LOCAL NEWS.

The aged mother of Mrs. Fred Swartz arrived here Saturday from LaCrosse, Wis., to make her home with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Waite were over from Sutherlin Valley Sunday. Mr. Waite says the report in Saturday's Portland Telegram about his having sold 2800 acres of land is not correct. That the reporter evidently got things badly mixed up with the sale of the big Curry farm to Chas. F. Johnson and associates.

An immense line of Cook's Linoleum just received; in the latest designs. No make of linoleum better and but few as good. B. W. Strong, The Furniture Man.

D. W. Hunter was in town Saturday. He has been employed during the summer at the Mt. Alto ranch, near Glendale, where about seven miles of new wire fencing has been put in place. The work is still in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Baldersee are in town from Sampson, near Gardiner, enroute to Salem to attend the state fair. Mr. Baldersee reports the dairy business steadily growing in that country, being hampered only by lack of transportation facilities.

That is a splendid country and has great natural resources, but is badly handicapped by lack of a railroad.

"I suffered horribly from constipation. Dan's Regulins relieved and strengthened the bowels, so that they have been regular ever since."

—A. E. Davis, grocer, Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Some remarkably large Orange Cling peaches and some fine 20-ounce Pippin apples were brought over today by M. W. Meyers, from his orchard just west of the Soldiers' Home. See samples in the Review window.

Eugene Register: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith and little daughter, Dorothy, went to Roseburg Saturday to visit friends. Mrs. A. C. Hanna, of Portland, who has been the guest of Mrs. Dunston, went to Roseburg to visit her husband, who is at work there. She will return again to Eugene in a few days to visit.

Oyster season is opened. Olympia or Eastern in any style and the right kind of style at J. Falbe's restaurant near the S. P. depot. Open day and night. Clean, private boxes. Short orders a specialty. Regular dinners.

Residents of Peel and vicinity are working earnestly to get a change in the county road from the Watson bridge to the former residence of N. N. Chapman, on Buckhorn Creek, thus avoiding three bad hills. The road has been surveyed and the damages assessed at $1800, which sum many of the petitioners think is too high. They argue that the road is badly needed and the change should be made, but think the property through which it runs is not damaged to the amount stated.

"SHRIMP"

AS WELL AS EVERY OTHER BUSINESS MAN OR WOMAN SHOULD HAVE ONE.

It is an "Ink Pencil" of the "Beacon" family, three inches long when closed, suitable length for vest pocket or ladies' purse—and is finely made of red polished vulcanite. It is fitted with a platinum-iridium point and an adjustable needle arranged on a silver yoke and gold spring. This prevents all possibility of leaking when upside down or in any other position. Lasts forever, suits any handwriting, and does away entirely with a lead pencil and its necessary sharpening.

Price, $1.50.

E. A. Hinkle went to Salem Saturday with ten head of his pure blooded Red Polled cattle, which will be on exhibition at the state fair this week. Next week they will be placed in the big livestock show at Portland. Mr. Hinkle has some of the best blooded cattle in the Northwest.

David Comstock was down from his place on Deer Creek today. He is pleased with the way the present political campaign is progressing, without the usual froth and flurry of former campaigns. The voters are evidently taking a more intelligent view of the conditions as they really exist and are giving less attention to the buncombe of the politicians.

Fresh Eastern and Olympia Oysters any style at the Quick Lunch restaurant, opposite depot grounds. Services first class; extra dinner from 11:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. First class cooks, both day and night. Call and get the best meal in the city.

Marshfield Times: The Coos Bay-Roseburg Auto Transportation company has been organized at Marshfield with a capital stock of $50,000, and F. B. Waite, of Roseburg, Wm. Grimes and Dr. E. Mings, of Marshfield and W. L. Crook, of Los Angeles, as incorporators. The purpose of the company is to put on a line of autos to handle mail, passenger and express traffic between the two points. The county commissioners are to be asked to assist the company in getting the road in condition for the traffic. Mr. Crook, promoter of the company, believes that with fairly good roads the distance between the two points can be covered in about four hours.

He was hurriedly brought to Dr. Hoover's office, where treatment was administered and complete recovery is now expected.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Ackerman has announced the results of the recent examinations for state certificates and diplomas. The total number of manuscripts examined and recorded was 2570. State diplomas—valid for life—were issued to 18 applicants. Forty-four secured state certificates, valid for five years. Eighteen other applicants made the required grades and will receive diplomas as soon as they have the necessary teaching experience. The rest of the applicants entered for the first or second trial, as the law allows a teacher the privilege in which to complete the examinations. Among those granted certificates is Miss R. Ella Dickerson, of Drain.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Me., says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies."

The great feature film, "The Romance of a War Nurse," lectured and fully explained, can be seen at the Crescent Theatre tonight.

F. J. Blakely is here from Medford for a few days and reports that town lively. For municipal purposes, water system, etc., Medford has issued and sold over $500,000 worth of bonds. In Roseburg, there are a few narrow minded individuals who oppose an issue of one-tenth of that amount for street paving.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 West Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. The town of Wilbur is now rebuilding rapidly, replacing the structures destroyed by fire a few months ago. Grubbe & McKay have their new store up and open for business. T. J. Williams & Son are building a new store and Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Mary Wilson are erecting new residences. The latter is a modern bungalow and one room will be occupied by the postoffice. The new depot building has not yet been started.

Are You Going to Start to School Next Monday?

THE ROSEBURG PUBLIC & HIGH SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY.

We have had several years' experience in the school supply line, and know what trouble school children generally have in buying their books and supplies.

Consequently we have spent several days in arranging our school goods and store in general so that both young and old pupils can be attended to in the least time and trouble to them. All our books are marked in plain figures and there need be no fear of overcharge. Should any mistake be made we will gladly correct it.

Useful blotters free with each purchase.
