

HORACE JONES VICTIM OF BALLINGER'S SPITE

Kept From Practicing in Department of Interior, He Institutes Mandamus Suit.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 20.—Preferring charges that Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, has refused to admit him to practice in the department of the interior and its bureaus because of unfavorable testimony he gave in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation, Horace Tillard Jones, formerly a special agent of the general land office, today tel-graphed instructions to Washington, D. C., to his brother, Eugene A.
Jones, to institute mandamus proceedings against the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of the general land office compelling his admission.

Attorney Jones has been admitted to practice not only in state courts but in the United States district courts and in the supreme court of the United States.

Ballinger has been bitter toward the former special agent of the land office since the Ballinger-Pinchot hearing. Shortly after the hearing and following the "retirement" of Louis R. Glavis from service in the interior department, Mr. Jones filed his resignation. Secretary Ballinger, however, would not accept the resignation and discharged Jones "for the good of the service." His dismissal was brought about in spite of the fact that no charges had been preferred against him. No opportunity was given him to seek reinstatement under the rules of the civil service commission.

"The truth of the statements made by Mr. Glavis and me," said Mr.
Jones today, "has been borne out by the indictment in Tacoma recently of Charles F. Munday and others connected with the Alaska coal land frauds by the United States grand jury. It is a peculiar fact, too, that neither Mr. Glavis nor myself were called to testify before that grand jury, although we knew the case from top to bottom."

Why is it that people will pay a three cheap pairs. Call and see our
