Cottage Grove Leader: A. W. Wise, who has conducted the Commercial stables since last spring, sold his interests last Saturday to Churchill Brothers. . . . I. C. Underwood, an old retired merchant, who recently sold out his farm at Myrtle Creek, spent a few days in Cottage Grove and Saginaw this week visiting with friends, while looking for a location.

Miss Lylith Moore, of Roseburg, gave a most pleasing elocutionary recital at the armory theater Saturday evening under the auspices of the Lady Macabees. To add interest to the occasion, Miss Moore was accompanied by her sister, Miss Grace, who is a charming pianist, and her excellent musical numbers received hearty encores. Miss Lylith Moore is a pupil of Marion Lowell, of New York, and her society and dramatic readings and humorous monologues were very entertaining and were well received by the small but very appreciative audience, the town having had almost a continuous week of entertainment. The Misses Moore went from this place to Salem, where they will attend the state fair and appear on the auditorium program during the week.

CIRCUIT COURT CASES FILED.

Louis G. Dumbleton vs. Fred J. Blakeley; suit for the possession of 350 acres of land at Winchester, which plaintiff leased to defendant and on which it is alleged defendant is in default in rent.

George Larson vs. Jennie Larson; suit for divorce on the grounds of desertion in November, 1906. They were married in Duluth, Minn., April 11, 1905.

William and E. Hellwell vs. M. Ketchner and J. M. Holbrook; suit for a permanent injunction restraining defendants from interfering with the harvesting by the plaintiffs of a crop of prunes in an orchard included in an 8 1/2-acre tract sold to defendants by Sarah S. Ross. Plaintiffs allege that prior to the date of sale they had a contract with Mrs. Ross to harvest the present crop of prunes in the orchard, but that after the sale the defendants refused to recognize such a contract and denied them access to the orchard. The value of the crop is placed at $450, of which under their contract with Mrs. Ross, plaintiffs were to receive two-thirds and Mrs. Ross the remainder. A temporary injunction has been granted upon a re-delivery bond of $600.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Me., says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s drug store. 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free.

"SHRIMP"

YOU AS WELL AS EVERY OTHER UP-TO-DATE BUSINESS MAN OR WOMAN SHOULD HAVE ONE.

YONCALLA NEWS.

Miss Mabel Mahn, one of Douglas county's charming school teachers, was here recently visiting her many friends and relatives, after which she went to Central Point to take up her work as teacher in the public school there.

Miss Mabel Wilson, who a few weeks ago closed a successful term of summer school at Marshfield, is home with her parents, enjoying a much needed rest. She will leave soon to take charge of the public school at Stephens.

Last Saturday night a crowd of 21 of Yoncalla's frolicking young people went to Drain and spent the evening dancing. They report a jolly good time for all.

Mr. Barton Hellwell is home from Seattle, helping his father and brothers attend the prune drying season.

Last Wednesday a number of Yoncalla's citizens departed for the state fair at Salem. Among them were S. G. Long and wife, Jno. Klugery and James Huntington.

On Monday last Benj. Huntington, Sr., took a carload of fat hogs to Portland.

Miss Retta Huntington will take her departure the 23rd for Corvallis to attend the Oregon Agricultural College. Her brother, McKinley, will join her later on, for the same purpose.

Mr. Arthur Burt, formerly principal of the Yoncalla public school, is at Tillamook, where he is employed as a carpenter on the new railroad terminal docks.

Mrs. Dr. Mortensen and little daughter are at Salem visiting with relatives and friends and attending the state fair.

Clay Sunday left for southern Oregon last Sunday.

Miss Susie Applegate, a graduate of the Behrke-Warner Business College in July, went to Portland Wednesday to commence work in a lucrative business position.

Benj. Huntington, Jr., left last Wednesday for Eugene, where he will take up his work the 21st as teacher in History and Civics in the Eugene High school.

Miss Leah Moody, the popular daughter of one of Yoncalla's leading merchants, is teaching in Shoe String district this fall.

Miss Eva Applegate will leave soon to take up her work for the winter as a teacher in a public school in the suburbs of Portland.

Bertram C. Applegate, who has been in charge of Hon. E. R. Applegate's drug store in Drain during the summer months, is home for a short time.

Mr. Reuben McDonald, a son of Dr. McDonald, of Binghamton, N. Y., recently spent ten days visiting J. G. Schuler and family here. Dr. McDonald is an old schoolmate and friend of Mr. Samler and had his son stop off on his tour of the west and say his respects to his old time friend.

The young man received a royal reception at the hands of hospitable hosts and it is needless to say that he enjoyed himself highly. He made many friends while here and declared himself delighted with Oregon. Mr. McDonald departed for Los Angeles Thursday and from there he will take the southern route home.

Miss Leal Brown will leave in a few months term of school at Milltown next Monday.

Miss Ruth Brawn, a graduate of the Drain normal school last June, will teach a nine months' term of school at Dorena, Oregon. XX.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 West Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s drug store. 50c.

TO WIRE FENCE BUYERS.

I have just received a carload of Page Woven Wire Fence at Roseburg and stored it in the Sheridan warehouse, near the S. P. depot. Here it may be obtained by parties having placed orders with me. I will also fill orders until the supply is gone. B. B. COUCH.

TO THE PUBLIC—I am reopening my restaurant in connection with the Umpqua Hotel, at Central Point. My wife will strictly entertain you. Jennings.
