Massacres in Asia Minor Go on Unabated

ALEPPO AND ADANA SUFFER

Strong Appeals for Succor are Being Sent to England, Russia, and Other Nations

Special to the Evening Review. CONSTANTINOPLE, April 21.—Massacres of Christians by fanatics and Mohammedan hordes were renewed today in a large part of Asia Minor.

Dispatches received here tonight say the loss of life in the vilayet of Aleppo will number 5000. The population of Aleppo and environs is estimated at one million.

No fewer than 5000 persons lost their lives in the massacres that have been going on in the vilayet of Adana during the last few days as a result of the outbreak of Moslem fanaticism.

Situation is Desperate. TABRIZ, Persia, April 20.—An American named Baskerville, who, until recently was a teacher in the Presbyterian school here, was killed outside Tabriz, this morning, while leading a sortie of Nationalists from the city. The object of the expedition was to open a way for the bringing in of provisions, of which the city stands greatly in need. It was not successful.

The situation here is desperate. The Christians of Tabriz are arming themselves, and will put up a strong defense during the bloody disorders that are expected to break out any day.

The English residents have sent a telegram to Foreign Secretary Grey at London appealing for immediate help. The Russians have taken refuge at the Russian consulate.

Roosevelt at Destination. MOMBASA, Africa, April 21.—The steamer Admiral, bearing ex-President Roosevelt and hunting party, was sighted from here at noon today and is expected to dock within an hour. Roosevelt will remain here until tomorrow, when he will take up headquarters at the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease, on the Athi river and begin his hunt for big game from there.

Taft's Forestry Policies. WASHINGTON, April 21.—Chief Forester Pinckney officially announced today that President Taft is heartily in sympathy with Roosevelt's policies of forest conservation and the conservation of other natural resources. This is the first announcement of Taft not to undo the work begun by Roosevelt, as was feared at some localities in the west.

Hold Up Big Water System. LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 20.—The city attorney is investigating charges that E. H. Harriman, H. E. Huntington, Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, publisher of the Times; T. T. Earl, publisher of the Express, and other local capitalists are members of a syndicate which has purchased land with a view to preventing the completion of the $20,000,000 Owens River aqueduct for supplying the city with water. These charges were made to the city council by the democratic league.

Notables at A. Y. P. SEATTLE, Wash., April 21.—Joshua Collins, chairman of the committee on special events for the A-Y-P exposition, has received a telegram from British Ambassador Bryce, acknowledging an invitation to deliver an address at the opening of the exposition. He will give a definite reply later. The program for the opening is now completely outlined, except a couple of events. J. J. Hill, the railway magnate, has accepted an invitation to be present.

Mills Want Log Ponds.

PORTLAND, Or., April 21.—Strenuous objections are being raised against the proposed new harbor lines on the east side of the Willamette river, from a point opposite St. Johns to Nigger Tom Island, at the junction with the Columbia, as tentatively drawn by the U. S. engineers. Nearly all the complainants are owners of property on the east shore of the river where the water is shallow for some distance from the waterline. Many of them are identified with the lumber interests which are planning for the erection of big sawmills there and want this shallow water for log ponds.

Too Frosty for Cupid.

HAMMOND, Ind., April 21.—Because her husband, to whom she had been married but a month, denied her a kiss when he departed from home this morning, Lena Adelsperger shot and killed herself with his revolver.

WEALTHY SMUGGLERS OFFER BRIBES TO LOEB.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The smuggling syndicate that first offered Collector of the Port Loeb $100,000 to drop the government's investigation of the smuggling of "sleepers" trucks containing $50,000 worth of Paris gowns increased its offer today to $250,000, according to Mr. Loeb.

"The amount now offered the government to drop the investigation and probable prosecution is $250,000," said Mr. Loeb. "The amount represents what would be the penalties of fully $200,000 above the appraised value of the goods. All offers have been refused. We want the smugglers."

It is believed that worry over this case so affected the mind of William G. Bainbridge, confidential agent of the United States Treasury Department in Paris, that he committed suicide. The Treasury Department had fully approved Mr. Bainbridge's course in the case, but he left a note declaring he was the victim of a plot.

Mr. Loeb's investigation shows that the smuggled gowns had been made in Paris by famous designers for many women of social prominence and wealth in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Washington and that the reason for offering such a large sum to suppress the investigation was to shield the women from unpleasant publicity.

The collector does not believe that these women knew that their gowns were to be smuggled into the country, but had purchased them as many Americans buy other goods abroad, with the understanding that they were to be delivered to them in America "duty paid," or "duty free."

Mr. Loeb will sell the seized gowns at public auction next month and will employ dressmakers and models to display them.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church are arranging for an evening's entertainment in the way of a dramatization of Longfellow's "Hiawatha," to be given by the best local talent of the city about May 18th. Proceeds to go to the church building fund.

DOES NOT LONG SURVIVE WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

Charles Moriarty, a Former Roseburg, Dead in Seattle.—Funeral Here on Friday.

