OCTOBER 8, 1908.

The People Say: Senator Fulton went to Oregon, and asked for re-election, and the people said:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" Senator Hanabrough went to North Dakota for re-election, and the people said:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" Senator Kittredge heard it in South Dakota, from the people:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" Senator Long asked the people of Kansas for re-election, and the people shouted:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" Senator Hopkins went to Illinois and asked for re-election, and two-thirds of the Republicans of Illinois announced:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" Almost one-half of the Republicans of Iowa, even when asked by their distinguished Senator, Allison, replied:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" The voice of the people is unmistakable. Wherever they have had a chance to speak, they have earnestly lifted their voices, saying:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!" That sentiment is sweeping the whole country:

"WE WANT A CHANGE!"

PROTECTION FOR LONDONERS.

A sewing machine made in Bridgeport, Connecticut, costs 35 to 40 dollars there. The same company sells them in London for 20 dollars. How important it is that there should be a tariff to protect the business of the manufacturers of sewing machines.

AN AUDACIOUS AND INSOLENT PERFORMANCE.

(Springfield Republican.)

"If Mr. Sherman ever did anything in public life to attract national attention, prior to his nomination to the vice-presidency, it was his appeal to Harriman for campaign funds in 1908, as revealed by the President's letter. Harriman at that time had not become as notorious and so obnoxious to the American people as he became somewhat later, yet his business character and political standing were as well understood in the autumn of 1906 as they are today. Taken in connection with the campaign fund publicity in issue, the Sherman nomination seems to be an audacious—we will not say insolent—a performance as the Republican party in these later years of its history has been guilty of."

WHY? JUST WHY?

If your banker asks why you think your deposit should be guaranteed, ask him why he thinks your note that he discounts should be endorsed or backed up with security.

Why Mitchell is for Bryan. (John Mitchell to the New York World.)

"In accordance with your invitation, I wish to state that, in my judgment, the election of Bryan would be for the best interests of the whole nation. He stands on much the better platform and will be guided by it in the event of his election. Mr. Taft is handicapped by the zealous advocacy of his cause by the predatory rich. Honest wealth and business have nothing to fear in Bryan's election."

HOW STREET PAVING PAYS.

Eugene Guard: Does paving pay the property owner? The Guard said it would be a good investment when the improvement was first talked of; that it would boom values and be the first real step in the building of a city. How well this prediction has been verified is common knowledge, evidence of its fulfillment appearing on every hand. Only yesterday a property owner who had mildly object to paving said to the editor of the Guard: "The lease on a business room I rent for $45 a month will expire in January, and I can get $100 a month for it after that." The pavement in front of that building cost $150, and it will take but a little over two months for the additional rent to pay for it. Did paving pay that property owner? Has it paid the property owners generally? Has it paid the property owners generally? Has it increased 50 per cent in value in the last two years?

Don't think that even can't be done. Thousands of obsolete cases have been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. 50 cents at any drug store.

SARGENT ON TAFT.

He Declared that Judge Taft Remanded Workmen to a Servitude as Degrading as the Spartans Imposed Upon Their Helots.

Last week Mr. Frank P. Sargeant died. In 1893 he was Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen when Judge Taft "reduced railroad trainmen to machines to do the bidding of a master." Here are some extracts from an article written by Mr. Sargeant about the decision by Judge Taft that was a grievous wrong:

"If a Judge of the United States court [he was discussing Judge Taft's decision] may abolish this right of an employe, he remands him, unequivocally, to a servitude as degrading as the Spartans imposed upon their helots, and it is this phase of the strike which has aroused such intense concern and alarm.

"It will not be expected that I should enter upon a discussion of the legal points involved; at best I can only voice the sentiments of a body of law-abiding men who have been trained by their organizations to respect laws and the decisions of courts, and who find themselves suddenly reduced to the condition of penance by the de-termination of a United States Judge."

"It is asserted that railroads become common carriers, but are unable to perform their obligations without men. They must have men, and it should be stated they must have engines, fuel, water, steam, tracks, etc. The locomotives and equipments can be purchased and become the property of the road, but they are useless without men, and these, once secured, the general manager, speaking as if by authority, intimates that they become fixtures, because, without them, as without engines, the obligations of the railroads cannot be performed; such is the newfangled logic relied upon to reduce railroad trainmen to machines, to do the bidding of masters with authority conferred by a United States Judge. In at least one notable instance a United States Judge has shown his utter contempt for a sovereign state and the laws made in conformity with the constitution, and has sent county officials to prison because they would not disregard their oaths and obey his mandate—and it will readily be conceded, if such a high-handed outrage can be perpetrated and the Judge remain unimpached, that a Judge may, with equal impunity, subject railroad employes to autocratic indignities."

"But it so happens that while men debate such propositions, embodying self-evident truths, the court, with an iron grip, holds freemen in bondage, and the victims are as powerless as when, under another exhibition of power, men were sold at the auction block."

