MADE DRUNK; ASSAULTED.

16-Year-Old Girl of Myrtle Point is Victim of Three Men.

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., Nov. 17.—Charged with one of the most revolting crimes in Myrtle Point's history, Imlis Rose, Joseph Williams and T. Kinnicut were arrested here. Rose and Williams have been bound over to the grand jury and Kinnicut will be taken before the county court.

The complaining witness is Miss Lillian Endicott, the 16-year-old daughter of W. W. Endicott, the Myrtle Point blacksmith. She claims and it is supported by other evidence that the three youths took her out for a ride, pled her with liquor and then assaulted her. The liquor occurred a week ago Saturday night, between Myrtle Point and Coquille, but the matter did not become public for a time owing to the authorities endeavoring to get the young men in custody.

Rose and Kinnicut were arrested late Saturday evening and Williams was caught while proceeding to Roseburg on horseback. The three youths belong to prominent families. Rose is 20 years old, Williams 22 and Kinnicut 17. As the latter is under 18 he will probably escape with a sentence to the reform school if the charges made by Miss Endicott are proven.

Williams and Rose were bound over $500 and $700 bonds, respectively.

MONEY PLENTIFUL.

Money is indeed plentiful when such opportunities for investment are offered as are now presented by the Elber's Piano House to the citizens of Roseburg. Eleven pianos sold in seven days is the most convincing proof. $154.00 to $258.00 may be saved by buying now. Sale lasts only four more days. Taylor & Wilson block, next to Kabat's cigar factory.

Now is the time to visit California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—natural summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.
