EDENBOWER NEWS.

Everybody busy—no one idle here. People forging right ahead, working all the year.

Seed time and harvest time, not an idle hour.

Not a shirk to speak of here, out at Edenbower.

Mr. Hulbert, who worked so zealously for a P. O. here and has been rewarded for his efforts, is now talking canny. "The first stroke is half the battle." Who will set the ball a-rolling?

Mrs. Watson Davis, who has been very ill with neuralgia, is much better.

Mrs. Helen Ferguson has returned home from Portland.

Rev. Graffens, the new M. E. minister, preached his first sermon at the Edenbower church last Sunday, to a well filled house. I heard a minister say (and a fitting remark) that it was the empty benches in the church that was hindering Christianity.

Don't tell anybody, but we had ripe strawberries from our Excelsiors for dinner on Oct. 4th. Here is food for thought on May 4th we sold our first berries from these vines; on July 4th we had berries yet for market; there are ripe berries still on the vines, and on Nov. 4th, which will cover a period of six months, I expect to find enough for dessert for the successful candidate for president of the U. S.

School's progressing nicely.

So the children say. Don't seem hardly possible—

Two months passed away. Haven't been to visit school. Neither, sir, have you.

I'm going to print the visitors' Next month in The Review.
