CONFIDENT BRYAN WILL WIN.

George Fred Williams, After a Tour, Says Plurality Only Question.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 8—Reversal of the Roosevelt-Parker sweep for the Democrats!

That's the way George Fred Williams, former representative in congress from Massachusetts, campaigning the west for the democratic party, puts the election of Bryan and Kern, which will be all over but the shouting four weeks from now.

Mr. Williams dropped in from the south this morning.

"I have talked to democrats and republicans everywhere," Mr. Williams said, " and I find that there has never been anything like the change in the political history of the country. The election of Bryan is assured. It will be more than a landslide. I don't know what to call it.

New York for Bryan, Sure.

"New York is assured for the democrats. So is Illinois, and possibly Rhode Island. Oh, yes, there's Ohio. And there is Indiana! Indiana going democratic! What do you know about that! No one claims Indiana at this date for the republicans.

"And there is Kansas. Just came from there. Talked to the editor of a German paper who said practically all the German republicans were for Bryan this year. Same thing is true relative to the German vote all over the country. Don't know just what has brought the change for the better. It's true nevertheless.

"Then there is the labor vote. You all know how they are coming over to our side. I never appreciated it so fully, however, until I began travelling about the country and talking to the people—talking to men who understand things generally, and who know just what's going on.

Gets the Colored Vote.

"Then there is the colored vote. That's ours in the greater majority. And the soldiers—those who served in the Philippines, particularly. But the greatest lead we have is among the republicans who are going to vote for Bryan. Roosevelt's butting in, I find, is responsible for the change of many of these persons."

Mr. Williams visited Johnstown and other Pennsylvania cities and towns in Quay's own district. In one place a workingmans' democratic club had 33 republican members who were going to vote for Bryan. In another small town there were 22 republicans who had gone over to the democratic side, and were members of the Bryan club.

Mr. Williams says there is no question as to the result of the election. The only thing now is the plurality.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

James Withycombe Still Has Eye on Oregon Governorship.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 8.—James Withycombe, of Corvallis, republican nomfaee for governor in 1906, is going to try it again. Already, two years before the next election, he is holding his ear to the ground and is considering the call of the people.

Mr. Withycombe was a Portland visitor yesterday and, so the story goes, opened the Pandora's box of his political ambitions while here in conversation with R. E. Williams, national republican committeeman for Oregon. At that time, so it is reported, Mr. Withycombe said that he was receiving urgent and insistent requests from friends throughout the state in large numbers urging him to be a candidate and that he was considering the proposition.

The probable candidacy of Mr. Withycombe adds one more to the already long list of prominent men who have their eyes on the place. Up in eastern Oregon Judge Stephen A. Lowell, of Pendleton is reputed to be a possible candidate. Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman is also a candidate. J. W. Bailey, state dairy and food commissioner, has his eye on the job, so his friends say, though Mr. Bailey himself will not admit it. District Attorney Cameron also is training his forces on the statehouse at Salem. Judge L. R. Webster is talked of as a possibility. Then in addition there are perhaps a dozen other men who either are being urged to train for the race or who are urging that they should do so. It is a certainty that there will be plenty of men to fill the place when the time comes for the people to decide who will be governor.

Portland Telegram: When it comes to bagging the limit of game, the gunners of this burg are taking their hats off to R. E. Veatch, a Southern Pacific railroad conductor, and four companions who have returned from an outing in the Coast range with the jerked meat of 21 deer and three bears. The limit of deer for the season is five to a hunter and in the greatest outing they ever had, this bunch of good shots got nearly all that was coming to them. Veatch's companions on the trip were: E. S. Holderman, J. D. Cochran and L. Groves, of Cottage Grove, and G. D. Berry, of Junction City. They spent 13 days in the mountains about 14 miles from Cow Horn peak.

REPUBLICANS AND MONEY.

Collier's Weekly has a significant editorial in its issue of August 21, entitled, "The Republicans and Money." It is given herewith:

