ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 21, 1910.

ALL FOR HARMONY

United Action by Trustees and Publicity Committee

OLD OBLIGATIONS CLEARED

Permanent Publicity Committee to be Elected Next Friday—Goal is 500 Members

A "get-together" movement that promises gratifying results toward advancing the interests of this city and county was held at the Commercial Club rooms Thursday night. This was a joint session of the Commercial Club trustees and the new publicity committee. As a result of this conference the indebtedness incurred during the past year will be wiped out and the business affairs of the Club put upon a substantial basis. The house committee will also be assured of a sufficient income to carry on the social features of the Club in a satisfactory manner, and meet all current expenses as rapidly as they accrue.

The wiping out of the old indebtedness places the Club in a fine condition once more and the membership will rapidly increase from this date. The new publicity fund will also be substantially increased, and the work of the Club will be more harmonious—and therefore more effective—than at any former period of its history. The Club expects to have a membership of at least 500 in this city and county before the end of the present year. Just imagine, if you can, how this country will advance with 500 enrolled workers unitedly engaged in furthering its advantages.

Following is the secretary's report of Thursday night's session:

Roseburg, Ore., Jan. 20, 1910.

Pursuant to call, a meeting of the board of trustees jointly with the publicity committee was held, with S. Josephson, president of the Commercial Club, presiding. Present on the part of the trustees: Messrs. Alley, Booth, Eddy, Cannon, Marsters, Dyranger and Josephson; on the part of the publicity committee: Messrs. Hargreaves, Perkins, Seely, Josephson and Manager Richardson.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of disposing of the accounts of the board of trustees relating to advertising, etc. Upon motion, duly seconded, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this joint meeting of the acting publicity committee and the board of trustees of Roseburg Commercial Club that the existing indebtedness incurred in advertising by the board of trustees be paid by the publicity committee from the subscription now being taken; that the publicity committee may release the signatures of the new subscription list from obligation on the old subscription card circulated by the board of trustees; that the remaining said old subscriptions be paid and turned over to the said publicity committee; that a meeting of subscribers shall be called for January 28, 1910, for the purpose of electing a permanent publicity committee and to ratify the action of this meeting.

On motion made and duly seconded the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the board of trustees of the Roseburg Commercial Club:

Resolved, That the publicity manager, Mr. Darby Richardson, be and he hereby is authorized to increase the Club membership and to collect and receipt for all initiation fees and monthly dues from all members of said Club and turn the moneys so received over to the secretary of said Club, who is hereby authorized and instructed to draw a warrant on the general fund of said Club in favor of the publicity committee, on the 1st day of each month, for the amount of all moneys collected by said publicity manager, hereunder, in excess of two hundred dollars per month.

GEORGE NEUNER, Jr.,
Secretary.

Acting Committee Resigns and New One to be Elected.

According to the resolution passed Thursday night at the joint meeting of the board of trustees and the publicity committee, the permanent publicity committee, to be composed of five members, will be chosen on January 28 at a meeting of the subscribers to the new publicity fund, which has been called then for that purpose. The present acting publicity committee today ceased to exist, as will be seen by the following resignations:

"Mr. Sam Josephson, Chairman of Publicity Committee, Roseburg Commercial Club, Roseburg, Oregon. Dear Sir:—I hereby hand you my resignation as a member of the publicity committee of the Commercial Club, the same to take effect this date. Very truly, (Signed) J. W. Perkins, Sam Josephson, Clark L. Barker, Henry Hark, W. C. Harding and A. C. Seely." Mr. J. O. Newland, the remaining member, could not be reached, as he is in California.

CURTIS VICTOR OVER PAULHAN AT SPEEDING.

French Aviator, However, Wins
Every Endurance Test and Carries off $15,000 in Prizes.

Aviation Field, Los Angeles, Jan. 20.—Curtis and Paulhan—the great rivals of the meet—furnished the excitement for the closing day of the international aviation contest. The two airplanes, full power on, came over the grandstand with the speed of express trains. Curtiss, it was plain, was gaining. He crept swiftly on Paulhan's heels, and on the third lap after starting he reached Paulhan, flying above. The Frenchman for a few seconds held his own, then Curtiss, in his American machine, forged ahead by a nose, a length, and finally by half a lap. It was no race after that. The American machine was demonstrated as the faster beyond question.

As Curtiss rushed over Paulhan he received the greatest applause that any of his efforts have evoked. Paulhan went on until he had traveled 64.4 miles and had been in the air nearly an hour and a half. Curtiss came down after a thirty-mile trip.

Standing of Rivals.

This race gives the whole story of the meet. The Curtiss machines have won all the prizes for speed, quick starts, perfect landings, and these events where a light, swift machine showed best.

Paulhan has won all the cross-country, passenger carrying and endurance tests, having a heavier slower machine and an engine which he trusts completely. Paulhan has taken more than $15,000 in prizes, and has broken the world's records for altitude and for cross-country flights, alone and with a passenger.

FINED FOR ALLOWING MINORS TO PLAY POOL.

