STEAMERS CRASH

European Liner Cuts Panama Steamer in Two.

SEVERAL LIVES WERE LOST

Harriman and Hill Make Peace—Hays Loses Marathon Race—Attell Loses to Welsh.

Special to the Evening Review. NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—It is feared that many lives were lost this morning when a White Star liner ran down and sank the Panama Co's steamer Finance off Sandy Hook. One report says the big liner had been lying off the Hook for two days trying to make entrance to this port in the heavy fog that has been hanging over the entrance to the lower bay. The steamer Finance is said to have been cut in two by the terrific crash when the collision occurred. Owing to the difficulties of navigation in the fog it is very difficult to obtain details of the disaster. Later reports say that eight passengers are missing and several members of the crew of the Finance were drowned. The vessel carried 80 passengers.

Square Deal for Negro. WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—President Roosevelt today, in delivering an address at the corner-stone laying of the Y. M. C. A. building for negroes, made an earnest plea for a square deal in America's future treatment of the colored race. He made the distinction that it was not for social equality that he was arguing, but the "equality of treatment before the law and equality of opportunity to earn a living." He insisted ed that "performance of duty should be the test applied to the white and colored man alike."

Lumbermen to File Complaint. SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 25.—Northwest lumber manufacturers will shortly file a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission asking the commission to give lumber and shingle shippers the full benefit of the original order of the commission made June 2. This information was brought here by A. F. Specht, secretary of the joint trade committee of the Pacific Coast Lumber Manufacturers' Association, who has just returned from the east, where he conferred with W. A. Wimbish, special counsel for the lumbermen in their fight for maintenance of freight rates.

ALSO DAY OF PEACE. Harriman and Hill to Develop Branch Railway Lines.

Special to the Evening Review. CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Reports are in circulation here today that Harriman and Hill, the big railway magnates, have buried the hatchet of antagonism and are figuratively smoking the pipe of peace. It is announced that the Harriman and Hill lines will proceed harmoniously hereafter with the development of branch lines of road for feeders for their big systems, instead of fighting each other for territory, as in the past. J. P. Morgan is said to be the pacemaker.

Sailors Ashore at Manila. MANILA, Nov. 26.—The general Thanksgiving rejoicing here today is enhanced by the fact that 1500 blue jackets from the Atlantic fleet are ashore and enjoying the city's hospitality for the first time since the arrival of the fleet. The city is beautifully decorated and all places are free except those districts recently infested with plague.

Hays Loses Marathon. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—John J. Hayes was defeated by Pietri Dorando in the repetition of the great Marathon race here last night. Hayes finishing the 26-miles run 60 yards behind. The time was 2 hours, 44 minutes, 29 2-5 seconds, being better than the Olympic record in London, which race was won by Hayes. The outcome here was no surprise to those who have watched the career of Hayes since he returned from London.

Welsh Beats Attell. LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Abe Attell, who lost the 15-round fight with Freddie Welsh, the Englishman, attributes his defeat to the fact that he injured his hand while training and also worked off too much flesh. Welsh was given the decision as being Attell's master in the fight.

RUBY BRADEN SUICIDES. Creature of Roseburg's Half World Jumps Into Coos Bay.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 25.—Ruby Braden, 23 years old, committed suicide by jumping off a gasoline boat on Coos Bay late this afternoon. Search is being made for the body. The woman came here a few days ago from Roseburg.

The suicide was an unfortunate creature of the lower world, and most of her time during the past two years in Roseburg was spent at the place familiarly referred to as the "High-Board Fence," on Main street. She was a divorcee, and came of a good family. Her parents live at Woodburn, Marion county.

ASHLAND FALLS IN LINE.

ASHLAND, Or., Nov. 25.—As a result of the good roads convention held here today a local organization to be known as the Ashland Good Roads League was organized with Benton Bowers as president; Emmett Beeson, of Talent, vice-president; C. H. Gillette, secretary, and C. A. Eliason, treasurer, to further the cause in this section in a systematic way.

Judge John H. Scott, of Salem, president of the State Good Roads League, was the principal speaker at the convention today. It was attended by many farmers from the surrounding country as well as by townspeople generally.

$51,250 RAISED IN 7 DAYS.

