FOR HONEST POLITICS. Bryan Issues Appeal for Many Needed Public Reforms.

WESTCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 31.—W. J. Bryan, the democratic candidate, in winding up his tour of the state today, made public the following:

Appeal to the Public: As the campaign draws to a close certain issues stand out clearly. The democratic party attempts to inaugurate an era of honesty in politics by compelling the publication of campaign contributions before the election. It seeks to bring the government nearer the people by securing the election of United States senators by direct vote. It seeks to restore competition through legislation which will make a private monopoly impossible. It seeks to reconcile labor and capital by legislation which will bring the employer and employe together in co-operation, and to this end it proposes the creation of a department of labor, with a Secretary of Labor in the cabinet; an amendment to the anti-trust law which will exclude the labor organizations from the operation of that law; the limitation of the writ of injunction so that it will not be issued in a labor dispute unless conditions are such as would justify an injunction even if there were no labor dispute, and trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt.

It seeks to secure legislation which will create a guarantee fund sufficient to insure all bank depositors against loss. It seeks to secure a reduction of the tariff by gradual steps until the tariff laws will no longer be made in the interest of the few and at the expense of the rest of the people.

The democratic party, in other words, seeks to secure honesty in government through honest policy, and popular government through direct elections. It desires to secure peace in industry, competition in trade, security to depositors and justice to taxpayers.

The democratic party appeals to the awakened conscience of the nation and the sense of justice in the human heart, and to the growing desire of brotherhood.

With a democratic victory for the national ticket, with a democratic congress, and with the moral force of a popular verdict, I believe we can compel the senate to yield to the expressed will of the people and permit the passage of the more urgent of the reforms.

The democratic party offers the only prospect of remedial legislation, and while not doing as much as some reformers would like, a democratic victory will secure as much of reform as is now attainable—in fact, the only reform that is within reach. We have a right to expect, therefore, the co-operation of those who favor the reforms set forth in our platform.

The attempt to terrorize the American voter by the threat of a panic will not succeed. We have had three panics in 48 years—the panic of 1873, the panic of 1893 and the panic of 1907—and two of these panics came under the high tariff, and each of them came under republican presidents. Mr. Taft says that a panic will come if I am elected. Let him give bond that this panic will go if he is elected. When he says that a democratic victory will bring a panic, he expresses an opinion. When I say that a disastrous panic came last fall without waiting for a democratic victory, I state a fact that cannot be disputed. Our platform has a plan for restoration of prosperity upon a permanent basis—a prosperity in which all will share. The republican party has no plan that contemplates either the present relief or the continued welfare of the people.

The republican candidate has the prestige that comes from the fact that his party is in power. He has the aid of an army of office-holders; he has the support of all the monopolies and law destroying trusts; he has a large campaign fund, the source of which his committee refuses to disclose, and most of the leading newspapers are with him and the interests which he represents. I insist that it is not fair for the president to use his office—an office that belongs to all the people—as if it were a party asset, or a personal asset, and drag it into the campaign. It offends the sense of justice and ought to arouse a protest from those who believe that in the selection of the Chief Executive the people should be absolutely free to choose whom they please.

REPUBLICANS HOWL CALAMITY

Seek to Destroy Public Confidence in Futile Effort to Defeat Bryan.

Facing inevitable defeat and with a full knowledge of the fact that Bryan's election is as certain as anything reasonably can be in politics, the Republicans have been forced to resort to the last refuge of political cowards—to the calamity howl. They are now engaged in telling the country that panic and ruin will follow the election of Mr. Bryan. Instead of being patriotic citizens anxious to restore business confidence—a confidence which has been lost under a Republican administration—to subserve their own political selfish purposes they are vainly endeavoring to prolong the present business depression. The question naturally suggests itself: Why is it necessary to restore confidence? Why is it necessary to bring back business prosperity? What has become of confidence, what has become of prosperity? Both, under a Republican administration, have disappeared. Why is another Republican administration necessary to insure a return of confidence and prosperity?

The very same men who, today, are going about the country still further destroying confidence by preaching calamity, are the men who, four years ago said that the Republican party might be successful in order that there might be prosperity. The Republican party was successful, but instead of bringing prosperity it brought panic, business depression and commercial stagnation. Whatever may be said of the present panic, it cannot be denied that it is a Republican panic. The Republican party is in full possession of the government and must accept the responsibility. How, then, can a continuation of the Republican party in power cure the evils from which the business community and the laboring man now suffer? Let the Republicans howl about their own panic, and not make false predictions about what will happen under a Democratic administration. They predicted prosperity four years ago, and proven false prophets. Why, then, should any sane man accept their predictions now when they say that Bryan's election would bring business troubles. Business troubles are already here. What business men want is a cure for them, not a prolongation of the disease by the same sort of treatment which has produced the ailment.

Because business men and laboring men both know that a Republican administration has produced panic, they will not be deceived again by these false cries of Republican calamity howlers. They know that William Jennings Bryan is an honest man; they know that he will give the public an honest administration. They know that the calamity howl is for the sole purpose of deception.

RAILROAD EMPLOYES VS. MR. TAFT.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' Journal, in May, 1893, said: "Judge Taft's decision proclaims members of the B. of L. E. a band of conspirators." Also, "We can not accept Judge Taft's decision in any other light than treason to republican institutions and the liberties of the people. It is, will be, and ought to be denounced and repudiated by all liberty loving men." The impudent falsehood that trusts and monopolies cheapen products and benefit the consumer is disproved by the fact that the price of commodities controlled by these monsters has been arbitrarily increased for no cause except to pay dividends on fictitious capital by methods that make larceny respectable. —Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls.

FARMERS RESENT COERCION

Resolutions Passed by Indiana Tollers Condemn Statements of President Sharples — Endless Chain Among Farmers. Chairman Mack was informed by wire today that at a meeting of representative farmers of Washington township, Marion county, Indiana, the following resolutions were adopted, and it was also agreed to form an endless chain among the farmers of the country:

Whereas, The Associated Press has sent out a statement issued by P. M. Sharples, president of the Sharples Separator Company of Westchester, Pa., saying that the hour Bryan is elected the Sharples works will close down, and

Whereas, Such statements as this will intensify the present financial panic and will also tend to bring on, if possible, other and greater financial calamity; therefore, be it

Resolved, That as farmers who have the good of our country at heart, we deeply deplore such unwarranted statements, and believing they are made for partisan purposes to intimidate and influence voters, we herewith denounce all firms making this and similar announcements, as narrow and bigoted, and in these times as disloyal to the best business interests of the nation, and in as much as the persons and firms now resorting to these unfair and unparliamentary methods maintain their businesses by patronage of democrats as well as republicans, we condemn these methods as an insult to any democratic patron which ought to be, and which we hope will be, resented.

Resolved, That we hereby call upon the farmers of the nation, irrespective of party, who believe in fair play, to unite with us through their organizations and as individuals, in crushing out this unwise and indiscreet spirit which would sacrifice the country's welfare for party success. (Signed) Albert Blue, Chairman; Ross B. Ludlow, secretary.

RHOADS INFANT DIES.

Ernest Elias, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhoads, of this city, died Sunday evening, Nov. 1, 1908, aged one month. The cause of death is a complete mystery, the infant having never been ill a minute since its birth. The theory is advanced, however, that it may have accidentally smothered itself. The funeral was held from the family home at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. E. H. Hicks. Interment occurred in Odd Fellows' cemetery.