News reached this city this morning of the death in Seattle, Wash., Tuesday, April 20, 1909, of Charles Moriarty, a well known former resident of Roseburg. The telegram that preceded this announcement, sent by a Seattle undertaking firm, stated that the funeral would be held at 3 o'clock, and that interment would occur beside the grave of Mr. Moriarty's wife, in the Catholic cemetery. According to this arrangement, the remains of Mr. Moriarty should arrive in this city either tomorrow or Friday morning. The funeral will probably be held from St. Joseph's Catholic church, with services conducted by Rev. Father W. P. McDevitt.

The cause of Mr. Moriarty's death is unknown here. None of his intimate acquaintances in Roseburg know of any illness he may have been afflicted with recently and he may have met with a fatal accident. His death is the third in his family during the past 14 months. In February, 1908, Mrs. Moriarty died in Alaska and was laid to rest here the following month. In June of the same year one of Mr. Moriarty's daughters passed away in Seattle, and she now sleeps beside her mother. These two severe shocks within a few months' time to the husband and father occasioned his intense grief, and in the absence of definite information, it is presumed by many of his friends that this may have developed into fatal illness.

Mr. Moriarty was about 45 years of age, a member of the Elks Lodge and a railroad builder by occupation. He was well known in railroad circles throughout the northwest and in Alaska. Coming to Roseburg several years ago, Mr. Moriarty bought a fruit ranch at Edenbow, but this he sold upon deciding to re-enter railroad work. He leaves two sons and a daughter: John and Timothy Moriarty, who were attending school in Spokane, and Miss Morine Moriarty, living in Seattle. He also leaves a brother, Timothy Moriarty, whose home is in Seattle.

Although the news concerning Mr. Moriarty's death came to this city from Seattle, he was supposed to be living in Spokane, and a letter from him, written there in the past week or two was received here by H. T. McCallen. It made no mention of his being ill at that time.

COOS BAY VOTES PORT.

MARSHFIELD, Or., April 20.—The election which was held yesterday to decide whether or not Coos Bay would have a Port Commission was carried by a very large majority in favor of the bill. Out of 11 precincts, two were carried by the noes. The total vote in favor of the port was about 6 to 1.

SMILES!

(From Everybody's Magazine.) "Are you related to Barney O'Brien?" Thomas O'Brien was once asked.

"Very distantly," replied Thomas. "I was my mother's first child—Barney was the sixteenth."

"Just time you've ever milked a cow, is it?" said Uncle Josh to his visiting nephew, "Wal, y' do it a drun sight better'n most city fellers do."

"It seems to come natural somehow," said the youth, flushing with pleasure. "I've had a good deal of practice with a fountain pen."

An officer, at a state camp, decided to see for himself how his sentries were doing their duty. He was somewhat surprised at overhearing the following:

"Halt! Who goes there?" "Friend—with a bottle."

"Pass, friend; halt, bottle."

Mr. Jones had recently become the father of twins. The minister stopped him on the street to congratulate him.

"Well, Jones," he said, "I hear that the Lord has smiled on you."

"Smiled on me!" repeated Jones. "He laughed out loud at me!"

During the recent financial depression in England, Pat and Mike enlisted in the British army. After their first drill the captain, thinking the circumstances opportune for a little lecture on patriotism, demanded, eloquently: "Soldiers, why should a man die for his king and country?"

This struck Pat at a proper question. Turning to Mike he said: "Faith, Mike, the Captain is right! Who?"

"Pow! fertile country down there in Texas," said the colonel. "Yes, seh! Why, seh, I know spots down there when the trees grow so close together that you-all couldn't shove your hand between their trunks. And game, seh! Why, seh, I've seen Fenginuh deer in those same forests with antlers eight feet spread! Yes, seh!"

At this point some meddlesome idiot asked the colonel how such deer ever managed to get their antlers between such tree trunks.

"That, seh," said the colonel, drawing himself up with squelching dignity, "is their business!"

WANTS OLD TARIFF

Piles' Amendment Provides For $2 Rate on Lumber

$1 COMPROMISE PROBABLE

Deadly Storms Sweep Eastern States—Dead Snake Around His Neck Drives Boy Crazy

Special to the Evening Review.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Senator Piles, of Washington, today offered an amendment to the tariff bill, retaining the duty of $2 per thousand on rough lumber. The understanding is that more senators favor the retention of the $2 rate than admitting lumber free. It is reported, however, that it will be difficult to get such a rate unless the oil men make a trade with the supporters of the lumber, lead, barley and free hides schedules, as was done in the House, when the proposition for free lumber had to give way to a duty of $1 per thousand. This rate may yet be accepted by the senate as a compromise.

Both Roads Use Canyon.

Secretary Ballinger did not have an opportunity today to complete his opinion in the Deschutes Canyon railroad right-of-way case, but will do so tomorrow morning. Not only will he grant a right-of-way to the Harriman railroad, but to the Oregon Trunk Line as well, and part of the distance through the canyon both roads will be obliged to use the same track. This arrangement has been agreed to by representatives of both roads.

Mr. Ballinger will further hold that the Interior Department has no control whatever over private power companies located along the Deschutes River. Where they come in conflict with railroad rights-of-way, they have recourse to the courts; the government has nothing to do with them.

