

KEEP WELL POSTED

On the current events of the world's progress by reading the DAILY REVIEW. Delivered by carrier, 50 cent month.

ROSEBURG

REVIEW

PROFITABLE INVESTMENT

Advertisers get good returns from announcements placed in live papers—the DAILY AND TWICE-A-WEEK REVIEW. Try them—there's none other so good.

VOL. XII.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 21, 1909.

No. 201.

GAINS IN INTEREST

Baptist State Convention is a Decided Success

FULL LIST OF DELEGATES

Shows Large Representation of the Churches of the State—Services Tonight

The Oregon Baptist State Convention re-opened this morning at 8:30. A second of a series of Bible readings was given by Rev. H. Wyse Jones, who now has charge of Baptist Evangelism throughout the Pacific Coast district. "Chosen in Christ," was his subject. His talk was founded on Eph. 1:3-9.

To men of the Christian faith there was much encouragement in his reading. He emphasized the fact that God has interested Himself to choose us and provide for our redemption. It does not depend altogether upon us. At the conclusion of this service the congregation engaged in singing, "How Firm a Foundation."

The president, Rev. Ora C. Wright, of Eugene, then called the convention to order and the body was led in prayer by Dr. J. W. Ford, ex-president of Pillsbury Academy.

The report of the committee on enrollment was then read by Rev. E. G. O. Groat, of Cottage Grove.

The committee on nominations gave partial report, and H. F. Merrill, Arthur Conklin and E. M. Runyan were appointed for the ensuing term of service on the Executive Board.

The president appointed a committee on arrangements consisting of A. E. Smith, of Arleta, O. P. Coshov, Roseburg, and M. M. Bledsoe, of Klamath Falls.

The general topic for the morning session was "The Business of Baptists." The first address was made on "The Foreign Mission Society" by Rev. A. W. Rider, of Oakland, Cal., who is secretary of the Foreign Mission work on the Pacific Coast. Quoting from John M. Moore, of Boston, he said: "It is the whole duty of the Church, the duty of the whole Church, to give the whole gospel to the whole world as speedily as possible." He told of people in India who worshipped animals. They wanted to move them from one place to another. One was a cow, and of course she objected to being shipped on a freight car and manifested it by bellowing loudly, and the following telegram was sent to the heathen priest, viz: "Ship God by freight. Believe as quickly as possible. Bellowing very loudly." Many instances of ignorance and superstition were given by Mr. Rider, who speaks from observation as he has traveled in the interests of the Missionary Union through many foreign lands. The oppression of women was emphasized in foreign countries where heathendom reigns. Impurity gets early hold upon the children, and white still children more than 250,000,000 of them are engaged in viciously wicked practices.

The fair share of heathen population for Baptists of the Northern convention to evangelize is about $1,000,000, or about an average of forty-five heathens for each Baptist of our convention.

The next speaker was Rev. Alonzo M. Petty, D. D., of Los Angeles, Cal., representative of the Home Mission Society. He accented the duty of evangelizing America. "As goes America, So Goes the World," he said, is quoted by other nations more than by Americans.

Mr. Petty gave informing statistics as to conditions of our work and with illustrative map he made forcible the claims of the Home Mission Society.

The president appointed as a committee on social problems: Rev. R. Schwedler, of Portland; and as a committee on Bible scholars, Rev. C. H. McKee, of Medford. Reports from various associations were given, as follows:

Central—Rev. D. E. Baker, of Lebanon.
Eastern—Rev. M. M. Bledsoe, of Klamath Falls.
Middle—Rev. C. P. Bailey, of Prineville.
Rogue River—Rev. F. C. Lovett, of Grants Pass.
Umpqua—Rev. E. G. O. Groat, of Cottage Grove.
Willamette—Rev. J. F. Heacock, of Portland.

Portland—Rev. John Beutzien, of Portland.
Coos and Curry Counties—Rev. C. H. McKee.

The work and needs of the field were forcibly presented by these men. Report of the General Missionary and of the treasurer were very encouraging.

