

Modern Business Methods Necessitate the Selling of Odd Pieces of Jewelry and Silverware—Greatly Reduced Prices

The Jeweler who wishes to keep his stock clean and modern; the Jeweler who wants to be successful and merit the patronage of people who care must not allow odd pieces to accumulate in his stock.

For this reason I am inaugurating a special sale of odd pieces in several lines. This sale will consist of selling such articles as

- $ 6.00 Solid Gold Bouches for.....$ 4.25
- 1.50 Hat Pins for85
- 20.00 Tea Sets for 13.50
- 4.25 Hand Painted Plates for..... 2.85
- 4.50 Cut Glass Bowls for..... 2.75

as well as hundreds of other pieces of jewelry—all at much-below-cost prices.

Remember—there is nothing whatever the matter with this jewelry and silverware; such pieces is as good as the day I bought it. I am simply reducing the prices because I want to make room for a complete stock of new goods for the holidays; and for the more important reason that I do not want odd pieces of jewelry to accumulate in my stock.

The good business man figures that his best loss is his best loss; and therefore to you good people I offer these good things at much less than I paid for them. I am willing that you should have them at this price; and if you are inclined to be economical or if you are thinking of buying a present for yourself or for some one else, you cannot afford to miss this special sale.

set the world to talking, but Paul Matunka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he always KEEPS AT HOME the King of all fashions—Dr. King's New Life Pills—and they're a blessing to all his family. Cure constipation, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia. Only 25c at all druggists.

It was a tame Monday in the police court this morning, only one drunk being arraigned. He was John Schofield, a transient laborer. In default of a fine of $5, he was not to work pulling weeds from the city hall lawn for 2 1/2 days. Monte Zachary, a drunk arrested Saturday afternoon, failed to appear for arraignment and forfeited bail of $15.

Grants Pass Courier: A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Goettsche tendered them a farewell party on Thursday evening. In view of their early departure from this city for Roseburg, where they go to reside. (Mr. Goettsche is an S. P. engineer and a brother-in-law of C. H. and J. B. Patrick, of this city.)

Mrs. C. H. Davies and daughter, Miss Alta, left Sunday for Portland to attend the fall millinery openings.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Scott left Sunday for Chico, Cal., where they will visit with the latter's sister, Mrs. G. H. Cunningham. They will be absent for some time.

As the result of a flat battle on the streets last Friday night between Ryan Martin, aged 16, and Raymond Stephenson, aged 14, in which the latter is reported to have been badly wounded, the father of young Stephenson has sworn out a complaint against Martin, charging assault and battery. Originally filed in the Justice Court, the case has been transferred to the Juvenile Court, where it will be tried before Judge Wencott when he re- turns from his vacation.

Rev. E. Olin Eldridge officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Guyton are spending a few days at the Grand before starting on a honeymoon tour of the coast.

Beginning today the local shop men of the S. P. Co. were again reduced to an eight-hour day. This change from nine hours is said to be general over the entire system and puts the men back where they were a few months ago in the matter of compensation. Whether the recent agitation for increased pay has brought about this order for reduced hours is unknown.

Mrs. J. Wendell Wright and little son returned Saturday night from Riddle while absent. They were members of a camping party of 14 at Middle Creek. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Uam and son, John, of Riddle; Mr. Uam's niece, from Klamath Falls; Mrs. Mary A. Lavens, of Roseburg; and Engineer G. S. Wiscadi, of Tillamook. Smith, Grants Pass, were recent arrivals at the McClain.

With a letter placed in his hat saying he left home because his father beat him while he was sick and starving, Ira Ingraham, aged 15, was found dead within a few rods of the frequently-traveled county road near Klamath Falls Sunday. He was the son of James Ingraham, a restaurant-keeper of that city. The boy left home ten days ago, after he is said to have been beaten by his father because the lad threatened to shoot him if he did not stop flogging his younger sister and him. He started to walk to Fort Klamath, but became tired and lay down by the roadside and wrote the letter explaining he was starving and would rather die than appeal for aid.

