IN MEMORIAM.

Robert Woods Cooke.

"Home is the sailor; home from sea,
And the hunter home from the hill."

In many respects our lives are alike. We tread with fleeting feet the sunny path of Youth, but cannot stay. We follow the many who precede us and roam on and on. We seem to be seeking some higher and better place as we move on through the years of maturity; and find at last when our hair has grown gray and our gait stumbling, that we have been blindly seeking what lay all around us on our journey; only, we paused not to see it.

We differ in the paths by which we journey. Some of us tread through flowers, and amid sunshine, breathing the purifying atmosphere of the blue sky; others find only dreary fastnesses, where the leaden feet find no rest.

Both paths lead to the doorway of death; but how pleasant it is to pause on the threshold and looking back through the glimmering twilight of approaching night, behold a bright pathway, made brighter by the late presence of him who passed that way but once.

We feel that such a pathway was left by Robert Woods Cooke, for now that he has passed through the doorway we realize how pleasant was our association with him. Ever lingering in our hearts will be the image of him who always gave a smile and a kind word.

He lived a full life, feeling the tender emotions of love, the bitter pang of sorrow, the responsibilities of a parent, and sympathy for an erring friend.

It is good for the world that such men have lived in it; men who are thankfully content with the station in life God has given them, who cheerfully perform the duties set before them and accept with patience and resignation the disappointments and misfortunes.

Robert Woods Cooke was born Aug. 8, 1841, in Salem, Columbiana county, Ohio, and died while at work in his mine three miles east of Yoncalla, Sept. 23rd, 1908, aged 67 years, one month and 15 days. He was not permitted, as many are, to suffer through a lingering illness, but met death quickly and peacefully.

He was married on April 4, 1867, to Jane Lee, who has been his constant companion even to the grave. To them were born three children: Louella, who preceded her father to rest; Harry Lee Cooke, who is a merchant in Drain, and Dr. John Lebert Cooke, of Brawley, California.

In June, 1893, they responded to the call of the West, and leaving the wide circle of friends, came to Oregon, settling near Yoncalla, where they made a pleasant and comfortable home where all found welcome.

About three months ago they bought a beautiful home in Yoncalla and felt that they could enjoy the afternoon of life; but it was not to be. Afternoon passed quickly into evening and the shadow of night passed over the doorway.

To the members of that home, who must continue the journey alone, we offer our sincere sympathy.

Parent, husband, friend and citizen: Today we bid thee farewell. Tomorrow we, too, will find the blessed rest, and "come and make our beds with thee." XX.

Take Advantage of a Roseburg Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy your night's rest.

Profit by a Roseburg citizen's experience. J. P. McCarthy, living at 614 Rose St., Roseburg, Ore., says: "Quite a long time ago I began to suffer from kidney trouble. I became more and more noticeable until I could neglect it no longer. I did not have much backache, but the kidney secretions annoyed me greatly. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I was led to get a supply at Marsters Drug store. The trouble has disappeared entirely since using them. The action of the kidneys is now regular and the secretions are clear and normal."

S.S.S. CONTAINS NO MERCURY

Medicines containing Mercury are often given to persons suffering with Contagious Blood Poison, and so powerful is the action of this drug that it frequently removes the symptoms in a short while, and shuts the disease up in the system to do greater damage to the delicate internal members. When, however, the treatment is left off, the disease always returns, and the patient finds that his health has been injured by this powerful mineral, and he is often left with weak stomach, disturbed digestion, mercurial rheumatism, etc. The action of S. S. S. is entirely different. It contains no Mercury, nor any other harmful drug, but is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots and herbs. It cures Contagious Blood Poison by removing the virus from the blood. It searches out every particle of the poison and does not leave the least trace for future outbreaks. S. S. S., in addition to curing the disease, builds up and strengthens every part of the body. Its fine tonic effects tone up the stomach and digestion, improve the appetite and regulate the entire system. Home treatment book containing valuable information about the different stages of the disease and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.
