EVENING ROSEBURG REVIEW

JUNE 21, 1910.

SHAKE!

(Wallace Irwin, in Collier's.)
Yes, we've read your letters 'bout your gaddin' 'round Zambesi Chasing Jumbo over 'Fumbo with a fancy English gun.
How you'd been the Grand Adviser
settin' next to Bill the Kaiser
And a-lecturin' at Paris in that college called Sour-bun.
Yes, we followed you at Rome, sir, but, by ginger! now you're home, sir.
We intend to rope and brand you with the letters "U. S. A."
And if all our greetings proud, sir, git a trifle loud, sir.
Well, just multiply that noise by ten—that's how we feel today!
For it's welcome to you, Teddy, welcome home!
To the land of the mountains and
the mills,
To the land of God—and Mammon—land of freedom, land of gammon,
Land of trees and trusts and pa-triot's and hills.
Don't go chasin' after rhinos any more,
Don't go hikin' off to Paris or to Rome again!
For us folks that care about you sort o' can't get on without you—Honest, Teddy, ain't it bully to be home again!
Teddy, since you quit the Nation for your strenuous vacation (Facin' lions, that was easy, after what you'd just been through), Nothin' seemed so strong and hearty —there's been too much talk of Party
And so gol-darned little Action that it makes a feller blue.
We'd have nothin' much to wear if we depended on the tariff,
And the Trusts that I'm protectin' ain't no kin o' mine, says I.
And I've got a sly suspicion, if you'd promised Low Revision, Down she'd went as sure as shootin' or you'd knowd the reason why.
And it's welcome to you, Teddy, welcome home!
To the land of the shackled and
the free,
Hail Columbia's scrappy land, sir!
We're a-waitin' with a band, sir,
And our heart-strings are a-playin'
up in G.
Don't take off your huntin' costume,
Mr. Ted!
Go and chase them wolves that's
'neath the Senate's dome again;
See, that Elephant run amuck, sir—
take a crack at him for luck, sir!
Honest, Teddy, ain't it bully to be
home again!

As you paddled Lake Nyanza with some black-skinned Sancho Panza,
While the wicked up to Congress was conspirin' with the slick, Us folks murmured, feelin' queer, sir, "If the Proper Sort was here, sir,
Sure there'd be no moss a-growin'
on the little old Big Stick."
And we longed, some way 'r nother,
for a sort of Stronger Brother Who could strike where we was helpless and could roar where we was dumb,
Who knew justice from a saw-buck
and the Truth without a law-book;
So we've waited for you, Teddy—and we're powerful glad you've come.
And it's welcome to you, Teddy, welcome home!
To the land that is yours as well as mine,
Hear the salvos shake and quiver from the valley, from the river To the forest and the wheat-field and the vine!
There is something more than racket
in our noise;
It's a symphony of heart-throbs
and a "pome" again,
And the meaning, can't you guess it?
How we struggle to express it!
Honest, Teddy, ain't it bully to be
home again!

Marvelous Discoveries

mark the wonderful progress of the age. Air flight on heavy machines, telegrams without wires, terrible war inventions to kill men, and that wonder of wonders—Dr. King's New Discovery—to save life when threatened by colds, coughs, la grippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis, hemorrhages, hay fever and whooping cough or lung trouble. For all bronchial affections it has no equal.
It relieves instantly. Its safest cure. James M. Black, of Asheville, N. C., R. R. No. 4, writes it cured him of an obstinate cough after all other remedies failed. 50c and $1.
A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

UNCLE SAM'S LUMBER

is becoming rapidly exhausted, so they say. But there is still some good stuff to be had right here, so if you plan any fixing up for the glorious Fourth come and get your lumber, be it much or little. Remember also that a little of our lumber goes as far as a whole lot of some other kind.

WELL PAVED STREETS

more than any other improvement.
are of great value to a community and enhance the value of abutting property

Can Be Paid for in 10 ANNUAL INSTALLMENTS
so that the cost per year is small.

The increased valuation is demonstrated in the following cities in the West where the Bitulithic Pavement.

has been laid.

Eugene	Ashland	Walla Walla
Salem	Albany	Vancouver
Medford	Portland	Boise
Roseburg	Pendleton	Nampa
Lewiston	Puyallup	Baker City

and many other cities.

It is a general proposition that two years after a street has been paved.

THE PROPERTY CAN BE SOLD FOR DOUBLE
the price at which it is offered before paving, and yet at that time only two of the ten payments have been made. Examine

THE BITULITHIC PAVEMENT

on Jackson and others streets in Roseburg and see for yourself why

Bitulithic is Best by Every Test.