"The election and subsequent death of Mr. Taft would mean the occupancy of the White House by an official fat-fryer who has during several years past approached, with deferential hat in hand, the president or treasurer of most of the large corporations in the country. It was in the course of this official function that Sherman was profanely turned down by Mr. Harriman, with bitter denunciation of the Republican party and reeking messages for the head of that party, that the party and the head of it had not been grateful for the $250,000 which Mr. Harriman collected and which Mr. Harriman collected and gave in 1904. Penrose, as one of the executive committee of nine which is to do the actual work of the Republican campaign, is in error of taste and judgment but not a great deal worse. With T. Coleman Du Pont of Delaware, however, the case differs. Among the combinations now being prosecuted by the Federal Government is that aggregation of companies known as the Powder Trust. Mr. Du Pont is president of the fifty million dollar Du Pont Powder Company, president of the ten million dollar International Powder Company, director of the International Smokeless Powder Company, and vice-president of the holding company, the Delaware Securities Company, which owns a majority of the stock of the Laflin & Rand Powder Company. Suppose that Mr. Taft, being successful, should be approached by Mr. Du Pont thus: 'I am one of the ten men, including Chairman Hitchcock, who have put you over the plate. I don't want to be reminding you continually of the obligation; there is one small piece of patronage I should like, and I shan't speak to you about patronage again during your administration. There is a deserving young friend of mine whom I should like to have appointed to the position lately held by Mr. Purdy, in charge of that bureau of the Department of Justice which is seeking to break up my company, deprive me of some of my property, and declare me a violator of the law.' Something analogous would have been the presence of Harry Thaw two years ago on a committee of ten to collect funds and promote the election of Jerome as district attorney. A minority plank, calling for a statute providing for publicity of campaign expenditures, was thrown out of the committee on resolutions by a vote of 52 to 1, and was rejected on the floor of the convention by a vote of 880 to 94—Nebraska and Idaho and parts of Wisconsin and Indiana favoring it. The amount of Bourbonism still left in the Republican party is far too large."

"The People do rule," says Sherman, the candidate of the trusts for Vice-President. The truth is that a bill introduced for the protection of the rights of the people cannot even be voted on in the house where Cannon and Sherman rule the roost.

It is bad enough that under the dictation of the speaker and his Committee on Rifles, labor bills are strangled and not permitted to come to a vote. But, worse than that, if possible, is the fact that the Speaker picks committees so that bills that he does not like cannot even get a hearing, but are strangled in committees by direction of the Speaker. The people are up in arms all over the country, and Anti-Cannonism is growing in popularity.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach perhaps nausea, [illegible] "risings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or surely you more permanently than Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BECKLEY.

Oakland Gives Expression of Profound Sorow at Her Loss

Seldom is there witnessed such a general expression of sorrow in any community as that which was shown in Oakland on Thursday afternoon during the funeral ceremonies of Mrs. Phil. Beckley. In respect to her memory and the high esteem in which she and her bereaved husband were held by all who knew them, all the business houses in the city were closed during the hour for the funeral, and a very large concourse of people attended the services and accompanied the body to its last resting place in the city of the dead, located on a beautiful eminence northwest of town. Mrs. Beckley was an honored member of the Oakland Rebekah lodge and the members of that lodge and of the Oakland lodge of Odd Fellows attended the services in the regalia of the order. The funeral ceremonies were conducted at the home of the deceased, by Rev. W. S. Smith, of the Presbyterian church. A song and prayer were offered at the cemetery.

The floral tributes offered by the several lodges, as well as by personal friends, were of rare beauty and in great profusion. In themselves these were a beautiful tribute to the memory of a most highly esteemed lady, whose untimely death is felt as a distinct loss by all who knew her.

Among those in attendance were a large delegation of members of Roseburg Lodge, No. 326, B. P. O. Elks, Mr. Beckley being a member of this lodge. Several other Roseburg people were also in attendance, a number going over on the morning train, and four automobiles filled with passengers went over later. Included among there were the following members of the B. P. O. Elks: E. L. Parrott, exalted ruler; C. B. Cannon, Sam Josephson, H. Marks, W. B. Hammitte, C. J. Denning, Jos. Micelli, R. L. Stephens, Otis Fisher, Dr. C. L. Pearson, Frank Kennedy, Dr. G. E. Houck, Ralph Terrell, W. H. Fisher, A. N. Orcutt, Bert Westbrook, Roy Bellows, C. W. Armstrong, L. Wimberly, B. A. Hunsaker, Roy McClallen, Frank Woodard, G. W. Staley, W. W. Cardwell, Earl Lander. Elks in attendance from in and near Oakland were: F. B. Waite, C. H. Brown, Lynn Caton, A. E. Caton, C. B. Guinn, J. W. Pielsticker, Scott Lander, Dr. C. W. Gilmour, A. B. Grubbe, H. J. Mahoney. Among others who went over from Roseburg were: Mrs. M. Fickle, Mrs. C. B. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. S M Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Terrell, Grant Taylor, H. C. Althaus.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at A. C. Marsters & Co's drug store.
