

Too Risky

Ask your doctor if he does not think it would be wise for you to keep a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house.

"A hard chill, pain through the chest, difficult breathing." If this should be your experience, send for your doctor. It may be pneumonia! To doctor yourself would be too risky. If your doctor cannot come at once, give Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. When he comes, tell him exactly what you have done. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

BOY KILLS BROTHER.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 8.—Fred David, 14 years old, was accidentally shot and killed by his brother, Robert David, 12 years old, at East Second and East Taylor streets, this afternoon, with a 22-calibre rifle.

Not knowing that the rifle was loaded, Robert aimed it at the head of Millard Copley and said:

"I bet I can shoot the button of your hat."

With this, Robert pulled the trigger and the gun snapped. The weapon was then laid on the rail of the temporary trestle work of the Portland Construction Company, from which point the boys were fishing. After depositing the gun, Robert started to walk across a tie. His heel struck the gun, which discharged the bullet entering the head of Fred, an inch above the left ear, killing him instantly.

The father of the David brothers was poisoned two years ago in Seattle by a Spaniard, who had first attempted to assassinate him with a knife.

WHY SUFFER?

Breathe Hyomei and Kill the Loathsome Catarrh Germs.

Just as long as you have catarrh your nose will itch, your breath will be foul, you will hawk and spit, and you will do other disgusting things because you can't help yourself. The germs of catarrh have got you in their power; they are continually and persistently digging into and irritating the mucous membrane of your nose and throat. They are now making your life miserable; in time they will sap your entire system of its energy, its strength, its vigor and vitality.

But there is one remedy that will kill the germs and cure catarrh; and that is Hyomei, the Australian dry air treatment.

Red Cross Pharmacy, the druggist, will guarantee Hyomei to cure catarrh, or money back. Don't delay this pleasant antiseptic treatment. Breathe in Hyomei and kill the germs.

Red Cross Pharmacy will sell a complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler, for only $1.00. It is also guaranteed to cure bronchitis, asthma, coughs, colds, hay fever and croup.

THE BUSY ALIENIST.

(Philadelphia Ledger.)

"Before I answer your question," said the great alienist, "permit me to refresh my memory."

Hereupon he consulted a notebook. "May I ask," resumed the lawyer, "why you found it necessary to consult some memorandum before answering a simple hypothetical question of only a few thousand words?"

"The fact is," replied the alienist, "that I did that to get the point of view. I'd forgotten which side I'd been retained on in this particular case. Kindly spring your conundrum again."

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic.

Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy your night's rest.

Profit by a Roseburg citizen's experience.

J. P. McCarthy, living at 614 Rose St., Roseburg, Ore., says: "Quite a long time ago I began to suffer from kidney trouble. It became more and more noticeable until I could neglect it no longer. I did not have much backache, but the kidney secretions annoyed me greatly. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I was led to get a supply at Marsters Drug store. The trouble has disappeared entirely since using them. The action of the kidneys is now regular and the secretions are clear and normal."

"WHERE DID YOU GET IT?"

"Uncle Joe" Invites Demand That He Show Where He Got His Wealth.

Speaker Cannon intimated that Mr. Bryan had become a millionaire. The speaker was speaking in his home town, Danville, Ill.

The following day Mr. Bryan, speaking also in Mr. Cannon's home district, opened his ledger to the gaze of the American people and showed that he is worth approximately $150,000.

Having thus accepted Speaker Cannon's challenge to "fess up," Mr. Bryan demanded in return that Speaker Cannon "switch on himself," that is, that Mr. Cannon also "fess up," and relate just how he got his wealth.

It is a perfectly proper thing, too, for some people have been worried that Mr. Bryan has succeeded by his great industry in upbuilding a competency for his old age.

Salary, Lectures and Books.

