GOOD ROADS MEETING.

Movement is Favored by Coos Bay People—Discuss Plans.

Messrs. J. E. Oren, Wm. Grimes and Dr. E. E. Mingus, who were over from Marshfield Saturday to meet Mr. Harriman, are active good roads advocates. They had just come over the stage road from Coos Bay and that alone was enough to impress them with the necessity for better roads. They expressed the willingness of the Coos Bay people to join with the citizens of Douglas county in the big Good Roads Meeting to be held in Roseburg the latter part of this month, under the direction of Judge John H. Scott, of Salem, the state good roads booster. The Coos Bay delegation urge the necessity for a good road between Roseburg and the bay. What is needed is a road that can be travelled with automobiles at practically all seasons of the year. They believe the most practical plan for building such a road at this time, at the least expense, is to lay a plank road, at least over the more mountainous portions. They say a road laid with 3x4 and 4x4 flooring, placed alternately, gives excellent results where tried in the hilly districts. It is believed that with the expenditure of $50,000 by the two counties a road of that kind can be built, so that a daylight schedule between Roseburg and Marshfield could be maintained even in the winter, and the summer trips would be a matter of only five or six hours. For some roads in Coos county, the county court has appropriated two dollars for every one subscribed

FAILS TO RETURN

Launch Party of 16 Probably Lost Off San Pedro

In Douglas county the plan of each district voting a special road tax, as suggested in The Review a short time ago, seems to be meeting with considerable favor. With the large property holdings of the railroad and big timber land companies in this county, it is easy to see how outside capital can be called on to pay a large percentage of the road building under this plan. While the local people would, of course, be required to pay their share, all the money would be spent right among them and they would get the roads besides. It is evident that the Hood River people are working along this plan, as we understand that 14 of the 18 road districts in that county have levied special road taxes this year. The way to get good roads is to build them.

HARRIMAN TOURS ROGUE RIVER VALLEY ORCHARDS—MINNESOTA FIRE LOSS $3,000,000

Special to the Evening Review.
SAN PEDRO, Calif., Sept. 7.—Sixteen passengers on the fishing launch O. K., Capt. Gishler in charge, have been missing since yesterday and are believed to be drowned in the squall that arose soon after their departure. The party was headed for Catalina Island and expected to return to San Pedro last night. Efforts are being made to communicate with Catalina Island by wireless to ascertain if the party is there. Five women are among the missing.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

There is scarcely any one, no matter how vigorous and healthy, who does not need a tonic sometimes. Little physical irregularities upset the system, the appetite fails, digestion is poor, the body feels tired and worn out, and other unpleasant symptoms give warning that the system is disordered and needs assistance to ward off, perhaps, some serious sickness or ailment. S. S. S. is recognized everywhere as the best of all tonics, nature's medicine, made entirely of healing, cleansing, invigorating roots and herbs, a systemic remedy without an equal. S. S. S. has the additional value of being the greatest of all blood purifiers. It re-establishes the healthy circulation of the blood, rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling, improves the appetite and digestion, and brings about a return of health to those whose systems have been weakened or depleted. S. S. S. acts more promptly and pleasantly than any other medicine, and those who are run down in health should commence its use at once. It will thoroughly purify the blood and tone up the system. S. S. S. is admirably suited for a systemic remedy because it is free from minerals; it may be used without harmful results by persons of any age, and no unpleasant effects ever follow.

ROSEBURG-COOS AUTO LINE.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 6.—Mr. Crow, from Nevada, is looking over the wagon road between Coos Bay and Roseburg with a view of ascertaining whether it is possible to establish an automobile line. It is held by auto men that the road can be so improved that automobile travel will be practical at all times of the year between Marshfield and Roseburg. Several machines have been brought over the road from Roseburg to Myrtle Point, but on account of rocks the trip was found to be a difficult one.

PIONEER REUNION.

Annual Gathering at Olalla Was a Pronounced Success.
Last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday witnessed three days of recreation and enjoyment at Olalla, the occasion being the annual reunion of Oregon pioneers, native sons and daughters, as well as citizens generally. The attendance was larger than for several years past, it being estimated that between 400 and 500 people were camped on the grounds, besides large crowds which came and went during the day. There were people in attendance from all the surrounding neighborhoods, including Camas Valley, Ten Mile, Looking Glass, French Settlement, Flournoy, Reston, Brockway, Winstons, Dillard and elsewhere, besides a number from Roseburg and other places.
Each day's exercises included appropriate addresses by local speakers, vocal and instrumental music and recitations. Then there were field sports, horse and foot races, ball games, athletic contests, novelty races and a great variety of amusements. A dance each evening was enjoyed by the younger people, while around the numerous campfires gathered other crowds to listen to the thrilling stories of the experiences of pioneer days, or the more modern entertainment supplied by phonographs, which enlivened these circles of social converse.
On Friday a mall-driving contest for ladies and a needle-threading contest for young men each elicited considerable interest. An exemplification of the experiences and accoutrements of pioneer days, by a Looking Glass lady on horseback, equipped as for traversing a hostile Indian country, brought forth rounds of applause and was pronounced one of the star features of the occasion.
A grand ball Friday night closed the three days of enjoyment. The Herscher orchestra, of Brockway, furnished the music, and the dancing was continued until daylight next morning. Splendid weather prevailed throughout the encampment and the occasion was pronounced one of the most enjoyable ever held there.

