The Wassail Bowl.
 The Wassail bowl has been regarded as the property of Christmas, but it is really a New Year custom. It was the custom of our ancestors to drink the old year out and the New Year in in a bowl of liquor, which came to be called the Wassail bowl from the exclamation "Waes hael!" ("Be in health") of every toper as he lifted it to his lips. The bowl was passed round from guest to guest, all drinking from it in token of the good will and happiness with which the New Year opened. From the Wassail bowl came the "loving cup," which still figures at the banquets of London guilds.
