TO VOTE IS LEGAL; ANYTHING ELSE IS DANGEROUS.

It is unlawful on election day:— To hire vehicles to haul voters to and from the polls; To hire anyone to work at the polls except to challenge persons not qualified to vote;

To wear any political badge or insignia at the polls; To distribute cards or campaign literature at the polls; or to work at the polls in any way to influence voters;

To do anything to influence voters. Under the terms of Oregon's new corrupt practices act, passed by the people in June, the presidential election November 3 will be just a plain election, without any frills—nothing but the polls, the election board and the voters. The time-honored gauntlet of political workers handing out cards, which the voter has always had to run, is now illegal.

The reluctant voter who has waited for his party enthusiasts to hunt him out and take him to the polls in a carriage or hack, must walk, pay car fare or stay away. No person is permitted to use any effort at the polls or away from them, on election day, to influence the vote of any one. Some sections of the corrupt practices act relating to election day follow:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to pay another for any loss or damage due to attendance at the polls, or in registering, or for the expense of transportation to or from the polls.

"No person shall pay for personal service to be performed on the day of any election, for any purpose connected therewith, except for the hiring of persons whose sole duty is to act as challengers, and watch the count of official ballots.

"No person shall buy, sell, give or provide any political badge, button or other insignia to be worn at or about the polls on the day of any election, and no such political badge, button or other insignia shall be worn at or about the polls on any election day.

"It shall be unlawful for any person at any place on the day of any election to ask, solicit or in any manner try to induce or persuade any voter on such election day to vote for or refrain from voting for any candidates or the candidates or ticket of any political party or organization."

The last section above quoted would prohibit the banners, heretofore common, bearing the legend "Vote the Straight Republican Ticket." In fact, this section prohibits all political activities on election day which would in any manner tend to influence a voter as to how he should vote.—Ex.

UNIVERSITY MEN FOR BRYAN.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 25.—A sensation was sprung last night when Professor E. A. Ross of the university faculty, a lifetime Republican, came out for Bryan and declared that when President Roosevelt went out of power the old republican organization of the old Hanna trust gains will come into leadership. He took issue with Professor W. A. Scott head of the banking department of the university, on the guaranty of bank deposits and declared the republican idea "shows that the Taft party is more in sympathy with stockholders than with depositors."

Professor Ross and Fred M. Miner formerly assistant secretary of state during the administration of Governor LaFollette, appeared before the Bryan-Kern club of the university last night and declared that they made a thorough study of the platforms of all parties and "had come to the conclusion that democratic success this fall would be for the greatest good of the country." Both urged the students to vote for Bryan and Kern.

Straw Votes in Portland.

Portland Journal: Bryan, 261. Taft, 169. Hagen, 2. Debs, 1. That's the way the vote for the last three days stands at a Washington street cigar store. The store is located at 325 Washington street, just above Sixth, and is conducted by Erkman and Shepherd. A sign hangs in front of the store and every one who comes to cast a straw ballot is permitted to do so. The straw vote has been conducted for three days and during that time 432 votes have been cast by customers and passersby.

"I had no idea that the vote would go that way," said one of the proprietors this morning, "but that's the way it stands. It just shows how the silent vote is going to go."

A straw ballot was taken on the train going to Roseburg a few days ago, which resulted as follows: Bryan 37, Taft 4. Many of those who voted were staunch republicans, but declared that they were not in favor of having a president thrust upon them. On the steamer Lurline, plying between Portland and Astoria, a vote was taken by one of the officers yesterday among the passengers. Bryan received 12 votes, Taft 5 and Debs 4.

WHAT HIGH TARIFF DOES.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 28.—In 1907 William McGee, a farmer, purchased in Sheridan, Or., a Deering binder. The price paid was $145.

About the same season of the year, Lewis McGhie, a brother of William McGee, of Sheridan, Or., purchased the same kind of a Deering binder in Aberdeenshire, Scotland.

The binder was made in the United States, of course. It had to be shipped to New York, which is just about as far from the factory as Sheridan, Or. Then it was sent on to Scotland. The Mr. McGhie living near Aberdeenshire paid $90 for the machine he purchased. The machines were exactly the same in every particular—except the price.

In Scotland the binder cost $55 less than in the United States and within only 1800 miles or so of the factory.

There's a reason, of course—the high protective tariff.

STOUGHTON JONES DEAD.

Drove Stage From Canyonville South in Pioneer Days.

Medford (Or.) Mail: Stoughton P. Jones an old and respected pioneer of Jacksonville, died Monday, October 26, at his home in Jacksonville of heart trouble, aged 77 years.

