

E. M. F. FLANDERS

"30" THE NEW MODELS WILL ARRIVE IN A FEW DAYS "20"

Flanders "20," Racy Roadster

As shown $835.00, delivered in Roseburg
With genuine Mohair Top and Glass Front
$890.00 delivered in Roseburg.

Flanders "20," Suburban 4 Passenger

senger, $860.00, delivered in Roseburg
With genuine Mohair Top and Glass Front
$930.00 delivered in Roseburg

These little cars hold several of the most important world's records, among which is the "Longest Non-stop Run" in the annals of motordom. Running for nearly 31 days and nights continuously, without an instant's stop of the engine, carrying four passengers all the time, until 10872 miles had been traveled on the country roads around Los Angeles. This distance is as much as the average motorist will cover in three full seasons.

THE E. M. F. TOURING CAR AT $1240.00

Is the greatest automobile value in the world today. They have absolutely no legitimate competitors at so small a price.

You can pay $2000.00 for a car and get no more than the E. M. F. "30" gives You For $1240.00

They stand without an equal at the price.

Only six Flanders and six E. M. F. "30" allotted to Douglas county for the entire season, so don't blame me if you fail to get a car later in the season. A small deposit now will hold a car for you until you're ready for it. Send for descriptive pamphlet if interested.

Dr. J. L. Callaway, Osteopathic Physi-cian, Abraham Building, Roseburg

IN MEMORIAM.

Margaret Kingery was born in Ful-ton county, Illinois, January 7, 1836, and was married to Joseph McKee in 1855.

They moved to Nebraska in 1867, made a good home and many friends there and in 1879 came to Yoncalla, Oregon, where they have since re-sided.

Many years ago she united with the Christian Church and lived faith-ful to her cove.

Seven children blessed their home, all of whom are living except Guy, the youngest, who passed away sev-eral years ago.

Friday night, March 10, 1911, after almost four years of suffering, Grand-ma McKee, as she was lovingly called, quietly entered into that rest which knows no awakening until our Saviour shall call for his own.

Of her it can be truly said, she was a woman of whom no one says an un-kind word, and her life has been a blessing to the world. She is survived by an aged husband, who has tenderly cared for her during these years of affliction; her children, Mrs. Flora Applegate, Mrs. Dora Cowan, Henry and Walter McKee, of Yoncalla; Mrs. Belle Burr, of Portland; Mrs. Rose Cowan and Mrs. Cass Westenhiser, of Grantsville, Idaho.

The funeral, conducted by Rev. Groat, of Cottage Grove, at the Ma-sonic cemetery at 2 p. m. Sunday, was attended by a large crowd of sympathizing friends, who, although thankful her suffering is done, feel that a good friend has been taken away.

She had been very patient through intense pain, and while she wished for the summons, "Come up higher," seemed never to doubt that God knows best.

May we all prepare to meet her in that home where "there is no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain."

Yoncalla, March 16, 1911.
