ROSEBURG OFFICERS SEARCH FOR BRUTE
G. H. Botsford, Transient Painter, Aged 59, Accused of Crime Against 7-Year-Old Girl.

Justice of the Peace John T. Long this afternoon placed in the hands of Sheriff Fenton a warrant for the arrest of Gilbert H. Botsford, accused of a brutal crime upon the person of Graela Mason, the 7-year-old daughter of Mrs. Edith L. Mason, of North Roseburg.

Botsford is a painter by occupation, coming to this city about three months ago. He lived alone in a small house in North Roseburg, a short distance from the home of Mrs. Mason, who did his laundry work. Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Mason's little girl took Botsford's laundry to him, and Botsford detained the child for some time.

The authorities knew nothing of the case until yesterday noon, although Mrs. Mason could have prevented Botsford's escape by promptly informing City Marshal Joseph Huff, who lives just across the street from her home.

Botsford is reported to have had about $100 in money when he left. This sum will enable him to put considerable distance between himself and Roseburg, although the officers, despite the 15-hour start which he was permitted to get, have hope of capturing him.

"RAFFLESS" DONOHUE JAILED IN "FRISCO
Advertising Fakar, Who Had Port Land Guessing Recently, Accused of "Short-Changing."

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Geo. H. Donohue, known throughout the big cities of America as "Raffles," was arrested last night, together with James Simpson, and lodged in the city prison, where they will be detained pending an investigation of a charge of attempting a "short change" game at a Market street book store.

Numerous complaints of "short-changing" have been lodged with the police during the last two weeks, and Donohue and Simpson will be held for observation of those making the complaints.

In the role of "Raffles," Donohue has caused a great amount of interest in many of the larger cities. He worked the scheme in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Seattle and Portland, and by the aid of confederates and substitutes evaded capture, but this time he met the real thing.

Special to the Evening Review.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 21.—The great fire in the Couer d'Alene Indian reservation was controlled this afternoon, according to the report of sawmill workmen, who have been fighting the flames. Mill owners deplore the losses in timber because of their heavy interests, but it is known that nine square miles of the choicest white pine is destroyed.

The authorities knew nothing of the case until yesterday noon, although Mrs. Mason could have prevented Botsford's escape by promptly informing City Marshal Joseph Huff, who lives just across the street from her home.

Nothing has yet been heard from the surveying party which Everett Harriman and his school class are members. Heat from the fire is intense. Heavy clouds of smoke hang over the country and blazing brands are carried nearly a mile.

WHAT THE FUTURE WILL BRING TO UNITED STATES.

Great Era of Prosperity Ahead for the United States—Must Learn to Think in Billions.

Unless the unforeseen occurs the decade upon which the United States is now entering promises to be one of unexampled prosperity.

The statistical expert of the Manufacturers' Record has been figuring out what is going to happen within the next ten years of the nation's progress, and the very vastness of the conclusions he reaches makes a startling exhibit of the country's financial and industrial power.

The population for 1918 is estimated at 106 million, bank deposits $30,000,000,000, value of agricultural products at $16,800,000,000, capital and products of manufacturers $62,000,000,000, gross earnings of railroads $4,000,000,000, with a mileage of 284,000, and freight mileage of 422,000,000,000.

But while this optimistic prediction is dazzling in its brilliancy, it must not be forgotten that there will come with this expansion of industry great problems, that will tax the wisdom of the statesmen to the utmost.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Within the next week it will be definitely known whether there will be a strike of motormen and conductors of the Chicago Railway Company.

HOW TO POISON GROUND SQUIRRELS AND GOPHERS. Interesting results have just been announced by the Forest Service as a result of the campaign conducted in Southern California by Stanley E. Piper, expert of the Biological Survey of the Department of Agriculture, to exterminate ground squirrels and gophers.

Extensive experiments were tried to determine the best means of killing off these destructive little animals, and it was found that most effective results were obtained by using poisoned green or ripening barley heads.

While green barley proved most successful for poisoning ground squirrels, yet the difficulty of procuring a sufficient supply in all localities led to dried barley grain being tried. The grain was treated with strychnine sulphate, saccharine, and eggs, and although this combination proved very destructive to the squirrels, it had practically no effect upon doves and quail.

The experiments also proved that gophers were partial to raisins and dried apples, and these were successfully used in the poison experiment. It was found that by sprinkling the apples or raisins with the strychnine solution, an effective result was produced as could be obtained by inserting the poison into the fruit.

Commercial Congress Also in Favor of Income Tax—Against Govt. License in "Dry" Places.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 20.—The agitation over the Colorado forest reserves and the activities of Gifford Pinchot broke into open fire before the Trans-Mississippi Congress this afternoon, and after a hot debate a resolution calling upon Congress for a law declaring for a division of the agricultural, mineral and forest lands was passed.

RESOLUTIONS TO THE FOLLOWING EFFECT WERE ADOPTED: That the income tax measure become a law.

That the tariff commission of experts be placed in service. That Congress pass a law regulating the use of grazing lands.

That Alaska be given a Territorial legislature. That Congress pass a law preventing the collecting of Federal liquor license in prohibition territory.

That aid be extended American shipping. Uncle Joe Cannon and his political household came in for a scolding when ex-Judge J. B. Belford, of Colorado, sought to show that the Commercial Congress is dominated by "special interests."

Judge Belford charged that delegates each year are made to "listen to essays" carefully prepared for the "infantile mind," and then to be explained by a few loaders.

"What's the use of millions of people west of the Mississippi being represented here if they have to sit still and be injected with a few spoonfuls of rhetoric?" he asked.

"If this is going to continue, we may as well quit. If we are going to pattern this congress after the fashion of our illustrious National House and its political czar, let somebody say so and lay down the rules in black and white."

Everybody's Magazine for September has a three-quarter page picture of apple picking, in the Olwell orchard at Central Point, Oregon. The picture is credited to the New York Tribune-Farmer, so it is very clear that Oregon apples are attracting widespread attention and are receiving some very extensive advertising.
