W. R. HEARST SUED

Haskell Demands Damages in Sum of $600,000

EDITOR'S RUSE IS SPOILED

Twenty-Three Persons Killed and 40 Others Fatally Hurt in Riot at Spanish Election

Special to the Evening Review.
OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 16.—After an exciting scene on a train passing through this city, W. R. Hearst, the "angel" of the Independence party, was served with papers today in a suit for $600,000 damages brought against him by Chas. N. Haskell, governor of Oklahoma and former treasurer of the Democratic national committee. An officer boarded the train and found Hearst's stateroom locked. Mrs. Hearst announced through the keyhole that her husband had gone out to send a telegram. The officer refused to believe this and forced open the door. As he fell inside of the room, Mrs. Hearst, half dressed, rushed out into the aisle and screamed. Then she kicked violently on the door of the toilet adjoining the stateroom and Hearst appeared and accepted service. Haskell's suit was filed at 11 o'clock last night. It is based on the statements made by Hearst that Haskell is an agent of the Standard Oil Co. This and similar statements caused Haskell to resign from the Democratic National Committee.

Bloody Riot in Spain.

LISBON, Oct. 16.—Twenty-three men were killed and forty others fatally wounded in a great riot at Azambuja between monarchists and Republicans at the municipal election primaries today. The Republicans outnumbered their opponents, who were the aggressors, and ultimately put them to flight.

GREAT WELCOME PLANNED.

Atlantic Battleship Fleet in Yokohama Tomorrow.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 16.—Side by side with the brilliant standards of the Mikado, the Stars and Stripes are today floating from ten thousand buildings and flagstaffs in Yokohama, waving a greeting to the mighty fleet of American battleships that will in a few hours enter the harbor. A half million dollars will be expended in the entertainment of the men of the fleet during their stay in Japan, and the great popular demonstration will doubtless forever set at rest the alarmist reports regarding the alleged Japanese hostility to America and Americans.

Drawn up in a great battle line of welcome the monster battleships that are the pride of Nippon will greet the incoming American fleet with a booming salute. For the last month almost the entire Japanese navy has been engaged in imposing maneuvers, and the program of the morrow will be the final feature of this extensive naval practice. The sight of the navy of Nippon, decorated in its holiday attire, meeting and greeting the great fleet from across the seas, will doubtless be one of the most imposing naval spectacles that the world has ever known in time of peace.

In regard to tomorrow's display of Japan's naval strength, there is a general feeling that if this ostensibly innocent demonstration does not leave a wholesome impression on her visitors, it at least can do no more harm than that provided by the appearance of the American fleet. The American demonstration on the Pacific has been interpreted here as a supposed object lesson to the world, and Japan has confessed her willingness to accept it as such; but Japan's own unpretentious exhibition of what her navy can do will be for the sake of those with whom her interests are more immediately concerned.

ANGORA GOATS IN OREGON.

In a communication published in a recent number of the Breeders' Gazette, S. F. Zysset, of Linn county, Oregon, says:

"Angora goats are profitable in the production of mohair, and on the Pacific coast it is generally conceded that they are more profitable than sheep on account of their natural habits of continually moving while feeding. They never are injurious to pastures as sheep are in killing or eating out pastures, and any other stock will follow and feed after them, while I have seen stock almost starve after sheep. It is also a fact that they will improve a range or make more grass grow in any pasture where there is more or less brush or browse. They are profitable in comparison with sheep or the same amount of money invested in any other stock in that three Angora goats will do as well under similar conditions as one sheep. Where there is more browse the difference is greater according to the amount of brush.

"I have seen any number of small flocks of Angoras in the Willamette valley of Oregon that never receive any feed other than what they rustle during the year. I think they are more profitable than sheep because they are all profit. They make their own pasture out of brush land that will not support any other stock except after the goats have killed the brush. I have seen the best of pastures produced with their aid and think they are duly entitled to their board without charge. So far as intelligence and activity are concerned, I have seen Angoras perform acts that were almost human in some respects. Those who know nothing about goats may think I am exaggerating. If so they had better get a few goats to start with and become acquainted with them. Try and range them alongside your apple orchard, grain field or truck garden and I think you will very readily agree with me."

Pulaski and Posen in Ashes—Refugee Train Wrecked at Burning Culvert and Seven Persons Perish

Special to the Evening Review.
ALPENA, Mich., Oct. 16.—THE WHOLE OF NORTHWESTERN MICHIGAN IS A MASS OF FLAMES, WHICH HAVE ALREADY SWEEPED FOUR COUNTIES. THE LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY HAVE BEEN HEAVY. THE TOWN OF METZ, IN PRESQUE ISLE COUNTY, IS TOTALLY DESTROYED, AND REPORTS ARE TO THE EFFECT THAT THE GREATER PART OF THE POPULATION, OR PROBABLY 200 PEOPLE, PERISHED. THE FIRES ORIGINATED IN THE FORESTS.

Refugees Perish in Wreck.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 16.—With the town hopelessly enveloped by fire from the surrounding forests, the inhabitants of Metz last night fled to Millersburg, 20 miles distant, where they boarded a relief train. As the train was leaving the district, however, it was dived at a burning culvert and seventeen persons were burned to death. A number of other persons abandoned the train and sought shelter elsewhere. Rescuing parties endeavoring to reach them have been driven back by flames.

