Poultry on the Farm.

When we speak of profit in poultry on the farm we mean not only profit in chickens, but likewise in turkeys and ducks. The rearing and successful handling of each is a study, but there is no reason why there should not be farms on which ducks are reared exclusively with a profit, and the same thing is true of turkeys. Just as one farmer devotes his attention to pure bred cattle, another to hogs and another to horses. If the poultry pens are small and the poultry is continually confined, it will pay to spend up a part of the ground each day and in each pen and give the poultry an opportunity to scratch. Besides the worms which will be found in the ground and which alone are worth the spading, the exercise obtained by the fowls in scratching will be worth while. Poultry must have exercise, and the natural exercise is that of scratching.—Farmers Advocate.

How to Transplant Small Trees.

A small tree or any shrub may be successfully transplanted at any season or at any stage of growth in the following way: Dig a trench entirely around the tree, a foot or more in width and a little deeper, leaving the roots imbedded in a ball of earth. Fill the trench with wet cement and leave undisturbed till it hardens. The tree may then be lifted and removed at pleasure. After placing it where it is to stand, break and remove the cement and immediately fill the space with earth.

How to Preserve Clothes Wringers.

When the rollers of your clothes wringer begin to break buy 5 cents' worth of bicycle tape and wind it around the rollers. Wind the tape carefully and snugly and then wind a piece of white cloth around the roller to cover the tape. A wringer which is treated in this manner will last twice as long as if treated in the usual way.

How to Thread Needles.

Persons with defective sight when threading the needle with white thread should hold it over something black and when threading with black thread hold it over something white. It also applies to threading the machine needle.

Now is the time to visit California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC CO.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. The rate from ROSEBURG, OREGON, to Los Angeles and return is $55.00.

Limit six months, allowing stop-overs in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.

For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write L. B. MOORE, Agent, OR Wm. McMurray, Gen. Pass. Agt. Portland, Oregon
