the single tax movement.