"It was from what I saved from my congressional salary, and gained from lectures and books and the profits of 'The Commoner' that I got what money and property I have," Mr. Bryan answered, in substance. "Will Mr. Cannon now tell the people how he amassed his wealth? He has been hampered more or less by official duties during his term of service in the congress, yet in spite of that obstacle, he is commonly presumed to possess considerable of this world's goods."

Now "Uncle Joe's" Turn.

None will deny that it is now Uncle Joe's turn to take the people into his confidence. Down in Danville, it is true that Mr. Cannon and his brother as bankers are thought each to have amassed much more than $1,000,000. Certainly, his credit in the financial world rests on the general belief that approximately that sum represents his earthly possessions.

If that be true, it is to be hoped that the speaker will give details as to how he got it. If it be untrue, then let him tell exactly how much he is worth, and of what his wealth consists, and follow Mr. Bryan's example in taking the people into his confidence.

Mr. Cannon cannot gracefully refuse to do this. For he himself invited the demand now made on him.

A Card.

No Bench Managing For Ganzel. "When I can't play any more I'll get out of baseball. It would simply be impossible for me to be a bench manager. Our efforts to secure a first baseball manager are precautionary measures to protect us in case anything should happen to me."

In this manner Manager Ganzel of the Cincinnati Nationals elucidated the reports sent out recently that he intended to add a successor to himself as first baseman as soon as the right man could be secured.

"As long as I am with the Cincinnati team I will be an active participant in its games," continued Ganzel. "Of course there may be times when that weak ankle of mine will not allow me to play first base, but I'll be out in uniform, just the same, and on the lines, too, directing my team, as Hugh Jennings does. Managing from the bench does not appeal to me. I couldn't do it. After years of active participation in games it would be impossible for me to be a noncombatant, as it were, in a game in which the success of my team is at stake."

No More Bonuses For Champs.

No more fat bonuses for baseball season winners—not if the national baseball commission knows it. That body recently announced a new rule, which forbids a pennant winning club to either of the big leagues to pay bonuses to its players either before or after the world's series. Evidently one of the club owners have become tired of winning a big prize and then giving most of it away to their ball players. Doubtless the rule was put through at the instance of some of the club owners. The latest ruling will also away a big part of the prize money that has been going into the pockets of the various champs for the last few years.

College Spirit Makes Detroit Win.

"It's the college spirit justified by Jughey Jennings that makes the Tigers play and win," says Claude Rossman, Detroit's first sucker.

"Jennings has made us forget the existence of pay day—made us love the game for its own sake."

"He has injected into all of us his own spirit, his energy and his cheerfulness and taught us to encourage each other on the field and off."

Peters Middle West Tennis Champion.

Charles S. Peters of Chicago is the new champion tennis player of the middle west. He earned the new title recently at Omaha, Neb., when he defeated Walter T. Hayes, also a Chicago man, who has held it three years. Hayes is permanent owner of the middle west cup for singles, having won it three times, and a new trophy hung up by the Omaha Field club for the new champion goes to Peters.

Armour to Retire.

Bill Armour, former manager of the Cleveland and Detroit baseball clubs and now owner and manager of the Toledo club, will retire as bench manager at the close of the present season. Nervous strain from excitement during games is the cause. He will handle the business end in the future and do his own scouting for players in summer.

New Pitcher For Chicago Cubs.

The Chicago National league club has signed Cy Young, star pitcher of the Milwaukee Lake Shore league club. Young recently pitched a twenty-one inning game against Smith of the Toledo club and allowed only seven hits. Young formerly attended the University of Wisconsin.

Naps Land a Catcher.

Catcher Grover Land of the Toledo club in the American association has been sold to the Cleveland club, but will remain with Toledo until the close of the present season, on Sept. 15. This will make Land's second appearance in a big league.

Pitcher McCarthy Fooled 'Em.

McCarthy, the young twirler secured by the Boston Nationals from Pittsburgh soon after the Pirates took him off Cincinnati's hands, has proved himself a wonder.
