MOB STORMS COURT

Lynching of Negro Prevented After Fierce Battle

GETS LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Pacific Commercial Bodies Unite—Canadian Machinists Rush Back to Work

Special to the Evening Review.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 5.—Determined upon lynching Edward Martin, a negro, sentenced to life imprisonment today for criminally assaulting beautiful Edith Halston, a singer, a mob led by W. S. DeBell, the girl's sweetheart, attacked a cordon of police guards surrounding the prisoner in Judge Austin's court today. P. R. Swigert, a member of the mob, was struck on the head by a policeman's club and was taken to the hospital.

After being held to the superior court, the negro walked to the door, where DeBell, trembling with rage, lunged himself upon Martin and attempted to drag him from the police. This was the signal for the attempted lynching. The police fought the 100 members of the mob hand to hand while Martin was hurried through a rear door and quickly arraigned in Judge Wilbur's court, where he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Unite for the Pacific.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—For the purpose of uniting the Pacific coast cities in an effort to obtain a valid coast delegation at Washington to work for the interests of the far western states, representatives of 13 commercial organizations, located in San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and Spokane, met here today to effect an organization. The principal address at today's meeting was made by C. B. Yandell, secretary of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, who criticized the government's policy in sending coal from the Atlantic to the Pacific in foreign boats.

Strikers Rush for Jobs.
WINNIPEG, Canada, Oct. 5.—Following the settlement of the strike of Canadian Pacific machinists, hundreds of workmen are today participating in a wild scramble for their old jobs and will resume work tomorrow. The terms of settlement are secret, but it is announced that they are agreeable and honorable to both sides.

LANE COUNTY MURDER.

Harry Tabor Killed Harry Stucke, as Result of a Fued.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 4.—As the result of a feud of long standing, Harry Stucke is dead from a gunshot wound and his slayer, Harry Tabor, is in custody of the sheriff. The tragedy occurred at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Deadwood, 50 miles west of this city. Recently Stucke had assaulted Tabor's young brother, Tabor has a wife and two children. The dead man leaves a widow. The trouble which led up to the murder originated from a quarrel between Stucke and a man named S. Steinhauer over attentions to Steinhauer's wife. Steinhauer ordered Stucke to stay off his premises, and Stucke failed to obey the command. Steinhauer caught him one day recently with his wife, and the men had a fight in which Steinhauer was beaten. Steinhauer had Stucke arrested. At this point Harry Tabor appeared in the case. Tabor as a witness testified that Steinhauer had ordered Stucke to stay off his place. The result of the trial was that Stucke was bound over to the Circuit Court. He had been out on bail, and a day or so ago had an altercation with Tabor's younger brother, in which young Tabor was worsted. It is believed that the elder Tabor took up his brother's part and that the tragedy was the outcome.

CONGRESS POSTPONED.

Col. E. Hofer, of Salem, president of the Willamette Valley Development League, writes Secy. Zurcher, of the Roseburg Commercial Club, that it will not be possible to hold the proposed Oregon-Idaho Development Congress in Roseburg on Oct. 15, as announced, as some of the leading speakers will be unable to come here at that time. Therefore this session of the Congress will be postponed until Oct. 23 or 24. Arrangements may be made to occupy both days with the sessions of the Development Congress and a general Good Roads meeting, as the two movements should go hand in hand. Good roads are a prime necessity for the development of our country.

DRIVES WIFE FROM HOUSE.

John R. Sutherland's Spree Puts Him in Law's Clutches. Excitement reigned in the vicinity of Stephens and Mosher streets late last Saturday night, when John R. Sutherland, a well known resident of that locality, while under the influence of liquor, drove his wife and daughter from home at the point of a gun. Sutherland then locked himself securely in the house, while Mrs. Sutherland ran to the home of a neighbor and telephoned to Sheriff Fenton. When the officer arrived at the Sutherland home he decided not to precipitate an unnecessary tragedy by trying to force an entrance, thinking that when Sutherland became sober he would quietly surrender himself. In this Sheriff Fenton was not mistaken. After keeping himself in the house until the afternoon of Sunday, Sutherland emerged onto the streets, and a few minutes later he was in the custody of the sheriff. Later he was released upon his own recognizance until sometime tomorrow, when his case will be given a preliminary investigation by District Attorney Brown.

Bryan Has Eye on Iowa.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 5.—W. J. Bryan leaves tonight for Des Moines on a speechmaking tour of Iowa. Mr. Bryan is taking advantage of the situation of the republican party in Iowa, which is split over the senatorial deadlock in the legislature. Mr. Bryan refused to comment today on the information that Roosevelt is to take the stump for Taft, making six set speeches from Washington to San Francisco. Leading democrats here believe the report.

