PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and black heads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Hamilton Drug Co.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Falling Hair
Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hair-follicles, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.
Dandruff
Ayer's Hair Vigor just as promptly destroys the germs that cause dandruff. It removes every trace of dandruff itself, and keeps the scalp clean and in a healthy condition.
We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree.

"Pangwangling."

A little dubious as to the exact shade of significance, but certainly alluring to the ear, is "pangwangle." It expresses—well, what does it express?—a cheeriness under minor discomforts, a humorous optimism under small misfortunes, though indeed these seem dignified definitions for so informal a word. "I just pangwangled home in the rain," says a friend of mine, and I know he got there drenched, but good tempered. "We went pangwangling off to the theater last night," says my nearest neighbor, and I feel pretty certain they had been blue over something and felt the need of some small gaiety. It would do us all good if we pangwangled a bit more, I think.

A very meaning word is the southerner's "honing." "My, honey, I've just been honing to see you!" It is not so stilted as "I've been longing," and it is much more emphatic than "I've been wanting." It's a warm, affectionate, intimate word—honing. Let me put it into the addendum, well toward the front, for I love the sound of it.

These words are not slang. They are not exactly—as one high brow friend informed me—"low colloquialisms." They have a place in language, and they add considerably to its color.—Atlantic.

Milk Fed Edible Rats.

The Chinese diplomat regarded his grilled frogs' legs with faint disgust. "I suppose they are good," he faltered. "It is hard, though, to conquer my repulsion. Yet they are clean—clean feeders, eh?"

The American laughed long and loud.

"You," he cried, "are repelled by frogs' legs, you who eat dogs and rats!"

"Ah, but," said the Chinaman, "our edible dogs and rats are the cleanest feeders imaginable. They are equal to celery fed duck or California peach fed hog. They are confined in runs, you know, and to make their flesh white and delicate they are fed on mushes of bread and milk and vegetables—no meat whatever.

"You Americans think it disgusting to eat rats and dogs because you imagine them fattening on carrion and offal. But these frogs here—No, I'm afraid I can't. They may have fed on some tramp suicide for all I know." He pushed back his plate and waited for the next course.

IN TIME OF WAR LOOK OUT FOR PEACE

When you see a man advertise his goods at cost and below, you may bet he will "soak" you in some way if you buy from him. Now we haven't anything to sell at cost nor to give away; nor do we go around from house to house telling our troubles to our competitors' customers. When we get in trouble we will tell it to the marshal and not sneak around and try to deceive people by misrepresentations and inferior goods.

Now we have no CUT PRICES. We leave price cutting to the man who is going out of business—and we hope to not go out for awhile, at least. We are now located in the new Kohlhagen (Commercial Club) building and have one of the best and most up-to-date stocks of Groceries and Crockery in Southern Oregon, and we sell at the lowest possible price, quality considered. Our groceries are all fresh and new and our store is neat and clean. We have just installed a celebrated Royal Steel Cut Electric Coffee Mill so you do not need to send away and pay ten cents a pound extra for steel-cut coffee. Just come in and buy the coffee you like best and have it cut right here WITHOUT EXTRA COST.

Our Holiday Goods are of excellent quality, including several patterns of the celebrated German China, both decorated and plain. Our hand-painted ware is the very best—good enough for father, mother, sister, brother, wife or sweetheart. So "GET THE HABIT" and buy your Christmas supplies from the UP-TO-DATE GROCERY for we keep the best of everything.

Our motto is "highest quality of goods, square dealing and reasonable prices."

And Last but not Least, we give you honest weights and courteous treatment. Just come and see us—we'll give you plenty of time to examine our goods. We want your trade and if good goods and fair treatment will get it we will soon have it. Yours for business,
