Edw. Jaquins, who recently sold his farm on Deer Creek, is now a resident of this city. The farm, known as the Gilliland place, was purchased by E. L. and T. J. Cheeney, of Portland, and is now occupied by E. L. Cheeney and wife.

The Sutherland Land and Water Co., which last week purchased 7000 acres of land in Sutherland Valley, 12 miles north of this city, put surveyors to work this week subdividing the same into small tracts. On Thursday, when this work had only been fairly started, a gentleman from Aberdeen, Wash., arrived at the place and was so well pleased that he wished to make a purchase at once. The surveyors were called by him and they laid off a 20-acre tract for him and the deal therefor was closed before he left the premises. This marks the first sale by the new owners, although they were not ready to make any offerings as yet. Messrs. Perkins, Andrews and Waite are going about the handling of this splendid tract in a very active, business-like manner, having already established agencies at Ashland, Medford, Portland, Chicago and elsewhere, and as soon as their platting of the land can be done they will be ready to locate the host of homeseekers which will begin to arrive at an early date. The Sutherland valley is destined to become one of the finest fruit-growing sections of Oregon. Mr. Perkins had a photographer in the valley Thursday and secured a number of splendid views.

HOPS PURCHASED BY HORST.

Late this afternoon it was reported that E. Clemens Horst, the big hopgrower and dealer had during the past few days, since he gave out a very bearish interview regarding the market—purchased practically all the 1908 hops in Lane county, paying 7 1/2¢ a pound for the best. This news caused a stir in hop circles inasmuch as Mr. Horst had been unusually bearish on the market.

The only lots he did not purchase in Lane county, says the report, were those he was unable to get at the price.—Portland Journal.

SIX KILLED; SIX INJURED.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 1.—Six killed and six injured. That was the toll claimed by a sudden shower of rain which wet the tracks on a steep spur of the Portland and Southwestern Logging railway, just as a construction train was nearing the summit of a hill at a point eight miles north and west of Scappoose, early yesterday afternoon.

Five men, in charge of the train, and crew were on the locomotive. These escaped. Twelve men were on the one gravel car which was being pushed uphill by the locomotive when the runaway occurred. Not one of these men got away unhurt. They clung to the car as it swept back down the hill, and jumped the track at a sharp curve. Three of them were killed outright, two more died while being taken to Scappoose, and another died after being brought to the Good Samaritan Hospital, at Portland.

Now help Roseburg grow.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT BLOOD HUMORS

The skin is not simply an outer covering of the body, but through its thousands of pores and glands it performs the great and necessary work of regulating our temperatures, and also assists in disposing of the refuse and waste matters of the system by the constant evaporation that goes on through these little tubes. To perform these duties the tissues and fibres which connect and surround the pores and glands must be continually nourished by pure blood. When from any cause the circulation becomes infected with impurities and humors, it loses its strengthening powers and begins to disease and irritate the delicate tissues, and produces Eczema, Acne, Tetter, or some other itching, disfiguring skin trouble. S. S. S. cures skin diseases of every kind by going down into the circulation and neutralizing and removing the impurities and humors. It changes the quality of the blood from an acid, fiery fluid to a cooling, health-producing stream, which, instead of irritating and inflaming the skin, cures and nourishes it by its soothing, healthful qualities. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may be used for any temporary comfort or cleanliness they afford, but skin diseases cannot be cured until S. S. S. has purified the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice sent free.
