Max Weiss, the local grocer, has sued George Kohlhaugen in the circuit court for damages in the sum of $716.40, to reimburse him for loss alleged to have been sustained by the collapse last June of the building in which his grocery is conducted.

Weiss alleges that the collapse was due to the excavation for a building for Kohlhaugen which weakened the foundation of the structure which he occupies. By reason of the accident, Weiss says $671.40 worth of goods were either destroyed or damaged beyond a saleable condition, and, in addition, it cost him $30 for the services of a watchman and $15 more to have the debris removed.

BEATEN BY THUGS.

Cottage Grove Grocer Attacked When Closing His Store.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Sept. 28.—W. V. Dewald, a well known resident of this city and proprietor of a grocery store at the Cottage Grove Pacific depot, was badly beaten over the head tonight with the butt of a revolver wielded by hold-up men.

Mr. Dewald was closing his store when confronted by a man who ordered him to throw up his hands and "shell out." Dewald grappled with the robber, who struck the merchant a stunning blow over the temple.

At this point an accomplice appeared on the scene and held Dewald while the other struck him again. The second blow knocked the old man to the floor in a senseless condition.

Mrs. Dewald, who was in the rear of the store, heard the struggle and screamed. Her alarm frightened the two men and they disappeared. A crowd soon gathered and special officers are attempting to trace the would-be robbers. Dewald soon regained consciousness, and, although badly bruised, will soon recover.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Me., says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s drug store. 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free.

A Trick With a Shirt Waist--

It solves the problem of how to put on a shirt waist with buttons in the back and to do it without the assistance of a maid. Put the waist on with the opening in front, without putting the arms into the armholes. Then close the neck and pin it evenly. Next button down about three buttons, then turn the waist around to its proper place. Lifting the waist up about the neck, slip the arms through into the sleeves. After the waist has been worn and soiled, send it to the Roseburg Steam Laundry, shirt waist experts on laundering. Phone No. 791. We call for and deliver all work.
