EVENING ROSEBURG REVIEW

NOVEMBER 27, 1908.

Matinees every afternoon at The Crescent. 5c.
It is said that President Benjamin Ide Wheeler may resign from the University of California to become the head of the great Michigan Institution at Ann Arbor. It is learned that President R. B. Angell, the venerable head of the Michigan State University, has tendered his resignation and that the board of regents is looking about for a successor and have made offers to President Wheeler. Dr. Wheeler is now in Ann Arbor, where he is in consultation with the governing board of the University.

WILGROW.
The new fertilizer. Nothing but fish. Guaranteed analysis: Seven per cent nitrogen, six per cent potash, 18 per cent phosphoric acid.
One 25-pound sack of Wilgrow, used in the place of 12½ tons of best stable manure, will give better results and no weeds. Try it for your lawn.

The framework of the new rooming house being erected by J. W. Poole on south Jackson street, north of the high school, is in place and will soon be under roof. This will be a 15-room structure and we understand the rooms are nearly all rented in advance, showing the great demand for living accommodations in our city.
Stops carache in two minutes, the toothache or pain or burn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness, one hour; muscleache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, monarch over pain.
Ashland Record: J. V. Robinson, who conducted a blind pig in the Roseburg Brewery block in 1904, and who was indicted for perjury in furnishing an affidavit containing lies in a city election that year, skipped out of Merrill, Klamath county, the day that a warrant was being telephoned charging him with being guilty of blind pigging at Merrill. He left for Nevada. He escaped arrest on account of the telephone wires being crossed for several hours before the telephone instructions from the sheriff could be completed.

INTERNATIONAL STOCK SHOW.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Smashing all world records in the number of entries, and with a prize list of $75,000, the ninth annual International Live Stock Show opened today an exhibition of blue-blooded horses, hogs, cattle and sheep such as has never before been seen anywhere.
The show will last until December 10, and an attendance of nearly a million people is anticipated. The International Live Stock Show is by far the greatest of its kind in the world and this year it will surpass itself.

Remarkable about the list this year is the number of entries received from Canada. All of the stock raising centers of the United States are also well represented.