TAXING THE STRICKEN CITY.

When San Francisco was destroyed the proposition was made to admit lumber for its rebuilding free of duty. The Republican party managers side tracked it. But why should they have taken this attitude? As long as they plead that the foreigner pays the tax there was no particular reason for them to compel the people of that stricken city to pay ten per cent more for the lumber in its rebuilding than they would otherwise, just in order to prevent an objection in the event of real tariff revision.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in a most convincing manner. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol, no harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most likely recommended by leading medical authorities of all the civilized schools of practice for the cure of women's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or those troubled down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, we prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can be taken in any condition of the system, is a most reliable invigorating tonic and stimulant, and is most readily adapted to the delicate system by a woman's peculiar ailments. In the treatment of women's ailments, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine that can be counted on for a cure. Address Dr. R. V. RIGHT KIND OF BOOSTING.

An exchange advises everybody to boost, but in connection with the advice offers the information that it may be well to remember that boosting consists in something more than mere talk. Talk is cheap, but talk with action is what wins results. Boost individuals as well as general affairs. Whenever you see an honest man struggling to get ahead in his business, lend him a helping hand. Whatever benefits him benefits the whole community, and as you are one of the whole community, it benefits you. Get out of your crust of selfishness. Put your neighbor on the shoulder and say to him: "Take courage, I am with you and will help you to win out." Open your heart and lend a helping hand. It does not hurt you and does lift up some one else. So shall you become—not a "prominent citizen" perhaps—but a good citizen in the broad sense of the word. Sowing the sunshine is a more profitable job than most people realize. There is much more than sentiment in it. There are solid results. The disheartened man takes up burden with determination to win. Other men feel the influence of the sunshine and work more heartily, and the whole community feels the good effects.

NEW DISTRICT FORESTERS.

Pinchot Makes Appointments—Portland Heads District 6.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The district foresters who will be in charge of the six field districts of the Forest Service, beginning January 1, next, have been selected by Chief Forester Pinchot. They and their headquarters are as follows:

District 1—Missoula, Mont., W. B. Greeley, of California.

District 2—Denver, Colo., Smith Riley, of Maryland.

District 3—Albuquerque, N. M., A. C. Ryland, of New York.

District 4—Utah, Clyde Levitt, of Michigan.

District 5—San Francisco, F. E. Olmstead, of Connecticut.

District 6—Portland, Or., E. T. Allen, formerly state forester of California.

All the district foresters are of technical training and most of them have been members of the Forest Service for several years. Ogden instead of Salt Lake was fixed upon for headquarters of District 4 because of greater convenience and economy of living.

How to Sweep a Room.

When starting to sweep a room get everything out of the way that you can. Lift the end of the curtains if they are of material that is apt to catch the dust. Put aside any articles of clothing that may be lying about and pick up from the door shoes, stools, paper basket and the like. Now start with a clean, even stroke of the broom or sweeper and sweep the floor in sections. When using the broom, direct the sweeping on one point, door-sill, center of the room, or chimney, and gather with a whisk brush into the dustpan. An ordinary clothes-brush will prove very useful in cleaning places under furniture where the whisk is too large to work well. In very small rooms crowded with furniture it is often difficult to avoid hitting the walls and windows with the handle of the broom. This difficulty may be overcome by using a small whisk broom such as the children play with. It is much handier than a large one in a narrow space. If the floor is bare or covered with a center rug, first sweep the rug, then fold it back at the edges and wrap your broom in flannel. Now wipe up the bare parts of the floor with the broom thus covered and you will get them perfectly clean.

How to Keep Things Cold Without Ice.

An ingenious woman has devised a plan for having good, cold milk and butter without ice. It is a household dairy or pantry, so cheap and successful that any housewife who has plenty of water can have one with very little work. Make a frame, any size, but strong enough to carry a tub of water on top, and cover the frame with best-stain or sacking. Put a tub on top and fill it with water and put wooden strips two and three inches wide in it so that they feed the water down and keep the sacking wet all the time. The air blowing through the wet sacks keeps everything almost as cool as if it were in a refrigerator, and the butter and milk taste better than if it were kept in the air. Moreover, it will keep fresh much longer in this dairy. An old blanket makes the best feeding strips. Put in enough to have three or four to each side. The principle is that of the water bag, and we all know how cool the water is kept in the soaked canvas.

How to Wash Silk.

In washing silk there are four things which must be avoided, and they are soap, heat, rubbing and wringing. Have the water lukewarm. Make a lather with a little dissolved soap if the garment is dirty. If the article is not soiled much, use bran water. Don't ever allow soap in a lump to come in contact with silk. Take one end of the article and swirl it around and around until it is clean. Rinse it in cold water to which vinegar has been added. Add one tablespoonful of vinegar to one quart of water. Place the garment between dry cloths and squeeze, preferably between a wringer. Then shake well to get rid of all superfluous moisture and iron at once through tissue paper with a warm iron.
