CASTRO IS RAGING

Gets "23" Sign From New Head of Venezuela

WARNED NEVER TO RETURN

Letter of Credit Cancelled—Gomez Now Acting President, With New Cabinet

Special to the Evening Review.
BERLIN, Dec. 23.—Cipriano Castro, the deposed president of Venezuela, was thrown into a furious rage today upon receiving by cable a copy of the proclamation of Gomez, the acting president, announcing that he had been overthrown and warning him that his property will be confiscated, and that if he attempts to return to Venezuela he will be arrested on the charge of embezzling public funds. The proclamation is signed by eighty prominent citizens, and marks the end of Castro's rule in Venezuela. Castro, the dictator, who has governed the republic with a rod of iron ever since he took forcible possession of the Yellow House in Caracas in 1899 is now openly charged with conspiracy to encompass the assassination of the man whom he left at the head of the republic when he sailed away on November 23 from La Guayra, nominally to secure skilled medical aid in Berlin for a malady of long standing, and is today thoroughly discredited.

been appointed by Juan Vicente Gomez, the acting president.

Guard U. S. Interests.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—It was announced at the war department today that the battalions North Carolina and Maine, which sailed Monday under sealed orders, are enroute to Venezuela to safeguard American interests in the present trouble between that country and Holland.

Bond Will Lose Suit.

PARIS, Dec. 23.—A decision favoring Princess DeSagan, formerly Anna Gould, in the suit brought by Count Bond, her former husband, for the custody of the children, is indicated today in an address before the public prosecutor, who recommended that the children be left with their mother.

A CHRISTMAS GREETING.

A Merry Christmas to you one and all, my dear members of our diocesan family. At this joyous season my heart goes out in loving greeting to all our clergy and laity, to the faithful in active city parish, to friends without the diocese, to the patient and sometimes discouraged workers in our distant missions, to ranchers far away who can have no opportunity to make their Christmas communions, to our Auxiliary women, and the dear children, to the occasional worshiper with us, and also to those baptized and confirmed members of our Father's family who rarely, if ever, "praise God in the congregation;"—to all may God in abundance give the cheer and consolations of the Christmas truth. How all thoughts of self, of our successes and failures, of the indifference of friends, of the unresponsiveness of fellow workers, of false judgments of our actions, and misinterpretations of our motives, take to themselves wings and fly away, and our hearts glow with joy and love when we meditate on the marvel of the Incarnation, on the great wonder of the Love of God. The world apart from Christ gives us no adequate assurance that God is Love, although Robert Browning has taught us to say "He that created love, shall He not love?" But that GOD IS LOVE—it is this that our Lord GUARANTEES. It is this love which furnishes the motive power to carry out the object of the Incarnation expressed in the command of Christ "As the Father hath sent me, even so send I you." The call of the Incarnation to you and me is personal and complete. We are asked to INVEST OURSELVES. The motive, after all, which must move the Church, is not proportionate giving or systematic giving, pious duty, or the crying needs of heathen at home or the heathen abroad. It is the example and direct command of the Incarnate Lord. The "as" and the "so" of that command are equal. His coming into the world cost Him poverty, persecution, agony and crucifixion. He gripped the world by renouncing it, and we must continue and complete His work as His commissioned ones, for He invests us with the same program of renunciation, and the same promise of victory. I call upon you, dear people, to INVEST YOURSELVES, body, soul and mind in the service of our Incarnate Master; then there will be no "missionary problem" and no lack of means for Church support. The Incarnation of the Son of God is not a speculation of the understanding. It is incomparably the greatest fact in the whole history of our race, and as such it imposes on us corresponding moral duties, so that it is no exaggeration to say,

"Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offspring far too small;
Love, so amazing, so Divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all."
Affectionately,
Your Bishop and fellow-servant in the Lord,
CHARLES SCADDING,
Bishop of Oregon.

NEAR-BEER FINE PAID.

PENDLETON, Or., Dec. 22.—Declaring that it would not be profitable to attempt longer to defy the City Council, Dee Matlock, who was arrested recently on a charge of selling near-beer without a license and who had declared he would carry his case to the highest court if necessary, this afternoon changed his plea from not guilty to guilty on two counts. He was sentenced to pay a $50 fine on one, while sentence on the other was suspended during good behavior. This is regarded as a signal victory for the city and an admission on the part of the saloon men that the city is in control of the situation.

