Would Mortgage the Farm.
A farmer on Rural route 2, Empire, Ore., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Hucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store.

A Trick With a Shirt Waist--
It solves the problem of how to put on a shirt waist with buttons in the back and to do it without the assistance of a maid. Put the waist on with the opening in front, without putting the arms into the armholes. Then close the neck and pin it evenly. Next button down about three buttons, then turn the waist around to its proper place. Lifting the waist up about the neck, slip the arms through into the sleeves. After the waist has been worn and soiled, send it to the Roseburg Steam Laundry, shirt waist experts on laundering. Phone No. 791. We call for and deliver all work.

EVENING ROSEBURG REVIEW

OCTOBER 5, 1908.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Story, the latter formerly being Miss Susie Johnson, arrived here Saturday morning from Linn county and went out to Canas Valley, where Mr. Story will teach a term of school.

A reception to the new members was held at the Baptist church in this city Friday evening. A special program of exercises was rendered and afterwards a social session was enjoyed. At the refreshment tables spread in the basement over 300 persons in attendance enjoyed the dispensing of good things to eat. Needless to say, the occasion was a very enjoyable one.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store.
