Railroad Grants Reduced Rates For This Occasion—Big Boost For Southern Oregon.

Assistant Secretary Zuercher, of the Commercial Club, received this morning a letter from Col. E. Hofer, president of the Willamette Valley Development League...

Call to order by Pres. S. A. Lowell, of Pendleton.

Addresses by: Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain on "Oregon."

Hon. J. W. Bennett, Marshfield, "How Can We Persuade Harriman to Come Through to Coos Bay."

Hon. Jonathan Bourne, U. S. Senator, Portland, "Importance of Coos Bay as a Military and Coal Station in Time of War."

Col. E. Hofer, Salem, "The Battle for Opening the Willamette River."

There will also be a special speaker for Coos Bay Harbor, to be supplied by the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce.

Speakers are also invited from the Commercial Clubs of Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass, Eugene, Albany and Corvallis, and it is probable that representatives will be here from nearly all of them, as well as from the several Commercial Clubs in the towns of Douglas county.

The two days' sessions will be interspersed with musical numbers and other features of entertainment and a large attendance is expected, as this should be made the most important development meeting ever held in Southern Oregon.

In order to facilitate these sessions of the Development Congress and promote a larger attendance, the S. P. R. R. Co. has granted a round-trip rate of one and one-third fare, on the certificate plan, for all who come to attend on the dates specified.

Passengers must procure receipts from ticket agents upon purchasing their tickets, and when these are signed by the secretary of the convention they will be entitled to return tickets at one-third fare.

Judge Scott is now holding good roads meetings in eastern Oregon and may not be able to be present on this occasion, but plenty of other good speakers will be on hand and help boost for Southern Oregon.

VALUE OF DEMONSTRATION TRAINS.

One of the good results of the educational trains sent out by the Washington state college last summer is seen in the increased enrollment of students in the horticultural department, which breaks all records for any department in the school.

Professor W. S. Thornber, head of the department of horticulture, says: "We have 35 students in the freshman class this year, compared with 17 last year, 11 two years ago and 7 three years ago."

Professor Calkins, instructor in English in the college last year, has returned to the school and is taking a course in horticulture and expects to locate in the northwest and engage in fruit growing after he leaves the school.

A third indictment was filed by the grand jury in the circuit court Wednesday evening and when made public this morning discredited the rumor that, like the two preceding indictments, it alleged a violation of the local option law.

Daughter's Losses. Shortly after noon today a jury returned a verdict for the defendant in the case of L. A. Daugherty vs. R. W. Long, an action to recover $600, alleged to be due him as commission for selling Long's farm near Yoncalla.

HITS STREET CAR

Runaway Work Car Dashes Down Track Behind It

ONE PASSENGER MAY DIE

30 Loggers Held Up—Man Seriously Burned While Explaining Another's Fate

Special to the Evening Review. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Three persons were injured, one of them probably fatally, when a runaway construction car collided with a heavily laden street car at the foot of the steep grade at Union street today.

The construction car, beyond control of the motorman, was rushing down the track behind them. The crash was terrific, the passengers being hurled in all directions. Mrs. R. T. Rolbron is hurt so badly that her recovery is doubtful.

A Realistic Explanation. SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 15.—While showing a friend how a man was nearly killed by a wire carrying 60,000 volts of electricity in the city lighting plant two years ago, J. Harvey Dennis, city claim agent, accidentally came in contact with the same wire today.

There was a flash and Dennis was hurled across the room, where he lay writhing in agony from frightful burns. He was removed to the hospital, where his legs will have to be amputated below the knees.

30 Men Held Up. CLEAR LAKE, Wash., Oct. 15.—Armed posses are today beating the woods for a party of thirty men employed by the Clear Lake Logging Co., and secured $150. The men were just dispersed in the bunk house and were preparing to go to bed when the robbers appeared in the doorway.

The loggers were forced to march outside in single file and line up, and two of their number were then compelled to rifle the clothing of their fellow workmen. One of the searchers tried to overlook a watch in his friend's clothing, but he was sent back for it.
