DECEMBER 22, 1908.

It is scarcely short of astonishing that the street paving movement came so near being killed outright during the session of the city council Monday night. Whether so realized by the councilmen or not, the attempt to change all the plans at this critical juncture and reopen the way to endless haggling over the kind of pavement to be laid, is the very scheme that is being worked by the opponents of any kind of paving being done and is their most effectual weapon for killing the movement entirely. There has been altogether too much haggling already, and The Review sincerely believes that Roseburg has already lost more than $25,000— which is the total of the proposed bond issue—by not getting the paving work started last fall, as planned. The councilmen who opposed the bond issue should let the fact penetrate their minds that the people of Roseburg are decidedly in favor of street paving and are not in any mood to stand any further "rag chewing" over the several kinds of pavement proposed. The contract agreed upon last fall was for the same kind of paving that is being laid in Eugene, Salem and Medford, and the price was less per square yard than is being paid in any of those places. Therefore there is no argument to be offered on the question of economy. These other towns have tried the bitulthic pavement and are so well pleased that they are putting in more of it just as fast as they can get it done, and are paying more for it than the Roseburg contract specifies. Full credit should be given to those councilmen and the mayor who stood for and finally put through the paving ordinance Monday night. Those who opposed it are being widely and vigorously condemned.

BEAN HAS NOT WITHDRAWN.

Eugene Guard: Today's Oregonian contains a column article in which it is stated that Louis E. Bean, of this city, has given up the fight for the speakership of the next house of representatives in the Oregon legislature. Mr. Bean, when interviewed upon the subject by a Guard reporter this morning, was emphatic in his denial of the truth of the story. He said:

"There is absolutely nothing in it whatever. I haven't withdrawn and have no intention of doing so. I am still in the race for the speakership and intend to stay in until it is finally determined." In regard to that portion of the Oregonian article stating that Mr. Bean agreed, in return for the support of the standpatners, to give them the chairmanship of a third of the house committee, he said: "That is an absolute lie. I have never promised anything in the way of chairmanships or anything of the kind whatever. I am in favor of the 'forty' caucus and in my judgment it will be secured. I am working in the interest of the caucus and fully expect that every Republican in the house, will go into the caucus."

A NEW MEAT FOR THE MILLIONS.

By cross-breeding buffalo and cattle, Charles Goodright, a Western cattleman, claims to have created a new meat which will feed the millions—according to the January American Magazine, which contains all the facts. Eleanor Gates writes the story. In private life she is Mrs. Richard Tully, wife of the dramatist

"The Blood is 'The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, and many an evil deed or impure thought can be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Pure, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. It is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pilelets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

who wrote "The Rose of Rancho." A short time ago she visited Mr. Goodright on his ranch and got the article. Following is a brief extract:

"Every plainsman of olden times knew that the very buffaloes which were contesting the ranges with the domestic animals had none of the latter's shortcomings. On the contrary, they possessed a number of excellent traits that the tame bovines lacked. When a healthy, that former of 'white faces' and 'longhorns,' buzzed about a buffalo, the latter tucked his feet under him, lay complacently chewing his cud, and let Mr. Heedly-by. When a pack of lobos came looking for a succulent buffalo calf, they seldom got one. For the wild herd was smart enough to bivaouac in such a manner that the babies might be protected. The little ones were gathered together at the center of the camp-ground. The mothers settled down in a circle that enclosed their progeny. And another and outer circle was formed by the watchful fathers. (All of which proved that a buffalo had better instinct, or reason, than a steer.) And buffaloes were heavier than cattle, having fourteen ribs in place of thirteen, but a smaller weight of viscera. They were doubly long-lived. Moreover, on a given quantity of grazing-land, a large number of them could live well, while the same number of cattle would drop weight and take to useless wandering. For killing, the buffaloes, owing to the fact that they had never been used as beasts of burden, possessed cellular tissues of fat like that of other wild cattle, and their flesh was better marbled than the best beef-breeds of domestic herds or, in other words, there were no alternating muscular streaks of lean and fat in their carcasses, which characterize animals that have been used for working purposes throughout generations. When hung, they produced excellent meat, and enough fat for good eating but less tallow, by one hundred pounds, than a steer two-thirds the size. And lastly, they possessed a hump, provided with semi-flesh and fat, upon which their system drew for nutriment at a pinch. So that, in periods of drought, when food was scarce, buffaloes could go both hungry and thirsty for a considerable length of time and still retain their thriftiness. And as for the ordinary cold that could make a bunch of steers miserable, they paid small attention to it. They took a storm 'front on,' like a gallant ship, letting the wind tug at the natural mules with which nature had endowed them and flutter the long, thick hair of their ragged pantaloons."

"Now, Goodnight, the cattleman set these contra-cattle and pro-buffalo observation up against each other, and saw that if, by cross-breeding, he could add to the cattle the desirable qualities of the buffalo, he would have a new hybrid that might possess the best traits of both. Doubtless the problem would never have occurred to an ordinary cattleman. But, as James Adair, the cap-

ROSE THREE YEARS, AND WILLIAMS TWO YEARS.

Assaulted Myrtle Point Girl—Man Who Sold Them Whiskey Fined $250 by Judge Hamilton.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Dec. 19.—For selling to minors whiskey which caused two of them to go to the penitentiary, George Baxter, the keeper of a hotel and a bar room at Coquille, was fined $250 and costs. Rose, Williams and Kliment were found to have been drunk when they assaulted the Myrtle Point girl and it was further brought out in the trial that the whiskey was purchased from Baxter's place. This matter was brought to the notice of the grand jury and an indictment was returned against Baxter. He pleaded guilty before Judge Hamilton.

Rose, who was found guilty by a jury, and Williams, who pleaded guilty, were both sentenced yesterday by Judge Hamilton. Rose goes to the penitentiary for three years and Williams for two years. Sheriff Gage will take them to Salem in a few days. Kliment jumped his bail of $500.

Four indictments were returned by the grand jury but the arrests have not yet been made. Court Adjourns.

HARRY THAW LINES IN COURT OF APPEALS.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21.—Harry Kendall Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, confined in the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan cannot be taken to Pittsburgh to testify in his bankruptcy proceedings, according to a decision handed down today by the United States circuit court of appeals, of this city. Whether the case will be taken to the United States supreme court is not known here.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Hamilton Drug Co.

"One day," related Denny to his friend, Jerry, "when I had wandered too far inland on me shore leave I suddenly found that there was a grate big haythen, tin feet tall, chash! me wid a knife as long as yer arm. O took to me heels an' for fifty miles along the road we had it nip an' tuck. Tia O! turned into the woods an' we ran for one hundred an' twenty miles more, wid him a gainin' on me steady, owin' to his knowledge of the country. Finally, just as I could feel his hot breath burnin' on the back of me neck, we came to a big lake. Wid one great leap O landed safe on the other shore, leavin' me pursuer confounded an' impotent wid rage." "Faith, an' that was no great jump," commented Jerry, "consid'erin' the runnin' stharrt ye had."

A colored woman was brought before a West Virginia magistrate on the charge of inhuman treatment of her child. Evidence was clear that she had severely beaten the youngster, who was in court to exhibit his marks and bruises. Before imposing sentence the magistrate asked the woman if she had anything to say. "Kin Ah ask yo' honah a question?" His Honor nodded. "Well, then, yo' honah, I'd like to ask yo' whether yo' was ever de mother of a puffekly wuthless culled chile?"
