A SURPRISED MINISTER.

"For many years I have been a sufferer from bronchial catarrh, and had despaired of anything like a cure. Judge of my pleasant surprise when I first used Hyomel, which brought complete relief. Hyomel has been a veritable Godsend."

Rev. Charles Hartley, Sardinia, Ohio.

Thousands of catarrh sufferers have given up in despair. They have tried stomach dosing, soups, sprays and douches without success, and now believe catarrh to be incurable.

But Red Cross Pharmacy, the druggists, holds out hope to all distressed. He sells a remedy called Hyomel, which is guaranteed for catarrh, colds, coughs, bronchitis, asthma and croup.

Hyomel (pronounced Hy-o-mel) is medicated air, full of the healthy virtues of the mountain pines. You breathe in the delightful antiseptic air, and as it passes over the inflamed and germ-ridden membrane, it allays the inflammation, kills the germs, and drives out the disease.

A complete Hyomel outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs but $1.00, and an extra bottle of Hyomel, if afterward needed, costs but 50 cents. See the Red Cross Pharmacy about it today.

HASKELL MAKES REPLY.

Says Roosevelt and Hearst Unite in Campaigning for Taft.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Sept. 24.—Governor C. N. Haskell tonight issued a statement to the Associated Press in reply to President Roosevelt's letter to William J. Bryan, dealing with four specific charges against Governor Haskell; that he is subservient to Standard Oil, that he vetoed the child labor bill, that he dealt in Creek Indian lands and that he had allowed politics to dominate him in the removal of members of the faculty of the State University and the appointment of others to succeed them.

Governor Haskell's statement in part follows: "To the Associated Press: President Roosevelt's letter is before me, and while this is the first time in my life I have been made the subject of a Cabinet meeting, I am thankful for the distinction and I wish to express my high regard for the office of President and profound respect for the wisdom of our fathers in making it possible to change the occupant of that high office every four years without the right granted to a Crown Prince to succeed the King."

Roosevelt and Hearst. "I assert that it is fair for me to assume that if my case was to be dignified by an all-day cabinet meeting, that beyond question Mr. Hearst and his campaign associate, President Roosevelt, left no stone unturned to blacken my character. That being true, they certainly raked Ohio bare and aft concerning the Ohio Standard Oil cases of 1889, and finding absolutely nothing reflecting on me, the President tried to waive his charge of last Monday aside by saying 'he will make no allusion to that.'"

"He drops this subject because his original statement was untruthful and he must know from what he and Hearst tried to find in Ohio and failed, that I spoke the truth when I said I never in all my life had any connection or service with that company."

"I say the President knows now that my statement is true, and I regret that he tries to brush it aside without doing me candid justice. Were I to adopt the character of language so commonly used by the President, I would say what I mean in fewer letters than are contained in 'falsehood.'"

"Mr. Roosevelt, I hope to speak in Ohio soon. May I hope to divide the time with some portions of yours or Prince William, who will defend your action in this instance?"

After mentioning several Oklahoma matters referred to by the president, Gov. Haskell concludes: "The President assumes that all Oklahomans are grafters because his theoretical associates justify that name; that all ex-railroad contractors are bad just because Paul Morton needed his protecting arm; that we all in Oklahoma violate the civil service law just because Mr. Roosevelt removed the best United States marshal we ever had, the only reason being that he voted for a good democrat instead of a bad republican, and then appointed his cousin to fill the vacancy."

"Knowing all these things, the president must pardon us for thus taking issue with the occupant of the high office we all respect. Let us hope that in the future he will appreciate and preserve its dignity and not try to reflect upon the character of humble citizens. We fail to concede his false position when he knows it is false."

(Signed) "C. N. HASKELL."

S.S.S. FOR BAD BLOOD

When bad blood is caused from an infection of the circulation by the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, it usually shows in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots on the body, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. These general symptoms, affecting all parts of the body, show how deeply poisoned the blood becomes, and emphasizes the dangerous character of the trouble. If allowed to remain in the system the disease will finally wreck the health and break down the strongest constitution. No medicine can cure Contagious Blood Poison which does not rid the circulation of every particle of the virus. S. S. S. is the one real and certain cure; it goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, and by removing every trace of the poison, and adding rich, healthful qualities to the blood, forever cures this powerful disorder. S. S. S. is the most reliable of all blood purifiers, and its concentrated ingredients of healthful vegetable extracts and juices especially adapt it to curing this insidious trouble. Write for our home treatment book, which is a valuable aid in the treatment of the different stages of the disease, and ask for any special medical advice you wish. No charge for either.