May Use Dynamite.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Oct. 16.—Forest fires forced their way into this city last night despite the desperate work of the citizens, who battled all night. A squad of men are in readiness to use dynamite in case the flames get beyond control.

DR. BANCROFT-LEWIS COMING.

Dr. Bancroft, the psychologist, has been secured by the W. C. T. U. to give two of his famous lectures in our city. The series of lectures he will give will be intensely interesting and useful information. He is a talented gentleman of pleasing personality. He possesses the rare faculty which enable the clever lecturer to make what he has to say interesting in the highest degree. His powerful discourse on "Hypnotism" will be an interesting and education treat, as the study of mental phenomena has assumed gigantic proportions, and it is well to get information of the presumed to the super-madane right from the fountain head, as Dr. Bancroft is, and has been for years, considered an authority in the realm of psychic research.

Dr. Bancroft's series of lectures and entertainments throughout appeal to the higher capacities of the intellect and the size of his audience should afford a pretty active index to the element of human progress in any community. The features of entertainment, in which the doctor is assisted by D. Lillian Lewis, is of the highest order of merit. The W. C. T. U. of our city should be given great praise in securing such noted talent for our city, as they have arranged for them to appear under their auspices in our city for two evenings, Oct. 20th and 21st, at the Armory.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." NO NEW INDICTMENTS.

Lilly Trial Still On—Decrease of Divorce in Two Cases.

No further indictments had been returned by the grand jury up till 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, but the jury, from all appearance, is still as busy as ever.

Frank Lundy, indicted for assault and battery, plead not guilty when arraigned in court this morning, and his trial was set for next Monday. The trial of J. Falbe, indicted for alleged liquor selling, opens tomorrow morning. W. W. Cardwell and A. N. Orcutt are the attorneys for the defense. If the case is finished in the morning, Scott Jefferson, also indicted on a charge of selling liquor, will be placed on trial in the afternoon.

Closing arguments were being made at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the case of Leslie Lilly vs. Douglas county, an appeal from a road assessment of the county court. The jury later returned a verdict for $1,000 in favor of Mr. Lilly. The Hughes road case was sent to Jackson county on a change of venue.

Two More Divorces.

Judge Hamilton on Thursday evening granted two more decrees of divorce, Mary E. Bushnell from Wm. Bushnell and Myrtle Z. Young from W. S. Young. The Bushnells were married at Camas Valley in February, 1880, and have four children, ages being 3, 7, 9 and 12 years. The three youngest were awarded to the mother, who also receives one-third of her husband's property, consisting of a 160-acre farm at Ten Mile, valued at $2,000; livestock valued at $300 and money to the extent of $400. In her complaint, Mrs. Bushnell accused her husband of assaulting her, pointing a gun at her, cursing her and finally on May 11, of this year, driving her from home. During the last ten years of their wedded life she claims her husband contributed scantily toward the support of herself and their children. The decree granted Mrs. Young carried the custody of a two-year-old child. She and her husband were married in Roseburg, March 22, 1905, and the wife alleged in her complaint that her husband deserted her August 3, 1907.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Maude Rast Tendered Shower—Two Pleasant Parties.

Miss Maude Rast, daughter of Mrs. Clara Rast, of this city, and who is soon to become the bride of Stanley L. Kidder, was tendered a linen shower Thursday evening by about fifty members of Roseburg Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, of which Miss Rast is past worthy matron. The shower occurred at the lodge hall, which was decorated in Oriental fashion from the fact that the forthcoming wedding will be solemnized in Manila, P. I., where Mr. Kidder, son of Mrs. A. L. Kidder, of this city, is employed in the government postal service. Chinese and Japanese lanterns and parasols were arrayed to best advantage in the lodge rooms, and at the banquet, which was a feature of the evening, the waitresses wore the conventional Japanese kimono, with hair dressed in tiny Chinese fans. Past Grand Patron O. P. Coshaw acted as toastmaster at the banquet board, and responses were made by several of the members. Miss Rast leaves for Manila, via San Francisco, in about three weeks. Mr. Kidder will meet her at Hong Kong, China. Miss Rast spent the past month in Portland, returning here Thursday evening.

Eleven ladies were the guests of Mrs. K. L. Miller at the first of a series of luncheons given at her home in this city, Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30. Miss Belle Curry and Miss Mabel Van Buren assisted. The dining room was decorated with ferns, and the dining table with red roses. The guests: Mrs. F. W. Haynes, Mrs. W. C. Harding, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, Mrs. C. W. Martyn, Mrs. J. A. Buchanan, Mrs. J. A. Perry, Mrs. B. W. Strong, Mrs. S. M. Kelly, Mrs. W. H. Fisher and Mrs. O. P. Coshaw.

The prettily decorated home of Mrs. A. A. Wilder, in this city, was the scene last Wednesday afternoon of the season's first "500" and Pinch party. Thirty ladies were entertained, and the prizes for the best scores went to Mrs. S. A. Sanford and Mrs. J. C. Fullerton. Refreshments added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. A display of autumn leaves and ferns gave the reception rooms a very inviting appearance. Mrs. George C. Graham and Miss Fannie Campbell assisted.