VETERANS OF TWO WARS MEET IN NATIONAL CONCLAVE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 21.—With flags flying all over the city and the strains of martial music filling the air with melody, Rochester today welcomed the Union veterans of the country to the forty-fifth National encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

About $100,000 will be expended in the entertainment of the veterans and other visitors, who are expected to number 100,000, during the week. The veterans of the '90's are now said to be passing away at the rate of about 10,000 a year, and the present encampment will be the last for many thousands.

It is practically certain that the next National commander-in-chief will be from the central states, and the choice apparently lies between former Congressman J. Warren Kiefer, of Ohio, and former Judge Harvey M. Trimble, of Princeton, Ill.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 21.—While the warriors of the North who fought in the Civil War are numbering in Rochester, the veterans of the more recent disagreement with Spain, hailing from North and South-East and West, are gathering in Oklahoma City for the annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans. John Lewis Smith, of Washington, is being hoisted as commander-in-chief to succeed Joseph H. R. Jacoby, of Seattle.

The United Spanish War Veterans was formed in 1894 by amalgamation of the original Spanish War Veterans' Association and the Society of the Service Men of the Spanish War. In 1896 the Legion of Spanish War Veterans united with the parent association, and in 1908 the Veteran Society of the Philippines became affiliated.

MOOSE FIRST FRATERNITY TO FOUND COLLEGE

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 21.—Official delegates and visitors from all of the 628 lodges of the Local Order of Moose, representing a membership of nearly half a million scattered over the Union, Canada, Mexico and Latin America, were given a cordial welcome by the Detroit members upon their arrival today to attend the 23rd annual National convention.

Governor Osborn welcomed the visitors on behalf of the state, and Mayor Thompson handed over the keys of the city at the inaugural session today. Responses were made by the Supreme Dictator of the order, Edmund E. Tanner, of Columbus, O., and the Supreme Vice-Dictator, Judge Arthur H. Jones, of Indianapolis.

The sessions will continue through the week, and among the distinguished men on the program for addresses are Senator Jeff Davis, of Arkansas; Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana; Gov. Donoghue, of Arkansas; Congressman A. J. Marchfield, of Pittsburg, Pa.; and Judge Morris, of Seattle, Wash.

Officers will be chosen tomorrow, and on Wednesday the great parade of visiting lodges will march through the streets of Detroit. Uniformed teams and marching clubs from nearly 200 lodges will compete for the $1,000 in prizes offered by the Detroit committee.

One of the most important business matters before the convention is the proposed establishment by the order of a college at Maric, Ind. The plan for the institution has already been accepted. The colleges will be open to all members of the order who are not able to send their children to other schools. This will be the first collegiate institution to be founded by any fraternal organization.

EAGLES LODGE PA. TRIBUTE TO BRET HARRIS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Twenty-five thousand or more "good fellows" will pay tribute to Bret Harris during the festival inaugurated today as the spectacular feature of the National convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. The carnival and pageantry will reflect the pioneer days of '49, with the vivid descriptions of Bret Harris carried out by the assembly and setting.

While the Eagles now have their bases all over North America, the order had its origin on the Pacific Coast, Seattle having been its birthplace. The fifth lodge of the order was organized here, and there are now two acres in San Francisco, with others in the surrounding bay cities. The grand asie was held here ten years ago. Following the great fire here the order raised $60,000 for the benefit of the sufferers. Tomorrow will be Oakland day, when the Eagles of the city across the bay will keep open house.

Imprisoned four days in a locked room of an apartment house in Washington, her only companion the blackened and acid-burned corpse of her male's mother, little four-year-old Virginia Peterson was barely saved from death by starvation when the risk of the carbonic acid with which the mother had committed suicide, pervading the other quarters, caused neighbors to investigate. For two days yesterday had heard the little girl's plaintive cries and had seen her tearful face pressed tightly against the window of the room, but no one suspected that the child was imprisoned in a chamber of death, staring, tapping at her mother's cold hands and pounding her baby face against the unyielding door until she sank to the floor, dying in exhaustion. When rescued, little Virginia was lying still and apparently unconscious on the floor near the door. She was rushed to a hospital, and her condition is precarious.