Fire Drives 1,000 People Into Winter Storm—Harriman Heads For Hill's Territory

Special to the Evening Review.
PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 23.—President W. W. Ramsey, an ex-Cashier A. A. Vilsack, of the German National Bank, of this city, who, together with seven councilmen, were arrested yesterday on charges of bribery, were today held for trial under bonds of $15,000 each. It was learned today that the two men on last Saturday tendered their resignations as bank directors when a bank examiner discovered that they had arranged to pay a large sum of money to certain councilmen to secure the appointment of their bank as a depository for city funds.

Insurance Man Suicides.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The sensational insurance scandals of two years ago are believed to have claimed another victim today in the suicide of Frederick A. Burnham, former president of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, who inhaled gas in his apartments. Burnham's company was conspicuously involved in the investigations.

Providence's Mistake.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Over 1400 men, women and children, were driven from their burning homes in Brooklyn early this morning into an icy storm which was sweeping the streets and which is still raging. Scores of the unfortunates were overcome by smoke, while others became unconscious in the biting cold. Many are destitute. An entire block is badly damaged.

Union Pacific Extends.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 23.—J. D. Farrell, president of the Oregon and Washington Railroad, announced today that work on the road's depot in this city will be started immediately. Farrell has just returned from New York, where he went over the plans for extending the Union Pacific through its line from Vancouver to Seattle to Grays Harbor and Puget Sound.

KENTUCKY WIDOWS ARE DESERVING OF THE PRIZE.

(Polk County Itemizer.)
Since Uncle Bill Brown gave his famous birthday dinner to widows, he is receiving daily several letters from all parts of the United States, mostly written in a jovial vein, of which the following is an example: "258 East Broadway, Louisville, Ky., Dec. 3, 1908."
"Dear Mr. Brown:—Trusting that none of the widows carried off the prize at your recent banquet. I write to you in behalf of the Amalgamated Association of Kentucky Widows and request permission to enter its members in the matrimonial handicap. You have lost the time of your life, the very everyday existence, by not knowing our hand brand of widows, widows by death and by decree, some having their loss by insurance, some by alimony. They were bred in old Kentucky and are more mellow and intoxicating than its whiskey. They can set a swifter pace than its horses, and are sweeter than its mint beds, though not so green."
"The blue grass widow has inherited all the good and gracious gifts of nature, her satin skin excels the shining skin of the deer, you can light your cigar at her eyes and warm your hands at her heart, the roses pasture on her cheek, her lips are redder and sweeter than a slice of Georgia watermelon, while her hair is like light and dark Burley, her form displays more curves than a champion baseball pitcher. As our old friend Solomon would say, she is altogether lovely, not too good for the bad men too bad for the good. Killing our citizens in the closed season has thinned out our eligible bachelors and widowers, by deducting them from the census, and when the other widows and I read an account of your birthday feast in the papers and found that you were so rich you possibly just worked for spite, we determined to win and win you. Don't tell us we will have to wait a year for the next spread; make it a quarterly affair, and I am certain that when our committee waits upon the railroad people and demands a special rate for our trip to Oregon, the officials will railroad us through at once. We will travel in a private car adorned with postcards advertising any Delta stores that may have contracts with us, and you can depend upon it, your name, the simple name of Brown, will go stamping down the halls of fame."
"You will find us a chop suey of beauty, brains and wit, widows who

An Outside Vegetarian.

"If you are not an outside vegetarian you are not really a vegetarian at all." The speaker was a member of Philadelphia's little vegetarian church's uptown. An odd figure in his gray health shirt, gray ventilated suit, gray knit gloves, gray aerated hat, gray cloth boots, he continued: "An inside vegetarian is one who puts in his interior nothing that has been procured by the slaughter of animals. An outside vegetarian puts on his exterior nothing that has been procured by the slaughter of animals."

"Slipper Allum Tea."

The sidewalk stand, a soap box, was littered with rolls of brown bark, tobacco twigs and withered switches tied with twine. The proprietor, a brown and shriveled old-colored woman, sat on another box. A passing woman lingered to ask the old warty the meaning of her wares.

"When Her Back Aches."

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Roseburg women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of aching kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Roseburg woman's words:

Mrs. James Arrance, Pitzer St., Roseburg, Or., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved of such great benefit to me that I do not have any hesitancy in recommending them to anyone in need of such a remedy. Kidney complaint clung to me for a long time and on some occasions I was given such misery from pains in the small of my back that it was utterly impossible for me to perform my household duties. There was also a constant soreness through the region of my kidneys and at times considerable swelling in those parts. No remedy I tried benefited me and when a friend insisted on my trying Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box at A. C. Marsters & Co's drug store and commenced their use. The good effects were noticeable from the first and as I continued taking them, the lameness in my loins disappeared, as also did the pains in my back."
