REV. P. A. MOSES LIKELY OLDEST COLLEGE STUDENT.

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 7.—Among the students registered in the short course at the Oregon Agricultural College is the Reverend Peter A. Moses, of Corvallis, 78 years of age. Mr. Moses is especially interested in poultry raising and is taking work in that department.

This is the fifteenth annual session of the winter short course at O. A. C. and Mr. Moses states that he has attended nearly every one of them.

Mr. Moses is probably the oldest short course student attending any of the colleges of the country. He was actively engaged in the ministry 54 years, having graduated from Randolph Macom College in Virginia 56 years ago. At one time he was a state senator of Arkansas and also served as president of two southern colleges. During the Civil War Rev. Moses served as a Confederate chaplain. Since that time he has been pastor of churches in Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas and Oregon, having filled the pulpit of the Corvallis Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for a number of years. He has been a member of the Masonic Lodge for 58 years.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious, but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists. K

Mrs. L. A. Daugherty is aiming to start in a few days for a visit with friends in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. She plans to remain away about six weeks. She has rented her home here for six months to I. A. Dickson and wife, who have a homestead on Boomer Hill that they plan to move to next summer. Mrs. Daugherty has also purchased some town lots here and 24 acres of land on South Myrtle.

TAKING STEPS TO REPEAL HOME RULE AMENDMENT.

Purposes of the Anti-Saloon League Are Outlined for the Present Year's Campaign.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 8.—A letter is being issued today by the Anti-Saloon League of the state to every clergyman in Oregon, and many others, calling them to united action and specifying four things that the League claims need immediate attention. These four propositions are stated as follows in the letter:

"First, Congressional action correcting the abuse that has grown up in shipping liquor into dry territory under the protection of the interstate commerce law.

"Second, so amend the state constitution that it will be impossible to have a wet city in a dry county. The Home Rule amendment and recent decisions of the Supreme Court make this imperative.

"Third, the selection of a legislature that is friendly, that adequate legislation can be expected, and unfriendly legislation defeated.

"Fourth, the enforcement of law, through personal effort and also through the election of men for these offices having to do with the interpretation and execution of law who can be depended upon to do their complete duty."

The league will also, it is stated at their headquarters, immediately begin operations to carry their plans into execution by issuing letters to candidates for Congress and the United States Senate to learn the attitude of these men on the question of the interstate shipment of intoxicating liquors, and then in turn the Anti-Saloon League proposes to advise their friends of such attitude that they may act accordingly. The league leaders declare that they will do similar work in relation to the Legislature, namely: learn the attitude of candidates on favorable legislation and join for the ones friendly regardless of party, and oppose all others. They also propose to mix in the election of district attorneys, judges and other officials.

Petitions will soon be in circulation, according to the Anti-Saloon League program, to so amend the constitution by repealing the Home Rule amendment that by the constitution a city will be prevented from being wet in a county the majority of the citizens of which are for prohibition.

J. F. Burke, the attorney for the league, said today, "Well, the program of the league speaks for itself. The initiative and referendum law render it easy to get fair legislation but you cannot execute law by that process. It needs the selection of public servants who will do their duty, and who realize that the same forces that were behind the law are behind them in its enforcement. The idea of voting to prohibit the selling of liquor in a place, and then voting for a marshal, mayor, attorney, or Governor who does not believe in the enforcement of that law, is rank nonsense. The people are ready to vote for public servants who stand for the law when they know the attitude of the individuals who are candidates for that office, and on the other hand, the candidates for public offices for the most part will be glad to stand for the law when they know the people will support them in that attitude.

"This program of the league is in harmony with the principles of enlightened government. With the state and the community is placed the responsibility of the protection of the life, morals, liberty and health of the citizens, and it is the state and community, not the Nation, that must enact and execute laws to that end. And when a part of the state, or the entire state, in working out that purpose of government, passes a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor, the National Government should be an aid and not a hinderance to the execution of that law.

"The question is not to be raised as to whether the delegation to Congress of the power to regulate commerce between the states is wise; of course it is, but it was never intended by the framers of that instrument that that delegation of power should be used to defeat the purposes of government in the various states. And hence the forces interested in the enforcement of law in this country are behind a bill known as the Kenyon-Sheppard bill in Congress, which makes it unlawful to ship any intoxicating liquor from one state or territory of the United States into another state or territory of the United States or under its jurisdiction, which liquor is designed for illegal sale in such territory. No one can oppose that legislation except one who is desirous of having the laws violated."

THE DANGER OF RHEUMATISM

The danger of Rheumatism is in temporizing in the treatment, or in failing to realize the powerful nature of the trouble. If the blood is allowed to remain infected with uric acid, Rheumatism soon becomes chronic, and then if not checked it sometimes makes complete physical wrecks of its victims by permanently stiffening the joints and seriously interfering with the bodily nerve force. External applications will often temporarily relieve Rheumatic pains, but do not reach the blood, where the cause is located, and to depend entirely upon such treatment is a very dangerous thing to do. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by removing every particle of the cause and purifying the blood. It filters out of the circulation every trace of the sour, inflammatory matter, cools the acid-heated nerves, causes a natural and healthy nourishment through the blood to all muscles, joints and bones, and perfectly cures Rheumatism in all its forms. S. S. S. does this great work because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, acting directly on the source of the disease. Our special book on Rheumatism and any medical advice will be sent free to all. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

A Hero in a Lighthouse.

For years J. S. Donohue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years without benefit, and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists. K