There came near being a fling encounter in the doorway at the street entrance to the United States land office in Roseburg this morning, when an intending homesteader, who has been holding down a place against the door since early Sunday morning, resisted an attempt on the part of another man to dislodge him. The first man had been obliged to leave his place momentarily, and when he returned he found the other in his place. Hot words began to fly, and a crowd began to collect in anticipation of something exciting. The two were just about to "mix" it when Marshal Norman appeared and prevented any further trouble, and the man who had attempted to get first place away from the one who secured it Sunday morning soon went away.
E. H. Rhodes and others are asking the city of Albany for a street railway franchise. This company promises to immediately extend the lines from an interurban circuit that will reach Lebanon, Brownsville and other towns of the county.

PROHIBITION NOMINEE SERMONIZES ON CHURCH AND SCHOOL.

Eugene W. Chaffin, prohibition candidate for president of the United States, was greeted Sunday night by one of the largest audiences that ever filled the Armory, in Elks' Temple. Rev. J. K. Hawkins, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, presided at the meeting and A. C. Marsters introduced the speaker.
Mr. Chaffin's address was more of a historical sermon than a political argument. His theme was the relation of church and school to the moral advancement of the country. He proved himself a very entertaining speaker, and his remarks were frequently punctuated with applause.

ANOTHER BOND ELECTION.

Since today is a legal holiday (Labor Day) the regular meeting of the city council to take further action on the bond issue for street paving will not be held before tomorrow night. So far no definite action has been taken toward going ahead with the paving work until the defects in the bond issue proceedings are remedied. The matter was discussed at the special meeting of the Commercial Club Friday evening, but no other definite plan of action was decided upon. In order to go ahead with the paving work at once Councilman J. W. Mitchell offered to take up $1,000 of the $55,000 worth of bonds which are to be issued. L. Wimberly followed with an offer to take a similar amount, but there the matter stopped, no other voluntary subscribers appearing. The paving company has taken no action toward beginning the work as the contract was not signed by the mayor on behalf of the city, and he declares he will not sign any contract until every detail has been settled.
May Increase Amount.
As it now seems that another bonding election will be necessary before the paving work can proceed, there has developed a strong sentiment in favor of increasing the amount to at least $50,000, instead of $35,000, and a number of citizens favor making the amount $75,000, the full sum provided for by the city charter. With a bond issue of $50,000 and a similar sum to be paid by the property abutting the streets to be paved, the paving area could be very largely increased and a permanent concrete and steel bridge built over Deer Creek. With a bond issue of $50,000 the paving was restricted to 18 blocks and even then there was not sufficient funds to pay for the new bridge. With a bond issue of $50,000 at least 25 blocks could be paved and a good substantial bridge built. The council will doubtless consider an increased bond issue and probably order an election accordingly.

A SURE-ENOUGH KNOCKER.

J. C. Goodwin, of Redaville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s drug store. 25c. Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc.

CURIOSITY WAS FATAL.

BAKER CITY, Or., Sept. 5.—Wishing to see if a live wire which had just given a severe shock to young Charles Shannon, a deaf mute, was still charged, Glenn Saunders, 24 years of age, this city, touched the wire with a nail this evening and was electrocuted immediately. His father, W. H. Saunders, who was standing near, saw an electric flash, followed by "Pull me loose," his son's last words.
The young man was a clerk in the Haar Manufacturing company's establishment.

MARSHFIELD APPLE FAIR.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 5.—The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce is making arrangements to hold an apple fair. Last year an exhibition of apples was held just after the harvest and fine specimens of many varieties were shown which created a great interest among the fruitgrowers. The Southern Oregon District Fair was held too early this year to show much in the apple line, so it was decided to have a special show at a later date. Prizes will be offered for the best exhibits.

Bryan Delivers Labor Day Address in Chicago

MONSTER PARADE FIRST.

40,000 Men in Line in San Francisco's Parade—Exercises, Sports and Speeches

Special to the Evening Review.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Chicago's Labor Day celebration today centered around William J. Bryan, who delivered one of his characteristic speeches. When the great Nebraskan arrived at the depot he was met by a special committee of fifty and escorted to the Auditorium Hotel, where he was greeted by John W. Kern, of Indiana, and their campaign manager, Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo.
The exercises of the day began with a monster parade, and after it disbanded, the workmen cheered Mr. Bryan as he faced the tremendous throng and started to speak. Mr. Bryan, spoke, in part, as follows:
"Were I to speak from a text I would select a passage from Proverbs, one furnished in the words of Solomon when he declared that 'as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.' This is Bible doctrine, in a common sense. I begin my speech with this proverb because I want to impress it upon the minds of those who listen to me that the world is growing toward brotherhood and that our nation is leading the way. There is more altruism in this country than in any other in the world. Labor organizations are a part of a great movement of the masses toward closer fellowship. Some assume that labor is lawless, that to settle a labor question permanently we need only to enforce law rigorously. But we must remedy abuse by law if we would insure respect for an obedience to law. A long step toward the elevation of labor to its proper position in the matter of deliberations may be found in the establishment of the department of labor, with a cabinet officer at its head. The republican national convention did not deal candidly with the laboring man on the subject of the writ of injunction. Mr. Taft's promises offer nothing in the way of substantial reform in this respect."
In the Home of Unionism.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—With two big parades, comprised of 40,000 men, representing 60 different organizations, Labor Day is being celebrated here today in great style. There are the usual exercises and sports and speeches by prominent men.
