A relic of some unknown age was brought to this office this week by C. F. Krogel, of Dixonville. It was found on his farm six miles east of this city. It is a double-edged blade of hammered copper, over three feet in length and about four inches in width at its widest part. To all appearances it was a weapon of war belonging to some ancient race which perhaps inhabited this region in times long past, but bears no mark of any kind to indicate its origin. The weapon is hammered to a narrow neck near one end, evidently for a handle, while near the other end, where the blade is broadest, it is tapered somewhat abruptly to a point. When found the weapon bore evidences of having been reinforced by heavy strips of wood bound along each side. At the hilt each edge bears a series of notches rudely hacked therein—possibly a crude yet striking record of the number of victims slain by its savage wielder. The weapon was found by Mr. Krogel near the bank of Deer Creek, imbedded under about two feet of black soil which overlays the clay foundation or subsoil of that region. Near it were found several flintstone arrowheads and a broken stone mortar and stone pestle, such as were used by the Indian tribes at the time white people first came to Oregon. No bones were found to indicate an Indian grave, however. The most puzzling feature is where the Indians obtained such a weapon, if, indeed, it is an Indian relic. Some native copper, in small pieces, has been picked up in recent years in the Brushy Butte district, a few miles from where this discovery was made, but we have never before heard of its being put into use by the aboriginal tribes for weapons or otherwise.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers, rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

Had a Close Call.

Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom hotel, Vaughn, Miss., says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I began taking it, and three bottles affected a complete cure." The fame of this life-saving cough and cold remedy, and lung and throat healer is world wide. Sold at A. C. Marsters & Co's. drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

For a reliable cough remedy use Marsters' Cough Balsam. Oyster season is opened. Olympia or Eastern in any style and the right kind of style at J. Falbe's restaurant near the S. P. depot. Open day and night. Clean, private home. Short orders a specialty. Regular dinners. dtf

MONUMENT FOR R. ROBERTSON.

Steps have been taken by members of Philatelic Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F., of this city, toward the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of their late leader and co-worker, Robert Robertson. Members of other lodges of which Mr. Robertson was a member will be invited to participate in the erection of this memorial. A committee consisting of O. J. Lindsey, chairman; Albert Abraham, secretary; W. T. Wright, treasurer; F. E. Cavender, W. B. Hammitte and L. Wimberly, was named by the lodge to get this movement started in definite form. While no special design for such a monument has yet been decided upon, it is probable that a fine monolith costing approximately $500 will be selected. Besides the $100 provided from the monument fund by the Head Camp, Woodmen of the World, it is probable that the necessary amount will be raised by personal donations of the members of the I. O. O. F., Rebekah, Woodmen of the World and Maecabeh lodges and the railroad men and other citizens as a token of their appreciation of the life work of Mr. Robertson toward the betterment of humanity. No one will be barred who desires to contribute to this memorial to a good man, who is sadly missed in this community.