ON GOTHENBURG PLAN.

Exclusive Liquor Franchise Asked for City of Medford.

MEDFORD, Or., Oct. 15.—At a special meeting of the city council this afternoon an ordinance was introduced at the request of W. L. Vaughn, of Portland, for the sale to the Medford Gothenburg Association of the exclusive right to sell liquor within the corporate limits of Medford for a period of ten years, beginning on October 1, 1909; for $55,000, to be paid at the rate of $5,000 for the first five years and $6,000 the second five.

At the present time there are nine saloons here, but under the rules of the association there will be but six, and the rules of the association provide for strict regulations. Mr. Vaughn states that the plan as provided by the Gothenburg Association has worked admirably wherever tried.

The Gothenburg Plan.

In connection with the above dispatch, the Medford Tribune says editorially: The most satisfactory solution of the liquor problem the world has yet seen is the Gothenburg system, which had its origin in Gothenburg, Sweden. It is in general use in Sweden, Norway, Finland, Switzerland and other European countries. Under the Gothenburg plan a company is granted a monopoly of the sale of liquors in the town. Managers at fixed salaries are placed in the public houses, and after paying fixed expenses and a regular dividend, the towns secure the balance. In Medford, a regular license will be paid in advance instead of a percentage of profits.

In the places where the system has been tried, the number of saloons is decreased, the laws more rigidly enforced, for failure to observe regulations renders the franchise liable to forfeiture.

The proposed Medford law provides a ten-year contract for $55,000 to be paid for at the rate of $5,000 a year for five years, and $6,000 a year for the second five years. The number of saloons is limited to six and the district in which they are located is limited. No noisy conduct is to be tolerated, no minors sold liquor, no women permitted entrance, saloons are to close Sundays, and no gambling is to be permitted. A $10,000 bond is to be given as guarantee of conduct.

The chief benefit that would result to Medford from such a system as that proposed is that it would settle at once and for all the liquor problem, put the saloon out of politics, stop the factional fight now in progress between prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists, and enable the people to concentrate their energy and efforts for the common good, instead of wasting them in endless squabbles.

Everything in the bounds of reason that a lover of law and order could demand seems to be provided by the Gothenburg system. The evil and objectionable features of the saloon are eliminated, yet personal liberty is not infringed. It is probable that the supreme court decision, now pending, on the local option election by which Jackson county was voted dry last June, will put Medford dry, beyond the reach of the Gothenburg or any other lawful system.

Jacob Denn is in town from Camas Valley.

Frank E. Alley is moving his livestock, etc., from Garden Valley, to the McChelland farm, three miles east of this city, which he recently purchased.

CASHIER IN TOILS

Shortage in Defunct La Grande Bank Over $12,000

FORGERY BRINGS ON CRASH

Correspondence Between Roosevelt and Taft on Presidency to be Given to the Public

Special to the Evening Review.
LA GRANDE, Or., Oct. 16.—Jefferson W. Scriber, cashier of the defunct Farmers and Traders National Bank of this city and a member of one of the oldest and best known families of the state, was arrested today by the Federal authorities on a charge of embezzlement. The arrest follows an examination into the bank's affairs by Claud Gatch, state bank examiner, who forwarded his report to Washington yesterday. Mr. Gatch declined to state what his examination disclosed, but it is said that he found the institution a complete wreck.

The specific charge against Scriber is that he wrongfully appropriated $12,525.25 of the bank's funds, and it is understood that he practically admits the shortage. Scriber was taken to Bendleton this afternoon for arraignment before the United States Commissioner, where he will be admitted to bail.

It is reported that Scriber's financial difficulties began years ago before the bank was nationalized. What led immediately to his arrest was his forgery of a note for $200 on N. K. West, a wealthy merchant of Elgin. On last Saturday Scriber and West raced to this city in automobiles, and the former reached here first and immediately took up the note. On Monday the bank closed.

Taft-Roosevelt Letters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The announcement was made today that Hamilton's Broadway Magazine will publish in its forthcoming November number letters that passed between President Roosevelt and Wm. H. Taft relative to the republican presidential nomination in which Roosevelt declined to advise Taft what course to take. One letter written by Taft expresses his preference for the supreme bench, but says that "circumstances seemed to have imposed upon him a trust that he could not disregard." In reply, Roosevelt told him that there were strong arguments against him taking the justness, one of which was because he thought Taft had the best chance of being nominated for the presidency. The letter concludes with this statement: "No one with wisdom can advise you."

Roosevelt's letter is dated March 15, 1906, and Taft replied four months later while in Quebec, Canada, saying that his chief reason for hesitating to accept the appointment to the supreme bench was the condition of the war department. Taft wanted to remain in order to carry out his policies relative to the Philippines, adding: "I know that few, if any, even among my friends, will credit me with anything, but I desire to be unconsolous of such a fact if I run for the presidency. Circumstances seem to have imposed something in the nature of a trust which I could not discharge by now succeeding Justice Brown."
