MISS MADGE MILLER REACHES MILLION MARK

Mayor Haynes Locks the Ballot Box and Will be Present Tomorrow Night to Open it for The Final Count

ROLL OF HONOR.

MISS MADGE MILLER	Roseburg	1,001,665
MISS MIDA TRACY	Healdsburg	329,100
MRS. ALMA HARNISS	Roseburg	315,950
MRS. J. WENDELL WRIGHT	Roseburg	204,355
MRS. A. E. ALDRICH	Roseburg	186,595
MRS. F. L. BEARD	Yoncalla	106,070
MRS. FRED FIELDS	Roseburg	99,090
MISS SADIE SMITH	Oakland	89,020

Thousands—yes, hundreds of thousands of votes, and even women than that—nearly three quarters of a million votes went into the ballot box with a smash, and they were for Miss Madge Miller.

But, great Scott, don't be frightened. Miss Miller is indeed to be congratulated for the gain she has made—think of it, she has over a million votes to her credit now. Will this popular candidate have enough to win Saturday night? She has a terrific lead now, but when the reserve forces of her competitors are jammed into the box there may be another leader, and a final one. This, Miss Miller, is to tell you not to be satisfied. Keep up your pace, and gather in every vote you can. If you should win by a million you would be thoroughly satisfied; if you should lose by ten votes—well, let's not talk about such unpleasant things.

The judges performed their first duty this morning by inspecting and locking the ballot boxes. They were locked by Mayor F. W. Haynes. The contest editor, in the presence of the judges who were here, emptied the ballot box and counted the ballots. The standing of the candidates is printed above. The contest editor's responsibility is over with; he will count no more votes. All the ballots that may be cast from 10 o'clock this morning until the close of the contest will be counted by the five judges.

The key of the ballot box containing the ballots that have already been polled was turned over to Mayor Haynes, and the ballot box containing the ballots that may be polled from 10 o'clock this morning until the close of the greatest contest ever held in this section of the country, was also locked. Mayor Haynes likewise locked this box and the key was turned over to him.

As soon as all the candidates who are inside the doors at 10 o'clock tomorrow night have given in their subscriptions and received votes therefor, and as soon as the same are polled, Mayor Haynes will draw the key from his pocket and open the ballot box for the final count. There will be but two winners—will one of them be you? It's any person's race right now, so don't for a minute get discouraged. Think of the massive crowd of eager people that will crowd and push their way into the Review office tomorrow night. As a whole they have as much faith in you as any candidate in this struggle for the $300 Ford touring car or the $250 for in Miller's Addition.

If it was a one-sided race there would be no interest and not a handful of people inside our doors tomorrow night. But the public is alive with interest, more so than they have been interested in any public affair ever held in this county. They are interested because they are baffled as to who will win. Not even the contest editor has the slightest idea. The votes that you have in reserve have been forgotten by the contest editor, but he does know that you all have done about an even amount of hustling.

That is the reason for saying that everyone is on an equal footing even today, and you who expect to win will have to crack the whip with a snap that will be heard all over the county if you want to have the most votes.

Be the leader after 10 o'clock tomorrow night—be the leader by one vote—that's all that is necessary. Just do this much and you and your friends will pile into the big Ford touring car that you can call YOUR OWN.

"YOUR OWN," two words that in reality means one more vote than your closest competitor. A $300 Ford touring car for one vote.

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Grace Turie left Thursday on her return to Goldendale, Wash., after a visit at Cleveland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jarboe. Mrs. J. E. McElride, wife of the S. P. engineer, left this morning for Spokane, Wash. Mr. McElride accompanying her as far as Portland.

Dr. A. C. Seely, J. B. Pope, Geo. Hindsdale, M. E. Rice and L. Wimblerly went to Myrtle Creek this morning to view the destruction wrought by Thursday night's fire.

Taylor Brothers, the local firm of painters, whose establishment was recently damaged by fire, are moving from Cass street to North Pine, where they will occupy the two buildings back of the Macabee Temple.

Mrs. S. A. Safford and Mrs. R. L. Gile and little son, Robert, are spending several days on the Hatfield place on South Deer Creek. They will be joined next week by Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richardson.

J. T. Bryan, the lawyer, is also a successful grower of fruit and other trees. Some young English walnuts at his home on East Washington street have recently been making a growth of over six inches per week. More remarkable, however, is a bamboo, which averaged a growth of 14 inches every 24 hours for a period of five days.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into restful sleep."—Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y.

Prof. C. W. Morrison, director of the conservatory of music at Oberlin College, Ohio, is the guest of Charles A. Brand, at Garden Valley. Prof. Morrison is a stockholder in the Overland Fruit and Development Company. Prof. Howard H. Carter, also of Oberlin College, which is Mr. Brand's alma mater, will arrive here in a few days for a visit with Mr. Brand. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Carter.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life.

A systematic search is to be made for the body of E. B. Bakowski, the tourist who lost his life last winter in Crater Lake National Park and whose snowshoes were later found by a traveler and brought to the Sheriff's office in Roseburg. J. W.

Stephenson, of Baker, a close friend of Bakowski, has gone to the park to direct the search and will spare no expense in the matter. No further signs of the missing man have been found, although Superintendent Arant and Chief Ranger Monterey, of the park, have made several trips about the lake in a search for marks indicating where he fell over the rim. There is yet much snow inside the rim and until that is gone a thorough search cannot be made. Don't use harsh physics.
