LOCAL NEWS
 For good printing of all kinds The Review always leads.
 If you want your house painted and papered in latest eastern styles, call on D. P. Fisher.
 H. D. Andrew, of Rockford, Ill., is in the city, a prospective investor in fruit land at Garden Valley.
 Mrs. E. Forbes, of Seattle, and Mrs. Hendrick, of Cornelius, Or., who have been visiting here with their sister, Mrs. Frank Woodward, left this afternoon for their respective homes. Mrs. Glegg, another sister, leaves this evening for her home at Petaluma, Calif.
 Marshfield Times: Reese Wright, who has been in the city for the past month, visiting his father, Deputy Game Warden Cal. Wright, leaves for San Francisco to return to his ship. He has been at sea for the past four years and is now third assistant on the steamer Virginia, a big freighter which runs to Honolulu and to old Mexico.

City Marshal Joseph Huffman returned from Grants Pass this afternoon with S. M. Reynolds, the negro car porter, accused of attempting criminal assault upon 14-year-old Josephine Moss, of that city. A large crowd of curious people were at the depot to get a look at the negro, but there was no demonstration against him. He was hurried into an automobile and then driven to the county jail. His arraignment before Justice Long will occur either this evening or sometime tomorrow. Reynolds is about 19 years of age, of slender build and slightly gray. He has a wife and two children in Portland. Latest reports from Grants Pass are that the girl stated the negro had choked her, but that her throat to shout for aid caused Reynolds to desist.
 Miss Dorothy Vetch went to Cottage Grove today to visit with relatives.
 The price of foodstuffs has come down at the North Side Grocery.

CALL FOR COUNTY WARRANTS.
 Notice is hereby given all parties holding county warrants issued by Douglas County, Oregon, and endorsed "Not paid for want of funds" prior to and including the 10th day of January, 1910, to present the same to the County Treasurer of said county at his office for payment, an interest will cease thereon after the date of this notice.
 Dated at Roseburg, Oregon, June 28, 1910.
 J. E. SAWYERS,
 Treasurer of Douglas County, Oregon.

No one lies awake thinking of your business; out of print out of mind. The Presidential candidates are well advertised every four years. Ask your neighbor who ran with Bryan the last time—five out of ten will say they have forgotten and the other five will think a long time before they correctly answer.