Mr. Jones was born in Pennsylvania, May 25, 1831. He came to Oregon in 1856, settling in Jacksonville, where his home has been ever since. In 1866 he was married to Miss Elizabeth V. Twogood, a native of New York, who survives him.

Mr. Jones is known as the oldest stage driver in the country, having for nearly 20 years driven the stage over the old Hedding-Jacksonville-Canyonville stage route. He was an upright, conscientious man and is spoken of by his old-time associates as being a man who never spoke ill of any one and who had no enemies.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Arthur J. Davies of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Louise J. Jones, of Jacksonville.

Interment was made in the Jacksonville cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Robert Ennis of the Presbyterian church.

CRUSHED IN RUNAWAY.

Head of Oregon Foresters May Die of His Injuries.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 28.—A. L. Brown, head engineer of the Salem Water company, was crushed under the hoofs of a runaway team this morning and perhaps fatally injured, though hopes of his recovery are entertained tonight. Brown is widely known in Oregon as grand chief ranger of the Order of Foresters, and is prominent in work of the Odd-Fellows' fraternity.

Brown has been badly crippled for years because of accidents sustained, but rides a bicycle well. This morning as he was riding his wheel on Commercial street, a Chinese gardener's team became frightened at an automobile and ran toward him from behind.

A warning shout caused him to turn just in time to be trampled under the feet of the horses. Two of the wheels of the heavily-loaded wagon passed over his legs. A bad kick over his left eye, deep lacerations across his scalp and face and a kick in the abdomen were the most serious injuries. Even though he should recover, he will be disfigured for life.

SEATTLE GETS McCausland.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 28.—Rev. C. L. McCausland, for the past year presiding elder of the Willamette district of the M. E. Church, South, has been assigned to the First M. E. church, South, of Seattle, and will leave in a few days from Corvallis, Or., for his new charge. Rev. McCausland came from Missouri to California about 15 years ago, and has been in Oregon four years.

OREGON NEWS.

The question whether or not Grants Pass, as a municipality, should purchase and operate the plant of the Rogue River Water & Power company was turned down by a heavy majority at a special election in that city Tuesday.

The question in that city Tuesday. The question at issue was not so much of municipal ownership as of the advisability of the city's buying an old and worn-out water plant.

David Smith, a logger, while drunk, was run over by a street car in Salem, Wednesday, and injured so badly that he will die.

At Sheburn, Linn county, Wednesday, the 3-year-old daughter of Newton Crabtree fell into a tub of scalding hot water and was burned so badly that her recovery is doubtful.

The organization of a County Good Roads league was the direct outcome of a successful meeting attended by nearly every business man of La Grande Wednesday. For two hours every business house in the city was closed so the proprietors could go to the meeting. The new league will secure a list of petitioners and arm with it will appeal to the county court for liberal appropriations to better the county roads.

ANOTHER "MODEL" DAILY.

Mary Baker Eddy and Assistants to Start a Newspaper.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy and her assistants propose a daily newspaper designed to reach the ideal of what a Christian newspaper should be. The title for the publication will be: "The Christian Science Monitor." It will be published in this city.

According to the announcement which appears in the Christian Science Journal, the publication is designed to be an up-to-date newspaper and all the news of the day will be published.

"This news will be handled in a clean, wholesome manner, devoid of sensational methods," says the announcement, "and there will be no exploitation or illustration of vice and crime. The aim of the editors is to make the new paper acceptable in every home where purity and refinement are cherished as ideals."

In addition to the news features, the paper will contain special departments devoted to subjects and views for the betterment of the human race morally and spiritually.

Don't miss "The Cattle Rustlers," at the Crescent tonight. do29 The Review does job printing.

CALL FOR COUNTY WARRANTS. NOTICE is hereby given all parties holding county warrants issued by Douglas County, Oregon, and endorsed prior to and including the 9th day of September, 1907, to present the same to the county treasurer of Douglas County, Oregon, at his office for payment as interest will cease thereon after the date of this notice.

Dated at Roseburg, Oregon, this 12th day of October, 1908. J. E. SAWYERS, Treas. of Douglas Co., Oregon.

Bad Symptoms. The woman who has periodical head aches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or quacks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, frequent urination and itching with or without urticaria, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not resolve fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and unbroken record of curing such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional endorsement as does this. It is the only medicine that has cured more than any other, and has been used by millions of women. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence to be held as strictly private and secretly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by names, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at A. C. Marsters & Co's drug store.