This afternoon the same subject was followed up in the discussion of the American Baptist Publication Society by Rev. J. L. Wherry, editor, and also the women of the state presented their work. The Baptist women of Oregon are doing a great work along missionary lines. Among the speakers were Mrs. J. S. Felling, Mrs. W. C. Smith, Mrs. H. D. Gates, of Portland; Mrs. J. A. Clarke, McMinnville; Mrs. M. L. Briggs, Miss Carrie O. Millsbaugh, Portland.

At 5:30 a banquet will be given, and Dr. Brougher will be toast master.

This evening there will be a discussion of the Baptist Brotherhood by Hon. O. P. Coshov and others. At 8:30 Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, of Portland, will preach.

List of Delegates Present:

J. L. Wherry, McMinnville; Mead M. Bledsoe, Klamath Falls; C. H. McKee, Medford; F. C. Lovett, Grants Pass; Arthur Conklin, Grants Pass; E. H. Hicks, Ashland; G. Leroy Hall, Medford; Ora C. Wright, Eugene; Jas. F. Felling, Portland; V. A. Carter, North Palatka; J. R. Comer, Salem; C. A. Wooddy, Portland; W. T. Jordan, Portland; Leonard W. Riley, McMinnville; Fred C. W. Parker, Portland; H. F. Merrill, Albany; J. F. Heacock, Lents; J. R. G. Russell, Astoria; Mrs. Russell, Astoria; Mrs. W. G. Smith, Montavilla; Mrs. A. F. B. Church, Mrs. A. E. Patch, Montavilla; A. B. Ford, Carlton; C. L. Owen, Louis K. Sumner, St. Johns; H. Wyse Jones, McMinnville; I. N. Munroe, Portland; H. Albers, Albany; Jerry Green, Crawfordville; C. H. Mattoon, McMinnville; R. Schwedler, Portland; L. Watts, Portland; S. A. Hayworth, Mrs. Hayworth, E. A. Goldberg, Oregon City; D. E. Baker, Lebanon; James A. Clark, Mrs. Clark, McMinnville; Mrs. H. E. Happersett, Portland; Mrs. W. H. Latourrette, McMinnville; G. A. Martell, McMinnville; Mrs. Martell, McMinnville; E. A. Smith, Arleta; Ellen May McClain, Tallman; B. Clarence Cook, Portland; John Bentzien, Portland; A. M. Petty, Los Angeles; A. W. Ryder, Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. L. Shuman, University Park; Carrie J. Millsbaugh, Portland; C. P. Bailey, Prineville; Mrs. G. G. Shirley, Medford; Mrs. H. C. Garrett, Medford; S. L. Bennett, Medford; Arthur B. Waltz, Portland; J. L. Tomlinson, Albany; R. K. Hackett, Mrs. Hackett, Grants Pass; J. W. Brougher, Portland; Nellie L. Goodrich, Lebanon; Everett Brown, Thos. Gordon, A. M. McFarland, Grants Pass; C. H. Lake, P. A. Willison, Riddle; F. L. Bunting, Mrs. Bunting, Portland; Mrs. M. J. Williams, Miss Veda Williams, Oregon City; James Haevner, Grass Valley; F. Kirkpatrick, Riddle; Mrs. J. M. House, Eugene; E. G. O. Groat, Cottage Grove; Mrs. Elizabeth C. Houston, Portland; A. G. Sandison, Portland; W. E. Rogers, North Palestine; J. H. Wilkins, McMinnville; Mrs. O. C. Wright, Eugene; Mrs. H. D. Gates, Portland; James W. Ford, Mrs. Ford, Eugene; Mrs. J. C. Felling, Portland; Mrs. U. J. Hart, Salem.

The Bed-Rock of Success

lies in a keen, clear brain, backed by indomitable will and relentless energy. Such power comes from the splendid health that Dr. King's New Life Pills impart. They vitalize every organ and build up brain and body. J. A. Harmon, Lizenore, W. Va., writes: "They are the best pills I ever used." 25c at all druggists.

Miss Hattie Drollinger left last week for Montana.

Have Arundel tune it.

SUPPOSE THAT THESE

WERE YOUR CHILDREN?