Pleading guilty in the Circuit Court this morning to indictments charging them with allowing boys under legal age to play pool in their places of business, A. T. Marshall, R. B. Mathews and Rose Goodman, all of Roseburg, were each fined the minimum of $25 by Judge Hamilton. The fines were paid. In nearly every instance where there was a violation of the law the boys misrepresented their ages. District Attorney Brown calls attention to the fact that boys who misrepresent their ages for the purpose of securing permission to play pool are themselves liable to fines of from $10 to $100.

Indictment Made Public.

The sealed indictment returned by the grand jury last Tuesday was made public today, the indictments being against Emmitt Overman, a mining prospector of North Myrtle Creek, who came to Roseburg this afternoon at the request of his brother, R. E. Overman, and voluntarily surrendered himself to the sheriff. The indictment charges Overman with "willfully defacing a building belonging to Geo. Carlson," who homesteaded and built a cabin on a tract of land on North Myrtle Creek which Overman at one time held under a mining right. Returning to the claim early last year, Overman is alleged to have torn down Carlson's cabin and taken possession of the premises. The two men then carried their dispute into the United States land office in Roseburg and Carlson won. The case will be heard at the next term of court, in May, Judge Hamilton having discharged all of the jurors of the present term. Overman is at liberty on bail of $250. The maximum penalty for the offense under which the indictment is brought is one year in jail or a fine of $500.

AWARE OF FRAUDS

Hyde-Benson Affair Informed Hermann, Says Heney

ARGUES TO ADMIT HIS POINT

Contents If Hermann Opposed Other Reserves There Was Motive in Blue Mountain Case

Special to The Evening Review.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 21.—Did Binger Hermann have any knowledge of the existence of the Blue Mountain Forest Reserve conspiracy by reason of having his attention called to the extensive frauds being perpetrated by Hyde and Benson in Northern California and in the Cascade Forest Reserve in Oregon? Prosecutor E. J. Heney contends that he did. Col. Worthington, of the defense, says it is unfair to open the doors of such evidence.

All during this morning's session, Judge Wolverton has been listening to arguments of the opposing attorneys, and this afternoon he will decide whether the Government is to be allowed to make such a showing. If Wolverton allows Heney to present the evidence desired, and it seems certain that he will do so, then Heney will begin on the first lap of his effort to show that Hermann had full knowledge of the manner in which school lands were being fraudulently acquired and that while in some instances he refused to sanction the creation of reserves that he did use his influence toward the creation of the Blue Mountain Reserve, thus showing that he was personally concerned in the lands within its boundaries.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 20.—Special Prosecutor Heney last night announced that he would probably conclude the presentation of evidence against Binger Hermann before adjournment of court at noon Saturday.

Hermann lost ground in the morning session of his trial when Sorenson was allowed to testify that F. P. Mays had demanded that Sorenson surrender one-half of the school lands owned privately by Sorenson in the Blue Mountain Forest Reserve. Sorenson said Mays declared the lands were to be given to Mitchell and Hermann because of their work in Washington in procuring the establishment of the proposed reserve.

The jury was instructed by Judge Wolverton to hear any weight against Hermann unless it was shown that Mays, Jones and Hermann were fellow-conspirators.

"The declaration of one co-conspirator cannot be taken as evidence of the conspiracy," said Judge Wolverton. "That must be proven otherwise, but if it can be proven that the conspiracy once included Mr. Hermann, then the acts and declarations of one conspirator must be taken as the acts and declarations of all members of the conspiracy."

But in the meantime Attorney Heney has succeeded in having the witness relate the demands made by Mays and alleged to be in behalf of Mitchell and Hermann.

OREGON NEWS.

M. J. Anderson, supervisor of the Skellyou forest with headquarters in Grants Pass, has tendered his resignation. Irregularities in the management of his office were charged, and he was given the choice of resigning or accepting reduced rank in the forestry service.

John Gustafson, aged 65 years, a well-to-do pensioner of the Southern Pacific, committed suicide by hanging at his home in Hillsboro Thursday. His family can assign no motive.

Geo. H. Andrews, former land agent of the Southern Pacific Co., died in Portland Friday, aged 67 years.

Attorney-General Crawford has written the State Treasurer's office that decisions of the courts indicate that the law passed in 1907 providing for the levying of a two per cent gross income tax on the earnings of corporations was repealed by implication by chapter 2 of section 28 of the laws of 1909, which provides that in fixing the valuation of the property of corporations the franchises shall be taken into consideration. Chapter 28 is the tax code.

The fact that the office of the State Engineer was made an elective office by the last session of the legislature appears to have been generally overlooked. Section 8, of chapter 26, known as the Water Code, provides: "At the general election held in November, 1910, and every four years thereafter there shall be elected a state engineer by the voters of the state, whose term of office shall be four years and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall receive a salary of $2400 per annum and actual necessary traveling expenses." State Engineer Lewis has not yet decided whether he will be a candidate for election at the primaries in September.

