LUNDY PAYS FINE OF $100

Damage Case on Trial This Afternoon—Majority of Petit Jurors are Excused for Term

A fine of $250 was imposed Monday evening on Scott Jefferson, the Yoncalla hotel-keeper, convicted by a jury in the circuit court of selling intoxicating liquor. That was not all Jefferson received. Judge Hamilton accepted the verdict of the jury, a virtual repudiation of the testimony introduced by the defense and scored Jefferson heavily for making his little 11-year-old niece, Amy Pruitt, a party to the disreputable scheme. Inducing the child to swear falsely, Judge Hamilton said to Jefferson, was a more serious crime than that of which he had been convicted. Jefferson had only $205 on his person when the fine was imposed. This sum he deposited with the clerk, but Judge Hamilton allowed him to return home to raise the remaining $45.

Only three ballots were taken by the jury, which was out less than an hour. The first ballot stood 10 for conviction and two for acquittal. On the second ballot there were 11 for conviction, while one juror did not vote. Ballot No. 3 resulted unanimously for a verdict of guilty.

Lundy Fined $100.
Another Yoncalla resident, Frank T. Lundy, former marshal of that town, was also called upon to pay a fine in the circuit court. He was found guilty by a jury Monday night of assault and battery upon the per-

Wyoming Tornado Followed by Heavy Snowstorm—Miners' Quarrel Ends in Murder

Special to the Evening Review. HERRIN, Ill., Oct. 20.—After engaging the whole town in a street fight this morning a gang of desperadoes blew open the safe in a bank at Hurst, a mining town and stole $1500. After they took possession of the bank one robber stood in the doorway and held the citizens back at the muzzle of a revolver, while his companions blew open the safe. Armed citizens fired through the windows but without effect. As the robbers dashed down the street with their booty they were followed by a fusillade of bullets, but poor marksmanship allowed all to escape. A posse is in pursuit.

Quarrel Brings Murder.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Oct. 20.—Bob Dunn, of Dome, killed Carl Ebbing during a quarrel yesterday over the transfer of a "lady" on Dome creek. Dunn demanded the use of the machinery on the mine and a fist fight followed. A little later both men returned armed and each fired a shot. Ebbing fell, pierced through the heart. Dunn surrendered himself to the officers.

SAN RAFAEL, Calif., Oct. 20.—O. M. Hartzell, a wealthy Pittsburg broker, is dying here with a bullet in his brain, fired with suicidal intent because he was alone and tired of life. Hartzell was one of the Carnegie millionaires and carried $100,000 life insurance.

Would Burn Wife Alive.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 20.—M. Hanson, a laborer, was arrested last night, charged with attempting to burn his sick wife to death with blazing newspapers. After knocking down Mrs. Johnson, the proprietress of the lodging house where they lived, Hanson broke into his wife's room. Other guests, aroused by screams, found Hanson leaning over his wife and waving blazing paper in her face. Her eyebrows and part of her hair were burned off and her face blistered. The woman was unconscious when discovered. Hanson offers no excuse for his fiendish act.

Train Blown Off the Track.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 20.—Following a terrific tornado which last night blew a cañon on the U. P. R. R. over a precipice, killing six men and injuring 30 others, railroad traffic here is paralyzed today. The gale was followed by a heavy snow which is blockading all trains. Untold suffering among farmers has already resulted by the unexpected storm and hundreds of head of livestock have probably perished.