I sat down at the big table with the Governor at my right, writes Judge Lindsey, the Mayor at my left, and the president of the Board of Supervisors and Police Commissioner Wilson at either end of the table. The ministers seated themselves in the chairs about the room. (We allowed no newspaper reporters in, because I knew what sort of vile and unprintable testimony was coming.) Mickey, the boy who was rounding up witnesses for me, sent in his first one.

One by one, as the boys came, I impressed upon them the necessity of telling the truth, encouraged them to talk, and tried to put them at their ease. I started each by asking him how often he had been in jail, what he had seen there, and so forth. Then I sat back and let him tell his story.

And the things they told would raise your hair. I saw the blushing of the foreheads of some of the ministers at the first details. As we went on, the perspiration stood on their faces. Some sat pale, staring appalled at these freckled youngsters from whose lips, in a sort of infantile eagerness to tell all they knew, there came stories of bestiality that were more horrible because they were so innocently, so boldly, given. It was enough to make a man weep; and indeed tears of compassionate shame came to the eyes of more than one father there as he listened. One boy broke down and cried when he told of the vile indecencies that had been committed upon him by the older criminals, and I saw the muscles working in the clenched jaws of some of our investigating committee—saw them swallow the lump in the throat—saw them looking down at the floor blinking, afraid of losing their self-control. The Police Commissioner made the mistake of cross-examining the first boy, but the frank answers he got only exposed worse matters.

The boy came and came until at last a Catholic priest, Father O'Ryan, cried out, "My God! I have had enough!" Governor Peabody said harshly, "I never knew there was such immorality in the world!" Some one else put in, "It's awful—awful!"

"Gentlemen," I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?" Governor Peabody arose. "No," he said, "no. Never in my life have I heard of so much rot—corruption—viciousness—I've heard today from the mouths of these babies. I want to tell you that nothing I can do in my administration can be of more importance—nothing I can will I do more gladly than sign those bills that Judge Lindsey is trying to get through the legislature to do away with these terrible conditions. And if," he said, turning to the Police Commissioner, "Judge Lindsey is 'crazy,' I want my name written under his, among the crazy people. And if anyone says these boys are liars, that man is a liar himself!" The Beast and the Jungle, in the November Everybody's.

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

Gentlemen, I said, "there have been over two thousand Denver boys put through these jails and those conditions in the last five years. Do you think it should go on any longer?"

THOUSANDS PERISH

Tornado Sweeps East Bengal, Filling Ganges River

ALPHONSO OUSTS CABINET

Lovett Heads Oregon Short Line and Union Pacific—Gen. Elwell S. Otis Passes Away

Special to The Evening Review.

CALCUTTA, India, Oct. 21.—Between 5,000 and 10,000 natives perished in the tornado which swept East Bengal, according to exhausted refugees arriving here today. Scores were blown into the Ganges, and their bodies block the river. The fields for miles are strewn with debris. Pestilence and starvation threaten the survivors.

Spanish Cabinet Resigns. LONDON, Eng., Oct. 21.—Upon request of King Alfonso, the Spanish cabinet resigned today. Upon the choice of a new cabinet depends the future of the Spanish throne. The appointment of a conservative premier means a continuation of the anti-clerical riots and anti-military demonstrations. The King does not want to appoint a liberal, but he may be forced to.

Lovett in Harriman's Place. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Judge Robert S. Lovett was today elected to the presidency of the Oregon Pacific and Oregon Short Line Railroads, to succeed the late E. H. Harriman. To the Union Pacific executive staff was added three new vice-presidents, J. C. Stubbs, Julius Kruttschnitt and William Mahl, Kruttschnitt, William Rockefeller and Jacob H. Schiff were elected directors.

Burke Offered Chinese Post. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—A report is current here that Judge Thomas Burke, a wealthy lawyer of Seattle, has been asked if he would accept the post of minister to China. Judge Burke has traveled extensively in the Orient, is personally acquainted with the statesmen of Japan and China, and is a friend of President Taft, having been his fellow-passenger on a voyage to Yokohama.

