LABOR MEN FOR BRYAN.

Portland Unions Adopt Resolutions Sustaining Gompers.

Portland Journal: Organized labor of Portland has indorsed William Jennings Bryan, has voted to sustain Samuel Gompers in his political attitude and denounced the attacks made upon him, has officially opposed the candidacy of William H. Taft, and established the maxim that no man who carries a union card should vote for the republican nominee.

The Federated Trades Council at a meeting last night took up for discussion the attacks which have been made upon Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, by the opponents of Mr. Bryan, and by resolution enthusiastically came to the support of Mr. Gompers and his political attitude in the present campaign. The resolutions as they were adopted read as follows:

"Whereas, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has recently been the object of vicious and scurrilous attacks on account of the attitude he has assumed in the present political campaign;

"Whereas, We know that he is, and has been, throughout the campaign acting in accordance with instructions given him by the American Federation of Labor convention, and that he has carried out these instructions to the very best of his ability, now therefore

"Be it resolved, That we, the Portland Federated Trades council hereby approve of the action Mr. Gompers has taken and pledge to him our hearty support in this, as we believe, a battle for the preservation of principles which we as union men hold dear. We denounce the statements made in the corporation press of the country that Mr. Gompers is trying to deliver the labor vote as untrue, unjust and unreasonable.

"Be it further resolved, That we oppose the election of William H. Taft, the republican candidate for the presidency, because we believe that his election means the perpetuation of 'government by injunction.' We know him as 'the father of the present interpretation of the injunction law,' and we believe that no man who carries a union card should vote for him."

Signed by C. M. Rynerson, W. H. Fitzgerald and J. D. M. Crockwell.

Labor Backs Bryan.

Union labor in Portland and throughout the state of Oregon is behind Mr. Bryan in his campaign almost to a man, according to the expressions made by prominent labor union men in the discussion of the present political campaign. It is freely estimated by union men in different localities that when the organized labor vote of the state is cast in November fully 90 per cent of it will go into the ballot box supporting the democratic candidates.

The unanimity of this statement and the close adherence to the estimated ratio of the vote to be cast for the different candidates is building optimism in the ranks of the party leaders under the Bryan standard, and at the same time is casting gloom among the followers of Mr. Taft throughout the state.

The action of the Federated Trades council last night is looked upon as a most important index by the party leaders. Made up of representatives of all the different branches of organized labor as the council is, its membership composed of delegates from these different unions acting under the instructions from their parent unions, it is easy to be seen that the expression of the council is in reality the composite voice of organized labor as a whole.

Again, the rank and file of union men, not in Portland alone, but throughout the state, look to Portland council as a leader in the shaping of policy for the labor unions of the state. This indorsement of Mr. Gompers and repudiation of Mr. Taft by the Portland council is expected to result in similar action being taken by labor organizations throughout the state.

HUGHES WHO IN NEW YORK.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 14.—With the fight for and against the renomination of Governor Hughes as the supreme issue to be decided, the warring hosts of the republican party of the Empire state are gathered at the Spa today for the state convention.

Supporters of Hughes speak of his renomination as a "foregone conclusion," and declare that President Roosevelt's declaration that such action is an "absolute necessity" has already settled the matter. Added to the influence of the president is that of James S. Sherman, Taft's running mate, who has announced himself in favor of Hughes.

Chanler the Favorite.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Friends and supporters of the various candidates for the democratic nomination for governor and other state offices are filling the Rochester hotels today, in advance of the party's state convention tomorrow. Metropolitan politicians are here in force and nearly all the chiefs of Tammany Hall are in the city.

There continues to be a wide divergence of opinion as to the gubernatorial nominee, although Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, present lieutenant governor, is apparently a favorite.

OF INTEREST TO OREGON.

The Portland Country Club and Livestock Show opens next Monday and continues all week. It will be the largest showing of livestock ever gathered together at one time in the Pacific Northwest, not excepting the marvelous exhibit at the Lewis and Clark exposition. The speed contests will be extraordinary; the great mile track is without a parallel on the American continent; the transportation facilities to and from the grounds will be excellent, as both steam and electric roads will carry their thousands. The beautiful amphitheater built upon steel trusses, the first of its kind in Oregon, is already completed.

The State Fair opens today under most favorable auspices. The buildings and grounds are in "apple-pie" order, and exhibits in all departments superior.

Every community in Oregon should be represented at the Tran-Mississippi Commercial Congress in San Francisco, October 6 to 10. Each of the commercial bodies of the state should have at least one delegate, the mayor of each city and the judge of each county have been asked to name delegates. This congress, whose sessions are second in importance only to those of the national congress, and whose deliberations have much influence in national legislation, has held one of its most important gatherings, while citizens of this state have held the highest offices within the gift of the organization.

Oregon dairy interests are up-to-date. President F. L. Kent, of the Oregon State Dairy Association has just returned from New York, where he has been in attendance upon the National Convention of Dairy Instructors, under the sponsorship of the United States government.

The Managers of the Golden West and American Industries Exposition, to be opened at Earls Court, London, May 1st, 1909, and continue for six months, have asked the co-operation of Oregon through Governor Chamberlain. It is the first industrial exposition of this character held since 1887. The business carried on between the United States and the United Kingdom comprises one-fifth of the entire commerce of the world, and it is constantly increasing. It is expected that this exhibit will bring together all the present-day achievements in science, invention, handicrafts and trades in the United States.

Hood River has organized a "University Club" with 62 members. There are only two other similar organizations in the Pacific Northwest.

NATIONAL SESSION OF RED MEN.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 14.—Hundreds of tame Red Men, both bucks and squaws, swooped down on this peaceful New England city today and are in complete control with the full consent and approval of the palace citizens. The invaders come from nearly every state and territory in the union and are here for the purpose of holding the national convention of the Improved Order of Red Men. Three score great councils, with nearly 4500 tribes and a half-million members are represented.

Reports of officials will show that considerably over a million dollars was disbursed by the order during the last year, and that nearly $22,000,000 has been paid out in benefits since the organization of the order. W. A. S. Bird, of Topeka, is the present Great Incohonee.

James Laird, the pioneer stage line man, was over from Sitkum today. He recently returned from a trip down the coast to Crescent City, Calif., and reports a better road from Bandon to that place, a distance of nearly 150 miles, than there is from Roseburg to Camas Valley or from Roseburg to the 18-mile house on the Coos Bay wagon road. He thinks it is time for our people to wake up and build some better roads.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the use of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

"COLLY" DRUHOT HOME.

Local followers of the baseball game who remember "Colly" Druhot, who was for a brief period a member of the Roseburg baseball League, will read the following from the Portland Telegram of Sept. 12 with interest and amusement:

"Colly" Druhot is home after playing all season with Indianapolis in the American Association, where he was a team-mate of Rube Marquard, the famous $11,000 beauty of the New York Giants. "Colly" was a star southpaw himself until he got malaria, but leave it to him and Marquard is the greatest ever. In fact, Muggsy McGraw got him at about 9 cents on the dollar, and the youngster is 22 carats fine. Says "Colly" in his characteristic Goose Hollow French:

"A soup bone! Gee, dat guy has got one as long and as strong as a railroad track. When he shoots 'em over dey sings like an army of gnats and looks like a winker dropped in yer eye. If he ain't all de candy when he hits de white way, I don't want no million dollars."

Druhot's arm seems entirely well from the injury he received while with St. Louis, and but for his attack of malaria, he might have journeyed to the majors again. He won nine and lost seven games and batted .229 for the season.