In his efforts to untangle the intricacies of the arid-land problems in this state, Mr. Lewis has antagonized certain large corporate interests that may demand his scalp. If this transpires he may not be in the field, as he does not consider the salary sufficient to warrant an extensive and costly campaign.

OAKLAND TO VOTE ON LIGHT PLANT BONDS.

Sutherland Company Needs System for Its Own Town and for Valley
Eight Miles Out.

OAKLAND, Ore., Jan. 20.—Mayor Hunt has called a meeting of the voters of Oakland to be held on January 22 for the purpose of discussing the issuance of bonds for the installation of a municipal electric lighting plant. The proposition is to install an electric plant in connection with the waterworks system.

For the past five years Oakland has been furnished with light by the Calapooia Investment Company, which company has a plant located six miles east of the town. This plant is now controlled by the Sutherland Land Company. It is expected the company will not desire to furnish Oakland with lights after the present contract expires, as the power will be required for lighting the town of Sutherland and the residences throughout the valley for a distance of eight miles.

J. A. Underwood, who for a number of years served as a director of the Oakland public schools, has resigned, and an election has been called for January 31 to elect his successor. The present board has been charged with construction of the new $20,000 high school which is to be completed by the early summer.

BISHOP SCADDING APPEALS FOR MONEY.

Says Church Extension is Not Keeping Pace With Great Commercial Development of Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 20.—Franklin confessing itself unequal to the present situation, the Episcopal church has appealed to all its friends, regardless of church affiliations, to give money for church extension. Oregon's undeveloped territory and undeveloped citizens need missionary help immediately, is the assertion.

"Oregon is the strategic point to advance," asserts Bishop Charles Scadding of the Episcopal church of Oregon, in a plea just published for missionary church extension.

Bishop Scadding puts the request for financial help on a business basis, saying that Oregon's resources and prosperity warrant large contributions and aggressive development.

"The eyes of the commercial and political world are turned where they look at Oregon," he adds. "There is no inconsistency in recounting these things and speaking of Oregon's material resources and in the same breath, asking for an increase in contributions for missionary expenditure. Why? Because not one of these things ministers to the support of a parish or a mission. All of these resources are largely undeveloped."

"The poor communicant of today will be the wealthy churchman of tomorrow; the young confirmee in the struggling mission today will tomorrow be the steward of vast properties."

"Twenty thousand homeseekers came into Oregon last year. They are not immigrants from foreign shores that form the tenement problem of large cities, but sturdy, stalwart people from farms in east and middle west."

"In asking financial assistance from friends outside the diocese for the endowment of the Episcopal and efforts for missionaries Oregon does so because the diocese with the men and means at its command is simply unable to cope with the conditions which confront it. With the rapid increase of inhabitants scattered as they are over so much space, our present force of clergymen is absurdly insufficient."

FOREST RANGERS AT COLLEGE LOSE PAY.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 20.—Seventy-five University of Washington forest rangers at the University of Washington are wishing today that they had never "bired out" to Uncle Sam. The forest rangers have been wishing for some time, but it did not become known until today, when it was learned that the forestry department had notified the rangers at the university that they would not receive any pay during the college term.

The rangers left for the university to study forestry before the demise of Gifford Pinchot by President Taft. It was then understood that they would draw full salary while at school. Since the chief forester's removal the "no salary" notification has been received.

(Among the forestry students affected by this order are several from Roseburg.)

Sixty Railroads East of Mississippi Presented With Demands For Increased Wages

Special to The Evening Review.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Jan. 21.—Up to noon today no trace had been found of the barkentine Washenaw, which last Tuesday morning suddenly disappeared while towing the disabled ship W. W. Smith.

Monday morning, when a force gale broke, the Smith signaled the Washenaw to stand by her in the storm. "Aye, aye," sounded the whistle of the oil steamer. Three hawsers connecting steamer and ship broke during the day. Tuesday morning the Washenaw was nowhere to be seen. Four days have passed and no report has been received of the Washenaw from either north or south steamer courses or from any haven on the coast.

According to wireless advices received here last night from Westport, Captain Lunvald, of Westport, reports there is a four-masted barkentine in the breakers seven miles north of the Grays Harbor bar. No definite information could be obtained as the report was telephoned from North Cove and the operator there could not be raised at a later hour. The craft cannot be the schooner Smith, as she is reported to be safely in tow.

Railroad Men Want More Pay.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 21.—Thousands of trainmen on sixty railroads operating between the Mississippi river and the Atlantic coast have presented demands for increased wages, according to official announcements made today. The territory in which the various railroads operate extends from the Ohio river to the Canadian border.

It is predicted that the railroads involved will follow the action of the New York Central, which has refused to grant the demands on the ground that they are exorbitant but requested arbitration.

Lovett Argues for Merger.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Attorney-General Wickersham today granted Robt. S. Wickersham promised to take the memoranda under consideration.

Negro Endorses Lynching.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 21.—"There are times when we cannot blame mobs for lynching negroes; there are certain occasions when such procedure may seem justified," was the radical statement made today by Hubert E. This, he stated, could only be done through social segregation of the two races.