Great Portland Parade. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—With almost every nation in the world represented in costumes and 200 floats typifying all phases of industrial, commercial and fraternal life, the great Portland parade passed through miles of streets today. It was perhaps the most brilliant spectacle of its kind ever seen in the west. More than 20,000 persons participated and five times as many lined the streets as spectators. Two thousand Chinese were in line, and 300 of them carried the largest dragon ever imported to this country. Spanish residents and their societies were the most active in today's programme, and the parade was chiefly a Spanish triumph.

Gen. Elwell S. Otis Dead. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Major General Elwell S. Otis, retired, veteran of the Civil and Spanish-American wars and a noted Indian fighter, died here today of heart trouble. He was 71 years of age.

General Otis was born in Frederick City, Maryland, in 1838, and graduated from the Cambridge Law School in 1861. A year later, during the Civil War, he entered the Federal Army as a volunteer and rose from the rank of captain to brigadier-general. He participated in all the principal engagements of the Army of the Potomac after the Battle of Antietam. He was severely wounded in the vicinity of Petersburg, Va., in consequence of which he was discharged and brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers.

In 1867 Otis entered the regular army, with the rank of colonel, and from that year until 1881 he served on the western frontier against the Indians. During the four years immediately following the close of this campaign, General Otis conducted the United States military school at Leavenworth, Kansas. In May, 1898, he relieved General Merritt in chief command of the Philippine Islands. He reached the rank of major-general in the regular army in January, 1900. General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

General Otis was the author of a book bearing the title "The Indian Question."

PRACTICAL TARIFF TALK.

The casual investigator of the new tariff law will find apparent reason for congratulation when he inspects the new schedule thereof. Apparently there is a total reduction of 14 per cent on the entire schedule but if he probes deeper he will find the fault. When railroads desire to raise rates that will certainly be followed by a protest they do it indirectly, by changing the classification. The tariff makers follow the same process. Timbers of varying sizes make up the buildings we erect. Under the Dingley law these bore a duty of a cent a cubic foot, on "timber, hewn, sided or squared." The new law apparently reduces this rate 50 per cent by making the duty a half cent, but—here's the joker: the new paragraph reads: "Timber hewn, sided, or squared, otherwise than by sawing, the last four words being new matter. As a cold matter of fact these timbers are not hewn, sided or squared in any other way than by sawing. Hewing is a back number method of lumbering. By the interpolation of the four words, 'otherwise than by sawing,' squared timber is put in the 'boards' classification, where the rate is an equivalent of a 50 per cent raise over the old rate.

The same trick of shifting classification is certain to make another department of building more expensive. The duty on structural steel, ready for use, in the Dingley law was $10 a ton. The new makes the duty from $6 to $8 a ton, according to the value, but the wording of the paragraph has been so changed that structural steel that has been punched is not mentioned at all, the new rate applying to the material that has not been advanced beyond hammering, rolling and casting. Until structural iron is punched it is of no use to the builder, and under the new law the punched material carries a duty of 45 per cent, being included under the classification of "all manufactures of metals not specifically mentioned." This iron sells at an average of about $35 a ton, and a 40 per cent tariff means $14 a ton, as compared with $10 a ton under the old law. Yet the Senate financial committee calmly issues an estimate of reductions in which it includes structural steel and iron.

One of the complaints made by the fruit growers of California during the tariff debate was that railroad rates were so adjusted that the tariff considered, the lemon grower of the Pacific Coast was barred out of any market east of Pittsburgh. East of that point the Sicilian lemon, shipped through on a cent a pound tariff, was able to undersell the Californian. As lemon growing is a very profitable business and thousands of new trees have been planted in the last few years, the westerners wanted a wider market. So they went down and saw Mr. Aldrich, and he tacked on a 50 per cent raise on lemons to a cent and a half a pound. Florida pine-apple growers felt themselves barred out of some markets that a higher tariff would open to them in this country. They didn't get as much of an increase as they hoped for, but they didn't expect they would. But the maddest men in the country today are the lemon growers of the far west and the pineapple planters of the southland. After they got their tariff the railroads simply raised their rates sufficient to enable them to absorb the tariff increases. The occasion, however, is not one that calls for any laughter from the consumer. He will have to pay more for his lemons and his pineapples, the only difference being that the increase, instead of going to the fruit-raiser, is taken by the railroads.