Eugene's Banner Movement Insures a Y. M. C. A. Building.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 25.—The campaign for the $50,000 Y. M. C. A. building closed this evening when the soliciting committee met, at headquarters and reported $51,205.57. Donations that came in during the meeting brought the amount up to $51,250.

The people of Eugene have given with a will. The work has been done in seven days, and when the meeting was over and the crowd went out on the street a great cheer went up as the Y. M. C. A. clock hand was turned past the $51,000 mark. The city had raised an average of at least $25 for every man in Eugene. Men who had never contributed to anything before gave their mite, and generous men gave more. The work for a Young Men's Christian Association has been the greatest thing done by the city in years, and has enlisted the largest number of supporters of any movement which Eugene has ever taken up.

GETS COLD RECEPTION.

Scott-Fulton Clique Find Pledge on Senator Will be Kept.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 25.—Discovering that the move was not popular, the people who proposed circulating petitions urging Statement No. 1 members of the legislature to violate their pledge and not vote for George E. Chamberlain have abandoned the plan, at least temporarily. The petition blanks have been printed, but are not in circulation. The proposition did not meet with that degree of enthusiasm expected by the Antis and there is a strong likelihood of the petitions finally being entirely abandoned.

Another reason why the petitions are not meeting with success is that the Antis have discovered the Statement men are rapidly coming to a realization of the political game that the Antis are framing up and that the Statement men are getting together to control the organization of both House and Senate. The agreement to stand together and support only a Statement man for Speaker is receiving many signatures and several out-of-town representatives have made special trips to Portland for the express purpose of signing it.

From the way in which the agreement is now being signed, there is every prospect for its success and a mutual understanding among the Statement men is being arrived at.

Statement men say that the people who would sign the petition are the people who voted for the Antis in the primaries, and that under these circumstances, the Statement members are under no obligations whatever to signers. For these and a few other reasons, the petitions are being shelved, and not even sent into circulation.

OF INTEREST TO ROSEBURG

Pavement Cannot be Guaranteed For Any Length of Time.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 25.—That the city will do away with the maintenance bids for hard surface improvements is apparent, as it has been decided in the Supreme Court that no company laying a hard surface pavement shall guarantee a pavement for any length of time. Herebefore the city has been declaring the life of several of the types of hard surface improvements to be 10 years and accepting maintenance bids of 2 1/2 cents a square yard for maintaining the pavements in good repair each year. This would amount to 25 cents a square yard during the life of the pavement, and in this city where so many streets are being paved with hard surface pavements, the sum required each year for maintenance has become enormous. It is argued that this maintenance is nothing but a present to the paving companies.

NEW PENSIONS GRANTED.

THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL.

WE SHOULD BE THANKFUL.

We should be thankful every day for life and its unnumbered blessings—for what we call the common things of life as expressed in the following lines: "For the mother's look of grace, For the baby's little face, For the morning's smile of bliss, For the happy good-night kiss, For the cherry bells that swing, And for freedom's peal and ring, For the nation's peace and wealth, For our gladness and our health, For the flowers and for the wheat, For the cold and for the heat, For the fruit and for the grain, For the sunshine and the rain."

MEDFORD KEEPS GOING.

Medford Tribune: At a meeting of the Commercial Club Wednesday morning the contract was closed with W. Little Wells, representing Sunset Magazine, for $2770 for 50,000 2-cent booklets printed in three colors, the finest pamphlet ever put out by any town in publicity work. In addition, 30,000 pamphlets, similar to these printed this summer, with colored Newtown apple cover, will be issued at once to take the place of the old Medford pamphlet, which is exhausted.

GOVT. GETS LEMON.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 25.—Richard Jones was found not guilty of the charge of cutting timber on government land near Grants Pass by a jury in the Federal court yesterday afternoon after less than 10 minutes' deliberation. The complaint was entered by Inspector Stoner. The defendant said he was complying with the law as to homesteads, the land having been taken up by his father, who is dead, and that he was waiting for his patent.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to colds," says Mrs. Wm. H. Serig, No. 41 Fifth St., Wheeling, W. Va. "Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough, but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup." This remedy is for sale by Hamilton Drug Co.