THE LOCAL PAPER.

The Best Medium the Retailer Can Use to Advertise.

In an address before a body of retailers recently Wesley A. Stranger, editor of the Office Outfitter, Chicago, said of the value of the local newspaper: The local newspaper is the greatest thing the retailer has if he will use it right, but a large proportion are too prone to believe that the editor will take care of their interests whether they look after his or not. This is wrong. If merchants as a class would only take advantage of the opportunities that the local newspapers afford them they would reap rewards far beyond their fondest dreams.

While self preservation is the first law of nature, editors of local papers have a habit of letting self interests go to the limit when it comes to a question of serving a community. For this they are entitled to recognition, which they rarely receive.

No doubt the retailers have encouraged them as far as sentiment goes. They have undoubtedly said they approved the editor's methods and called him a "good boy" but in how many cases have they fallen short in the real encouragement that counts? How often have they neglected to use his columns, thinking that they were clever in it? In failing to patronize him they have often killed the goose that laid the golden egg.

You must get behind the local editor and push for all you are worth. He gives you $2 back for every dollar you invest with him. He furnishes for you at his own expense one of the biggest assets you possess—the medium through which to let the people know what you have to sell. Within recent years the mail order proposition has been somewhat bothersome. The editors of the country papers have done more than all other influences combined to help your business back into normal channels and to reconvert the farmer to the logical belief in home trading.

Do not let it be said in your community that you have let your editor's work go unappreciated. Use his paper. Make him prosperous and yourself rich in doing it. If you have foolish ideas about the non-productiveness of newspaper advertising, throw them off and try it out. One try will prove nothing, but the constant use of the paper in an intelligent manner will produce results.

The best friend the business man in the world has, next to his wife, is the local newspaper, and if he doesn't get full value for this friendship it is his fault, not the editor's. The editor of the average so-called country newspaper has done more to up-build his own town and the retailers in it than all other influences combined, and it also follows that as an almost unbroken rule he is the least appreciated person in his community.

ALBANY MAN OFFERS PROPOSITION TO ESTABLISH ONE AT ROSEBURG.

The following self-explanatory letter has been submitted to the Roseburg Commercial Club for their consideration. The establishment of such an industry here would be of great benefit to Douglas County and should be given early consideration. The letter says: Albany, Or., Oct. 3, 1908. Roseburg Commercial Club, Roseburg, Ore. Gentlemen: Please let me know what the chances are for your people to put in a milk condensing factory. If favorable to this suggestion, I have a proposition to make to you along these lines that I am sure will meet with your approval. Nothing enriches a country more than a milk condenser. And it pays about 40 per cent more for milk than any other factory using milk. Yours truly, C. W. TEBALDT.

BURN IN TENEMENT

Sixteen People Victims of Black Hand Fiends

FIREMEN SAVE TEN BABIES

Bulgaria Proclaims Independence and Prepares for War on Turkey —Fire at Nampa

Special to the Evening Review. NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Eleven persons perished and five others were fatally burned today in a fire which gutted an Italian tenement house on the east side. That the fire was started by members of the "Black Hand" is plainly evident. Shortly before the fire started two men were seen rolling a barrel into the building and a few minutes later there were two explosions, instantly followed by fire.

The fire started from oil soaked paper on the stairway, thus cutting off means of exit. The inmates were obliged to jump for their lives, and in this manner many were killed. Ten babies were saved by firemen, who threw them from the windows like balls into the arms of other firemen below.

Signal for War.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 5.—At Tirnova, the ancient capital, today, Prince Ferdinand proclaimed Bulgaria an independent kingdom and formally announced himself czar. This is the result of the combined action of the Prince and his cabinet in joining with the fanatical populace in declaring war on Turkey immediately.

Conviction Craves Wife.

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 5.—On the same day that John Fleming was found guilty in Shoshone county for murder in the first degree, meaning death for him, his wife was adjudged insane and committed to the state asylum. Fleming was convicted last Saturday. He shot and killed Frank Landford, who was passing his ranch and with whom he had quarreled over an irrigation ditch.

Big Fire at Nampa.

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 5.—Fire of unknown origin today destroyed the big warehouse owned by S. M. Kessel and F. H. Dewey at Nampa. It was occupied as a storage house by the Western Hide & Wool Company and the Young Transfer Co. The loss is $100,000. Nearly every mercantile house in Nampa is affected by the fire, as they had goods stored in the warehouse.
