Thanksgiving.

Let us give thanks!
What!
You haven't got
Anything to be thankful for,
Or
You have got
What
You can't be thankful for?
Oh, say,
That's no way
To feel about a good thing!
Brace up and bring
Yourself to the front.
Don't growl and grunt
And do the sorry stunt.
Pull out of the rut
If you're down on your luck
And reach for the skies that are blue.
Get out of the shade
Your troubles ha'e made.
By heck, it is up to you!
We know this is a vale of tears,
Chuckful of woe and sorrow,
And turkey that we eat today
Is not so good tomorrow.
We know that labor is a cross,
But still we have to bear it.
We know that fortune breaks sometimes
And we cannot repair it.
But, say,
Occasionally good things come our way
Don't they? Sure they do,
And bully ones too.
So let us growl and swear and kick
On every day save one.
On that one let us pause and thank
The Lord for what he's done
The way we thought he ought to do
To square himself with me and you.
Say,
We can stand for one Thanksgiving day.
Can't we? By gum,
If everything is on the bum
We must be to blame some!
What!

—W. J. Lampton.