Seeks Lost Wife.

PORTLAND, Or., April 21.—Believing that his wife has been murdered, abducted or hypnotized in Portland on her way to Seattle from Bangor, Me., W. H. Mix, a prominent business man of Seattle, is in this city looking for some trace of her. Mrs. Mix arrived in Portland last Wednesday with $2500. After remaining at the Imperial Hotel two days she suddenly dropped from sight. It developed later that her trunk was taken to two different places within the city by a man giving his name as E. L. Carroll, who has been arrested on a charge of larceny. An expressman has identified Carroll as the man who received Mrs. Mix's trunk, which was valued, together with its contents, at $750.

Be Glad You're in Oregon.

CLEVELAND, O., April 21.—Terrible storms are this afternoon sweeping Indiana, Illinois and western Pennsylvania. In this city several houses were demolished. In other localities several persons are reported to have been killed.

Snake Prank Causes Insanity.

TACOMA, Wash., April 21.—Raving beyond all efforts to quiet him, the 7-year-old son of C. D. Seeley may never recover his reason. A playmate threw a dead snake around the boy's neck a week ago, and the little fellow was so frightened that he went into hysterics and has gradually grown worse.

DRUNK GIVES TRAIN OFFICIALS HARD FIGHT.

Chews Off Piece of Auditor Leedy's Thumb and Makes Gun Play on Conductor Risley.

Boarding the northbound overland train No. 16, in a drunken and belligerent condition, at Grants Pass, on Tuesday evening, a man named Leach, said to be a former near-beer dealer of Leland, created a disturbance that landed him in jail preliminary to answering in court to a serious charge. Leach was brought here from Glendale on this afternoon's flyer by Sheriff Fenton. It is probable, however, that he will have to be taken to Grants Pass for arraignment, as his offense was committed in Josephine county.

Seating himself in the coach where ladies were riding, Leach began using indecent language for no apparent reason other than for his sole delectation. Ed. Leedy, the train auditor, attempted to drag the obnoxious passenger into the smoker and in the struggle that ensued Leach bit off the nail and a piece of flesh from Leedy's right thumb. Leedy desisted, and Conductor Jack Risley then laid hold of Leach, who suddenly whipped a revolver from his pocket and pressed the muzzle against Risley's stomach. At this juncture, when the affair was threatened with serious results, a nervous male passenger, whose name was not learned, approached Leach unawares from behind and jerked the weapon away from him. Leach was then quickly subdued, and when the train reached Glendale he was put off and locked up in jail there for the balance of the night.

Leach will be held to answer either to a charge of assault or assault with a dangerous weapon.

The funeral of the late Hon. J. S. Fitzhugh, who died at his home in this city last Monday evening, was held this afternoon from the family home, with a large number of people present. Business throughout the city was suspended during the ceremonies as a mark of respect. The county offices were likewise closed. Services at the home and at the Masonic cemetery, where interment was had, were conducted by Rev. W. A. Smick, of this city. The honorary pall-bearers were, Hon. J. C. Fullerton, H. C. Stanton, A. J. Bellows, J. C. Alkon, T. R. Sheridan and G. W. Kimball. Neither of the three sons of the deceased were able to reach here to attend the funeral. It was learned this morning that J. K. Fitzhugh was at Hood River, and the other two, living in Montana, have both been ill—one of them seriously.

Commercial Club trustees will meet tonight to consider several matters of importance.

AMERICAN VESSEL TAKEN BY CANADIAN.

International Complication May Follow Fishing in British Waters.

(Aerogram by United Wire-loss, first published message taken at the new station in Roseburg.)

FRIDAY HARBOR, Puget Sound, April 21.—

The steamship Jefferson, plying between Seattle and Cordova and Valdez, Alaska, reports passing the Canadian revenue cutter, Kestrel, at 8:07 this morning, the latter having in tow the American fishing schooner, Levy Woodberry. The American had apparently been captured while fishing in British (Canadian) waters, and international complications may follow.

STRUGGLE OVER INCOME TAX IS IN PROSPECT.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—It is evident that the income tax will furnish a sharp contest in the senate during the tariff discussion. In view of the facts the democrats are said to be unanimous for an income tax, the leaders of the "insurgents" republican faction appear to be confident of victory.

On the other hand the opponents of the income tax declare the democrats are not united and that some of the insurgent strength will be lost if it is shown that the tariff bill provides sufficient revenue to run the government.

By an aye and nay vote the senate today rejected the conference reported on the census bill because of its failure to include the McCumber amendment, requiring applicants for civil service employment to reside in the states claimed by them as their homes.

A lawsuit is the sequel to the fire which in June of last year destroyed Mrs. Florence Howard's residence in Riverside Addition, together with a quantity of household goods belonging to Mrs. Howard's son-in-law, S. H. Meyer. The plaintiff in the suit, which was filed this afternoon in the circuit court, is Mr. Meyer and the defendant is the American Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J. The plaintiff alleges in his complaint that his household goods were insured for $300 in the defendant company, but that the insurance company refuses to settle. He therefore demands a judgment for $300, together with interest and costs.
