Old Coughs

Keep in close touch with your family doctor. No medicine was ever made that could take his place. Trust him at all times.

Old coughs, desperate coughs, creeping coughs, extremely perilous coughs, coughs that shake the whole body, it takes a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine, to master such coughs. A great many people rely on Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

TRIAL COMMENCED.

Hains brothers will doubtless develop more sensations than any case tried in New York in years. The prosecution's hints at revelations that will shock the nation by throwing the light of publicity upon the alleged depravity existing in army circles. Numerous detectives are busily engaged unearthing evidence for the defense and the Hains' attorneys also promise many sensations.

District Attorney Darrin is preparing to combat the evidence which the alienists for the defense will produce to show that Captain Hains was not in his right mind when he did the shooting.

Mr. Darrin holds to the contention that Thornton Hains is the man behind this tragedy. He goes back to the time when Captain Hains was first notified of the alleged intrigue between Captain Hains and Annis. Thornton Hains was the man who told his brother about it. Mr. Darrin has followed out Thornton Hains' movements since the time that his brother arrived from the west and accused his wife. He will be prepared to show upon the trial that Captain Hains was willing to forgive his wife, but that Thornton Hains, acting as the "little bad man" of the tragedy, urged his brother not to believe her denials and to seek revenge.

The district attorney is sure that he will send both men to the electric chair. He counts upon Mrs. Hains to bolster up his case. He has already communicated with her lawyers and has their assurance that she is willing, even anxious, to help the prosecution. She cares not what becomes of her husband, and, as for Thornton Hains, she is determined that he shall suffer the extreme penalty of the law if her evidence will help toward that end.

Moving Day at Oyster Bay.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 21.—Tomorrow will be moving day at Sagamore Hill, when President Roosevelt and his family will depart for Washington to begin the last winter season in the White House. As a result, an air of activity today pervades the summer capital, and it is evident that even the president of the United States cannot wholly escape the anxiety and toil that goes with moving day.

With the close of the present vacation of the president, Oyster Bay as the summer capital of the United States will cease to be known. The residents of the little village greatly regret that the honor their quaint town has held for seven years is to be taken away from it.

Demand Purity in Beer.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 21.—That uniform standards of purity be required of all members is the demand of many influential brewers from all over the country who are in Albany today in attendance at the opening session of the United States Brewmasters' Convention. It is alleged that the cheap and adulterated varieties of beer hurt the business of the honest and competent brewer and serve as an argument for the prohibitionists.

That adulterations are largely used in cheap beers is admitted by the more candid brewers. A recent report of the state commissioner of health of New York shows that of 219 samples examined, salicylic acid or flourides were found in thirteen, while sulphites were discovered in a greater number of samples.

Brewers state that such impurities are to be found in only the cheap grades of draught beer made by irresponsible concerns, and that brewers who take pride in their product and reputation never sacrifice quality to cheapness.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Church in Excellent Financial Shape —Trustees Elected.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist church was held in the Epworth League parlor Saturday evening, District Superintendent Dunlap presiding. Quite a large number of interested visitors were present in addition to the official body, and the business affairs of the church were transacted with cheerfulness and enthusiasm. The various organization and heads of different committees rendered reports, giving every detail of the work of the several departments during the year. These reports were heard with pleasure and encouragement by the church workers, as they showed a healthy and progressive movement along the whole front.

Mr. F. H. Churchill, superintendent of the Sunday school, reported an average attendance in the Sunday school of 121 for each Sunday throughout the year, and collections aggregating $144.52.

Mrs. Della Jewett, president of the Ladies' Aid society, reported $175 raised by the thrift and industry of that most useful and benevolent organization.

The report of the church treasurer, Andrew R. Marker, showed that over $2500 has been raised by the church during the past year. In addition to the salaries of the preacher and district superintendent, and the running expenses of the church, amounting to $1020.66, there has been spent on church improvements the sum of $650.00, and an old debt of $357.90 paid.

The following board of trustees was elected for the ensuing year: Messrs. J. H. Booth, W. H. Fisher, A. S. Frey, A. S. Huey, N. T. Jewett, A. C. Marsters, F. F. Patterson and S. M. Suffron.

At the close of the session a purse was presented to the treasurer, Mr. Marker, a gift from the official board of the church, in token of their appreciation of Mr. Marker's services as treasurer.

Rev. J. K. Hawkins, the pastor, and his wife, have left for Salem to attend the session of the annual conference which convenes in that city next Wednesday morning. It is not known yet, of course, whether or not Mr. Hawkins will be returned to the pastorate here next year, but his services during the past year have greatly endeared him to the church, and a strong petition will be sent in to the conference to have him returned here for another year. Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More that half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of the prostrate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostrate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for 20 years, although I am now 91 years of age."