C. Q. D.

RAILROAD SAVES 1300 MILES.

Prince Rupert is 1250 miles north of the latitude of San Francisco. It is a remote line, this New Line. That is, it seems remote, thinking provincially. Thinking cosmopolitanly, it is a world thoroughfare.

From Liverpool to Yokohama, if you go by way of Quebec and Prince Rupert, you will go 9517 miles. If you dip down south and go by way of New York and San Francisco you will go 10,830 miles. You save more than 1300 miles by taking the inner circle around the North Pole that is furnished by the more northern route.

Still more surprising, a letter starting from Chicago and choosing to go by Prince Rupert instead of by San Francisco, will save 600 miles by the time it reaches Japan—William Hard, in the November Everybody's.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorder of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all druggists.

S. K. Sykes has just received a large shipment of flowering bulbs, grown at Lisse, Holland. Call and see them.

FOR SALE.—Timberland, cut 5,000, 000 feet, for $6250. In Umpqua tract; easy to log. W. E. Porter, Oakville, Wash.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our most sincere thanks to the kind friends who rendered us sympathy and assistance during our recent great bereavement in the loss of our beloved mother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lough, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hunter.

If you want a nice frame made call at Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

Clark's Studio.

BREHMER WANTS $2,500 FROM SHERIFF FENTON.

One of the two expected damage suits against Sheriff Fenton was filed in the Circuit Court this afternoon by Attorney F. G. Miceeli in behalf of Harry T. Brehmer, the transient typewriter repairer, who was committed to the county jail for ten days on the 5th of this month in default of a $20 fine imposed in the Justice Court for jumping a board bill at the Herrington House.

In his complaint Brehmer says that he was "detained wrongfully, unlawfully and maliciously in jail for a period of five days after serving out the sentence imposed by the court." By reason of this, he alleges, he "suffered great mental anguish and humiliation" and was prevented from pursuing his occupation as a repairer at which, he claims, he earns $15 a day. He asks damages in the sum of $2,500.

Attorney Miceeli states that this suit will be followed by another to be filed within the next few days. The plaintiff will be Ned Dulley, who was imprisoned in the county jail for fifteen days upon request telephoned from Coos County, but which request was never followed by a warrant nor the formal filing of a charge, which was alleged to be similar to the one for which Brehmer served time.

How to Treat a Cold.

Be as careful as you can, you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to affect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.

Murderer Convicted.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Antonio Rizzio was today found guilty by a jury of the murder of Teresa Percepia, aged 8 years, and Freddie Infusino, aged 6 years, two Italian children who were kidnapped from their home on the 11th of last September. The bodies of the two children were found under a culvert the following morning. Fausie Infusino, who survived the murderer's bullet, identified Rizzio, who is said to have had a grudge against the Percepia child's parents. The verdict returned is in the first degree, punishable by electrocution.

Kills Child Then Self.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 21.—After beating her 3-year-old stepchild to death with a sledgehammer, Mrs. Rose Helney, aged 28 years, living at Graham, near this city, placed herself on the rails of a suburban car line, allowing the wheels of a car to pass over her head and crush out her life. The woman was undoubtedly demented. The motorman attempted to avoid striking the woman, who braced herself between the rails. The death of the child was not discovered until the police went to the woman's home to investigate her circumstances.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

40 acres, half mile from Oakland, All cleared, level land, suitable for fruit, grain, hay, poultry, etc. Eight acres bearing fruit. Small house and barn, good water. $3,000, easy terms. P. A. Coppard, Oakland, Oregon.

DAY OF TRAGEDIES

"Bootleggers" Burn to Death Their Enemy's Son

HOTEL ROBBERS MURDER

Demented Oregon Woman Slays Stepchild, Then Suicide Under Wheels of a Car

Special to The Evening Review.

ANETA, S. D., Oct. 21.—Made a living torch of fire by the enemies of his father, Kenneth McKenzie, aged 12 years, son of Simon McKenzie, a local butcher, is dying in the hospital here today. The